

New Jersey Atlantic County 88
 Horsy & madden
 Avese
 William Kimble

} Conts For the trials of Small causes holden
 Before Carl Ingwersoll
 Justice of the peace

Issued A Summons in the Above case Returnable Before me on the twelfth day of June eighteen hundred and Sixty nine inquiring at two o'clock in the afternoon ~~June~~ the 5 1869 return the within Seveal on the Defendant By Nailing it to the hired man the wife not at home

1869
 June th. 12

Samuel M. Dore Constable June the twelfth eight teen hundred Sixty nine the party met the plaintiff filed his State of Demand Samuel Kimble met in the place of his Son William Kimble the party went in to the trial Horsy & madden sworn to his A court. Claines made by the defendant that if there was any mistake in the state of demand that it should be rectified and the plaintiff agreed to it and after hearing the partys I gave judgment for ninety four dollars and Sixty five cents with Cost of Suit of one dollar and fifty cents

June the fourteenth Issued A Execution for Sixty four dollars and Sixty five cents and one dollar fifty cents Cost and Cost of executing Ninety eight cents

	Judgment $ 94.65
Cost	1.50
Cost of Execution	9.8
	$ 97.19