

titled only to her dower in my real estate.

Third,

I give to each of my grand children or the survivor of them the sum of Twenty-five dollars to be paid to them when they arrive at the age of twenty-one years respectively.

Fourth, I give and bequeath unto my son William the sum of Three Thousand Dollars to be paid to him in one year after my decease.

Fifth,

Whereas my son John C. Wahl, Jr. has during my lifetime received from me an advance of eight hundred dollars and whereas one Price D. Patten and his wife have conveyed to me by deed dated November 14th. 1888 and recorded in the office of the Recorder for Delaware County, Pennsylvania in Book V No. 6 page 144c. a certain property situate at Pattonville in the County of Delaware and State of Pennsylvania more fully described in said deed and whereas my said son John C. Wahl, Jr. has assigned to me twenty-two shares of stock in the Building Association at or near Pattonville, held by said Association as a collateral for a loan, and whereas I have assumed the discharge of the lien of said loan by paying the dues, interest, premiums, fines, &c. due to said Building Association. Now it is my will and I do order that if after my decease a surplus is left over and above the value of twenty shares of said stock, ~~my said~~ my said son John C. Wahl, Jr. shall receive such surplus, and I give and devise the last mentioned property, after the decease of my wife to, my said son John C. Wahl, Jr. and his wife or the survivor of them and after their decease to their children in equal portions share and share alike.

Sixth:-

I give and bequeath unto my said son John C. Wahl Jr. in addition to the above the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

Seventh:- I hereby charge the real estate hereinafter devised to my son Charles F. Wahl with the payment of my just and lawful debts and also of the above mentioned legacies.

Eighth:-

I give and devise the remainder of all my real estate to my son Charles F. Wahl.

Ninth, I hereby appoint my wife Mary Wahl and my son Charles F. Wahl, executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourteenth day of December eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

John C. Wahl

Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared, by the said John C. Wahl the testator to be his last Will and Testament, in our presence, who in his presence and at his request and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
