To Honorable E. C. Higbee, Judge of the Orphans' Court, In and for the County of Atlantic.

The petition of Augusta Bolte, of the City of Atlantic City, in the County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey, respectfully shows:

(1) Your petitioner is the widow of William H. Bolte, deceased, who died on the third day of May nineteen hundred and seven, leaving a last will and testament, dated the twenty-sixth day of March, nineteen hundred.

(2) That on the twenty-fourth day of May, nineteen hundred and seven, your petitioner and her sons August F. Bolte and E. Arthur Bolte, the executors therein named presented the said will to the Surrogate of Atlantic County for probate.

(3) That Charles M. Bolte and Annie Devlin two of the children of the said William H. Bolte, deceased, by his first wife, lodged with the said Surrogate on the fourteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and seven, a caveat against the probate of any last will and testament of the said William H. Bolte, deceased, during his lifetime, there should be paid to her at least the sum of one hundred dollars per month for her support and maintenance, and that a further allowance should be made out of the income from the Estate of her said husband, and, if necessary, out of the principal thereof to carry on the litigation for the purpose of obtaining a probate of the last will and testament of her said husband.

(5) Your petitioner further shows that on the twenty-third day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, she was ceremonially married to the said William H. Bolte by August Stephany, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for the County of Atlantic, in the State of New Jersey, and that she has in her possession and ready for production the certificate of the said Justice in verification of this allegation.

(6) And your petitioner further shows that she was living with the said William H. Bolte as his wife at the time of his death.

The premises considered, your petitioner prays:

(1) That an order be made upon the administrator pendente lite of the Estate of the said William H. Bolte, deceased, or other persons having custody of his Estate, for the payment of a suitable allowance for her support and maintenance out of the income of the said Estate, and for such further allowance out of the said income, or, if need be, out of the corpus of the Estate, as may be necessary to meet the expenses incurred or to be incurred in conducting the contest concerning the probate of the said will.
