

Philadelphia to my daughter Agnes H. Wall and my sister in-law Elizabeth Hogan their heirs and assigns (absolutely) forever share and share alike. In case my said wife Mary H. Wall should survive my said daughter Agnes H. Wall and my sister in-law the said Elizabeth Hogan then my said wife Mary H. Wall shall dispose of my Real Estate in Philadelphia as she may think best and proper.

Sixth, I do not mention my grand son Nicholas Wall for the reason that his father took good care in his life time to provide for him an estate which is ample for his support and maintenance, and which he is now in the enjoyment of.

Seventh, I appoint my said wife Mary H. Wall as executrix of this my Last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety (1890)

Nicholas Wall
Signed sealed, published and declared by the above named Nicholas Wall as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto

Then personally appeared Frank Vandsleben, Charles Otto and Wm. F. Belsterling the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will of Nicholas Wall deceased, the Testator, whom named, sign, seal, publish and declare the same as and for his last will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof he was of sound disposing mind, memory and understanding to the best of their knowledge and belief. And further that the said Testator so signed the same in their presence and at his request they, the said deponents in his presence and in the presence of each other subscribed their own proper signatures and handwriting as witnesses thereto, all being present at the execution of said will.
