It appearing from the petition of Ralph Sredick, filed herein, that Sarah A. Sredick, late of the City of Atlantic City, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, died on or about the twenty third day of November, 1910, and more than ten days ago having first duly made and executed paper writings purporting to be her last will and Testament and Codicil, in and by which she appointed Edward Sredick, of the City of Philadelphia in the County of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, the sole executor thereof, and it further appearing that the said Edward Sredick has duly renounced his said office of executor, and the Surrogate having inquired into the circumstances, taken proof, and being satisfied of the genuineness of the will and codicil produced, the validity of their execution and the competency of the testatrix, and no caveat against the probate of the said will and codicil having been filed and the said Ralph Sredick being in my judgment a fit person to administer the estate of the said testatrix,

It is on this thirteenth day of January, 1911, ordered that the instruments offered for probate in this matter is the last will and Testament and Codicil of the said Sarah A. Sredick, deceased, and the same are hereby admitted to probate, and it is ordered that letters of administration with the will annexed be issued thereon to the said Ralph Sredick upon the giving by him of a bond, as required by law.
