Atlantic County Orphan's Court

In the matter of the Estate of Sarah E. Bueck, deceased. Petition

The petition of the Guarantee Trust Company of Atlantic City respectfully shows that in the month of May, nineteen hundred and four letters of administration theretofore granted on said estate to said Frederick A. Van Dyke, were revoked and annulled and that your petitioner was appointed by order of this court substituted administrator in the place and stead of Frederick A. Van Dyke and the administration of said estate together with William Van Dyke. Your petitioner further shows that by further order of this court made on the tenth day of October, nineteen hundred and six it was ordered, adjudged and decreed that said Frederick A. Van Dyke do pay over to William B. Van Dyke and the Guarantee Trust Company within thirty days from the date thereof the sum of eight thousand six hundred, nineteen dollars and eleven cents the amount shown to be due to said estate by the account of said Frederick A. Van Dyke as allowed by this court. Your petitioner further shows that notwithstanding the aforesaid order of this court directing the said Frederick A. Van Dyke to make payment of the moneys in his hands to the Guarantee Trust Company and William B. Van Dyke amounting to the sum of eight thousand six hundred nineteen dollars and eleven cents as shown by said account, the said Frederick A. Van Dyke has neglected and refused and does still neglect and refuse to comply therewith.

Your petitioner therefore prays that this court may enforce the performance of his aforesaid order by a fine or attachment for contempt according to the statute in such case made and provided.
