Samuel J. Trilley, Executor to the last will and testament of the within named Caroline L. Trilley deceased, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that the within writing contains the true last Will and Testament of Caroline L. Trilley therein named, deceased, so far as he knows and as he verily believes that he will well and truly perform the same, by paying, first the debts of said deceased, and then the legacies in the said Testament specified, so far as the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said deceased can thereunto extend, and that he will make and exhibit into the Surrogate's Office of the County of Atlantic, at or before the expiration of three calendar months, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods and Chattels, Rights and Credits of the said deceased, that have or shall come to his knowledge or possession, or to the possession of any other person or persons, for his use; and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required.

Samuel J. Trilley

In the matter of the } Atlantic County Surrogate's Office alleged } Will of } Caroline L. Trilley }
deceased. } Order For Probate

Application having been made by Samuel J. Trilley for probate of the last Will of Caroline L. Trilley, deceased, and Letters Testamentary thereon, and the Surro gate having inquired into the circumstances and taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the Will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testatrix and the probate of said Will not having been contested and it appearing that the testatrix died more than ten days ago, it is, on this fifteenth day of February A.D. 1901 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last Will and Testament of Caroline L. Trilley deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued thereon to Samuel J. Trilley the Executor named in said Will who may qualify thereunder.
