

In the matter of the Estate of Richard H. Turner, Deceased. } Atlantic County Orphans' Court.
 Application to have the Estate }
 Decreed Insolvent.

The application of Atlantic Safe Deposit and Trust Company and Clarence L. Cole, executors of the estate of Richard H. Turner, deceased, respectfully represents that the applicants have given due notice to all creditors of said decedent to bring in their claims against his estate within nine months from the date of said order, pursuant to the statute in such cases made and provided, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the applicants the real and personal estate of the decedent is insufficient to pay his debts, and they thereupon pray that this court will decree the estate of the said decedent to be insolvent, and will make such other decree in the premises as the law may require and as to this court may seem meet.

Dated July 11th, 1905.
