In the matter of the Probate of the Last Will and Testament of William Aikman, deceased

Order for Probate

Application having been made to me by James M. Aikman (William Aikman, also named as Executor having renounced) the executor named in the last will and testament of William Aikman, late of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, deceased, for probate of the said will and testament and letters testamentary thereon, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances and taken the proofs, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the said will, produced, the validity of its execution, and the competency of the testator, and the probate of the said will not being contested and it appearing that the testator died more than ten days ago: May 23, 1909.

It is on this 5th day of June A.D. 1909, adjudged that the instrument offered for probate in this matter is established as the last will and testament of William Aikman, deceased, and the same is hereby admitted to probate; and it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued thereon to James M. Aikman the executor named in the said will who may qualify thereunder.
