The petition of Jennie S. Allison, J. Stevenson Sambeth and Eda E. his wife, Walter S. Allison, and Florence V. Allison Respectfully Represents:-

That Jane E. Thompson departed this life on the day of 1902 at no 3300 Arch Street in the city of Philadelphia the place of her domicile.
That she left a last will dated December 8th 1896 by which the whole of her estate is given to her daughter, your petitioner, Jennie S. Allison absolutely.
That the said decedent was a widow, and was aged over eighty five years at the time of her death; that for a number of years prior thereto she has resided with the various members of her family; that she was engaged in no business at any time in her life; and that she left no debts;
That the said Jennie Allison, who is the sole beneficiary under said will, is a widow, having children as follows: Walter S. Allison, a son, and Eda E., intermarried with J. Stevenson Sambeth and Florence V. Allison, daughters, and no issue of deceased children That William B. Allison, husband of said Jennie S. Allison and who is named as Executor in said will, is now deceased your petitioners, therefore, showing that they are the only parties interested in the estate, hereby respectfully pray that letters of administration be issued upon the estate of said Jane E. Thompson be issued to the said Jennie S. Allison and that the bonds of the remaining petitioners may be accepted as securities thereon.

And they will ever pray &c.
Jennie S. Allison
J. Stevenson Sambeth

Eda E. Sambeth
Walter S. Allison
Florence V. Allison
