

I, Peter Boyd, of the City of Philadelphia, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

I direct my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid. I give, devise and bequeath all my estate, real and personal, to my wife and sons in such proportion and for such estates as they are entitled to receive the same under the intestate laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I appoint Joseph W. Murray and George W. Wilgus Executors of this my last will and I hereby authorize, empower and direct them to sell and dispose of all my real estate at public or private sale for such prices as to them shall seem best and for such purposes to make, execute and deliver all necessary conveyances at law and receive the purchase money therefor without liability on the part of the purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 22nd day of November, 1911.

Signed, published and declared by the above named, Peter Boyd as and for his last will and testament in our presence, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto set our names as witnesses
