Bornelia Vaughn.

Atlantic County Surrogate's Court.

In the matter of the probate of the last will and testament of Alex Vaughn, deceased. Order For Probate.

It appearing from the petition of Bornelia Vaughn, filed herein, that Alex. Vaughn, late of the Village of Mays Landing, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on the Sixth day of January 1903, more than ten days ago, having first duly made and executed a paper writing purporting to be his last will and testament, in and by which he failed to appoint an Executor thereof; and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will produced, the validity of its execution and the competency of the testator, and no caveat against the probate of said will having been filed and the said Bornelia Vaughn being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testator, It is on this Nineteenth day of January, 1904, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is the last will and testament of the said Alex. Vaughn, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that Letters of Administration with the will annexed be issued thereon to the said Bornelia Vaughn upon the giving by her of a bond, as required by law.

Emanuel L. Shaner, Surrogate.

To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas, Alex. Vaughn, late of the county of Atlantic, in the State of New Jersey, died, having made and executed a last will and testament, which has been duly proved according to law before the surrogate of the county of Atlantic; and whereas, the said testator failed to name an executor.
