Ten Broeck Morse
Petitioner.

I, Mrs. Caroline M. Weaver, widow, of Manhattan, The City of New York, N.Y., being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, as follows: First, after my lawful debts are paid, I give, devise and bequeath to my four children, Hannah E. Lea, Samuel B. Weaver, Raymond H. Weaver and Carrie E. Morse, to be divided equally share and share alike, all my property real, personal and mixed, except my jewels which are not to be sold, but to be divided equally between my four said children. I hereby appoint Ten Broeck Morse, of Manhattan, The City of New York, N.Y., to be Executor of this my last Will and Testament, with full power and authority to sell, remise, release, alien, convey, rent or mortgage, any part or all of my said real property, as his good discretion shall dictate, to sell the same at either private or public sale as he may deem best; and to use his good discretion in disposing of my real property with all due speed; and I hereby direct that he be not required to give surety upon his official bond. I hereby revoke, cancel, and annul all Wills and Testaments heretofore made by me. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my seal, the 12th day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thousand nine hundred and four.

Witnesses:

Caroline M. Weaver (LS)

Edward Stetson Griffing

Geo. A. Burkhard.

Frances E. Tyler.

Subscribed by Mrs. Caroline M. Weaver, widow, the Testatrix named in the foregoing Will, in the presence of each of us, and at the time of making such subscription the above instrument was declared by the said Testatrix to be her last Will and Testament, and each of us, at the request of the said Testatrix and in her presence and in the presence of each other, sign our names as witnesses thereto and write opposite our names our respective places of residence, on the day of the date of the said Will, at the end of the Will:
