Alice C. Doolittle, of full age, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say, that she is well acquainted with Erastus H. Doolittle, one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing will of John H. Weaver, deceased, dated the ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and that the said Erastus H. Doolittle is the husband of this deponent, and that this deponent is familiar with the signature of the said Erastus H. Doolittle, having frequently seen him write his name as well as other matters; that this deponent has carefully examined the foregoing signature of the said Erastus H. Doolittle, and verily believes the said signature to be in his own proper handwriting; and this deponent further says that she was present at the time of the execution of the said foregoing will, and that she saw John H. Weaver, the testator therein named, sign the same and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last will and testament, and that at the time of the doing thereof the said testator was of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, so far as she knows, and as she verily believes, and that James B. Lewis and Erastus H. Doolittle, the subscribing witnesses thereto, were present at the same time, and signed their names as witnesses to the said will, in the presence of the said testator, and in the presence of each other, and of this deponent all being present at the same time, and this deponent further says that the said Erastus H. Doolittle is now outside of the State of New Jersey in the State of Michigan, to wit, at or near Battle Creek.

Atlantic County Surrogate's Court.

In the Matter of the probate of the last will and testament of John H. Weaver deceased.

Order For Probate.

Application having been made to me by Laura Weaver the executrix named in the last will and testament of John H. Weaver, late of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago to wit: October 6, 1906.

It is on this First day of November A.D. 1906 adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter be established as the last will and testament of John H. Weaver deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Laura Weaver the executrix named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.
