 John P. Beam being duly sworn says that he is one of the executors named in the last will of John Beam, deceased, dated July 14, 1905; that Dr. William Otter, Beam, the other executor named therein is the brother of deponent and resides permanently at Charleston, Africa and has so resided now number of years; that deponent's knowledge of the said Wm. O. Beam he believes the latter would not exercise as executor of the said estate and will renounce his right to do so as soon as the proper papers can be sent to him for his signature; that the estate of the said John Beam, deceased, consist largely of stocks upon some of which loans have been secured which loans mature shortly and it is therefore necessary for the interest and protection of said estate that deponent should be permitted to take charge of said estate as the other executor thereof without delay for this he prays that letters testamentary upon said estate be granted unto him at once.
