

Testament, and I request and it is my express wish that my friend William S. Garrison, in whom I have implicit confidence, be the proctor of my estate signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Henry Bellis, to be his last will and Testament, in the presence of us, who were present at the same time and at the request of the testator have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses, in the presence of the testator and of each other,

Morris S. Johnson
Herbert B. Voorhes

Henry Bellis

State of New Jersey
County of Atlantic

Herbert B. Voorhes, one of the witnesses to the within will being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he saw the testator therein named, sign and seal the same, and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last will and testament and that at the time of the doing thereof, the said testator was of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding so far as he knows and as he verily believes and that Morris S. Johnson the other subscribing witness was present at the same time and signed his name as witness to the said will together with this deponent in the presence of the said testator and at his request and in the presence of each other all being present at the same time.

Sworn and subscribed at May's Landing, County and State aforesaid, the 18th day of May A. D. 1911 before me,
Emanuel H. Shaper,
Surrogate.

Atlantic County Orphans' Court

Mathilde Bellis and
Ezekiel Corson, Proposants
Henry Bellis, et al
Executors

On caveat to probate of will of Henry Bellis, deceased.
Decree Granting probate

This matter being opened to the court by Garrison B. Voorhes and Charles C. Babcock, of counsel with proposants, and the court having taken testimony and heard the allegations of the parties herein, and being satisfied that the instrument in writing offered by proposants for probate as and for the last will of Henry Bellis, deceased, was duly executed by the said Henry Bellis as and for his last will and testament; that the said Henry Bellis at the time of executing the said instrument was in all respects competent to execute the same and was not under any restraint or undue influence.

It is therefore on this 18th day of May, nineteen hundred and eleven, on motion of Garrison B. Voorhes and Charles C. Babcock, of counsel with the proposants, ordered, advised, and decreed, that the said instrument be and the same hereby is, established as the last will and testament of the said Henry Bellis, deceased, and that the same be and hereby is admitted to probate, and it is further ordered that letters testamentary be issued upon the
