HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22,1873

FANNONTON Reb 17th 1873 ITEM of Pebruary 15th inst., you ask why is the Rogers tation on the N. J. Southern road called North Hammonton statio. If you will permit me a space in your Silk Ha s, of our own manufacture, made columns I will try to throw some light on the matter. Being one of the first settlers of H. it has given me some knowledge of the settling of this place. In the Leginning. Mesers. Landis, Byrnes and others, purchased or bargained for 10-000 acres of land consisting of William Richards' land below the Fleming Turnpike, and the Old Hammonton tract, together with other exceptious, within these limits, consolidated them, laid them out in farm lots, and a village, and called it all Hammonton. They commenced seiling the land first on Main Road. Mr. Rogers and others bought where they now live, and were some of the first settlets on the so-called H, tract, Tho Firming turnpike being considered the por b-west limits of Hammon ou, and I think if Mr. Rogers was sway from home and was asked where he belonged he would say Hammonton. All those people op then en to H. for their mark - Li course of rivie the N. J. Southern railroad was completed to Vineland, by some mider current; switching it out round when is should have come straight through our tews, it being on a direct line, and it was with difficulty that Mr. Rugers got a sta tion by giving a half sore of land. Then with common courtesy to Mr. Rogers they named the station Rosers. Then commenced some difficulties Hammontos was not known on that road by the Condactor, at ail, which I this k was quite Bati-factory to a certain porty at Vinclond, for they had gone so far as to present the massenger cars from stopping a Rogers. People from the north wish ing to come to H. or vice versa, could me by lest at that station, they must without he put off at Winslow Jugotion, or ge round the upper route. Now there times when the C. & A. and N. J. S cars did not connect at the Jucotion, consequently a lady would have been obliged to remain in the depot, had not some person taken her home with them. That was not all the trouble. People on ld not get any where near the Junction for baggage was thrown out anywhere, and many cases like this happened last Besson. At last I wrote to the Superintendant of the read asking to have all the passenger cars stop at Rogers. They complied with the wish and sent the peneral freight agent to Hammonton, Mr. Roger and agent cane to my place to ascertain about fruit and it was then this Mr Rogers and agent agreed to enage the name from Rogers to North Harmonton. These two gentlemen coning dictor the brock of Hammorian to do so; Mr. Rogers had no desire to-Year of named for him Now all ponts living on Main road, and the nack road . . . 3 leading our to Main road will take their teems and so up to N. H. Station, and web to come back that was, and all riving friends coming and cong to and from here also Instead of going to Hammon-I a station, pay ten cents to Wisslaw Income, have their baggage changed : the other train, pay ten cents more to get to N. H. station. There is just us good conveyance from N. H. station as Course E K'B B U z L D I N G. from B station, and not be obliged or, to by over night in the station house at Wieslaw Junction. If any serson close t is one get their ticket in New York he the Junction and run the risk of gettion to Hammonton that night: It is ! but just to let us who live on these road. Notions, Dress-irintnings, In from H. station, have the above pricihave yours, and at the same time would respectfully ask you to have the kindness to keep the people posted in relation to the time table to all three of the above named stations inserted in your columns

A. Somerby. We are glad Mr. Somethy has taken the trouble to entighten us on the quitwo which we asked last week. We did mos ask for the reason that we thought there should be no stariou there, but " merely b cause we thought it strange to al it North Hammonton not being to Hammonton. We agr e with Mr. Somerly in regard to the location of the road. Pome of our wrongs may be righted in time. Let us hope so. Passengers from Crockery, Glassware. And North coming to Hammonton, will and connection at Winslew Junction with ibut low minutes delay.
