

Lastly: I do humbly request, and do order so far as within my power that my said Executors or either of them be not required to enter into any bonds or security for the faithful performance of their duties in any Court, in any State, or in any Country and further that they and each of them be excused from and relieved of filing any Inventory, appraisement or final account or other matter in any Court in any State or Country, concerning my estate or any part thereof. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this second day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred (1900).

Lewis S. Bartlett.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Lewis S. Bartlett, to be his last and only will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the same time and who, at the request of the said Lewis S. Bartlett subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the said Lewis S. Bartlett and of each other, all on the day and year above written.

In the matter of the probate of the alleged Will of Lewis S. Bartlett deceased. } Order for Probate.

Application having been made by William H. Bartlett and Elwood S. Bartlett for probate of the last Will of Lewis S. Bartlett deceased, and Letters Testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the Will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testator and the probate of said Will not having been contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago, it is, on this Ninth day of August A.D. 1900 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last Will and Testament of Lewis S. Bartlett deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued thereon to William H. Bartlett and Elwood S. Bartlett the Executors named in said Will who may qualify thereunder.
