IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

I, MARSHALL P. WILDER, of Atlantic City in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

FIRST: I direct my executors hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts, funeral and testamentary expenses as soon after my decease as may be convenient.

SECOND: I give and bequeath to my daughter, Grace Isabel Wilder, my piano and auto-harp and also <sup>all</sup> her mothers jewels and jewelry, absolutely, forever.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to my son, Marshall P. Wilder, Jr., my phonograph and phonograph records, and all my jewelry and watches, absolutely, forever.

FOURTH: I give and bequeath to my children Grace Isabel Wilder and Marshall P. Wilder Jr., all my books, pictures, photographs, autograph letters, diaries, manuscripts, stories, lantern and lantern slides and bric-a-brac, and also all such articles of furniture, furnishings, household utensils and other personal belongings now located at my residence in Atlantic City, New Jersey, as they may desire, and also such as may be selected for them by their guardian hereinafter named, absolutely, forever, share and share alike.

FIFTH: It is my desire that the guardians of my children hereinafter named, shall retain my faithful servant Alice Brooks Mason, to look after my said children or the survivor of them, so long as such guardians shall deem expedient, and upon the expiration of her service, I give and bequeath unto her the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) absolutely, forever.

SIXTH: It is my will and I hereby direct that my executors hereinafter named permit my friends Alexander P. W. Kinnan, Theodore C. Marceau, Dr. George Schaub and Frederick Shulenberg, each to select some article of my personal belongings or jewelry as a remembrance of me, which articles so to be selected I hereby give and bequeath to them respectively

SEVENTH: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, of which I may die seized or possessed, or to which I may be in any manner entitled at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, in trust, nevertheless, to invest the same in Municipal bonds, or in bonds secured by first mortgage on improved real estate, in the City of New York, or in railroad bonds, that have not failed to pay a dividend on their stock for a period of five (5) years prior to such investment, or in such other securities as are recognized by law as proper investments for trust funds, or to continue the investments as existing at my death; to collect all income interest, rents, issues and profits therefrom and after paying necessary expenses of said trust, to apply the net income therefrom in the manner hereinafter stated, and upon the separate, distinct and independent trusts hereinafter named.

EIGHTH: I direct my executors and trustees hereinafter named, to divide the corpus of my residuary estate into as many separate, distinct and independent shares, as I shall have lawful children surviving at the time of my death; and I hereby further direct my said executors and trustees to pay over the net rents, issues, profits, income and interest of each of said shares to the child for whom such share is held in trust for and during the term of the natural life of such child; provided, however, that should any of my children predecease me leaving lawful issue surviving at the time of my death, then and in such case I direct my executors and trustees to pay over to such issue, absolutely forever, per stirpes and not per capita, the share their parent would have taken under this Will, if living at the time of my death. Upon the death of any of my children I direct my executors and trustees to pay over the corpus of the share held in trust for such child, to the lawful issue of such child, absolutely forever, per stirpes and not per capita; provided, however, that after each child shall respectively reach the age of thirty (30) years, I give and grant to such child so reaching the age of thirty (30) years the right, power and authority to appoint the corpus of his or her share to and among such persons, or corporations in such shares, upon such terms and upon such estates, as he or she may direct by last Will and Testament. In case such child shall die without leaving lawful issue him or her surviving, and without making any valid appointment as here inbefore provided, then I direct my said executors and trustees to pay over the corpus of the share held in trust for such child to and among his or her brothers and sisters, and the issue of any deceased brother or sister, share and share alike, per stirpes and not per capita. Should the last survivor of my children leave no lawful issue him or her surviving at the time of his or her death and no brothers or sisters and no issue of brothers or sisters, and without making any valid appointment, then I direct my said executors and trustees to pay over the corpus of the share held in trust for such child to the children of John T.
