

THE ITEM. THE ITEM PRINTING CO. HAMMONTON, ATLANTIC CO., N. J.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, HENRY WILSON, OF MASS.

Wilson's Acceptance. WASHINGTON, June 13, 1872.—To the Hon. Thomas Settle and others, President of the National Republican Convention...

A Glance at Horace! OR, CHATPAQUA WISDOM AND CONSISTENCY. According to John Bunyan the ground before the entrance to the cave of grief...

Living, shall forfeit fair renown, And doubly dying, shall go down To the vile dust from which a he sprung.

This presidential fever—inveeter and incurable. It seizes the citadel of life, and renders its victims ridiculous and contemptible.

It is a green-eyed monster, which doth make The most conspicuous instance of the malady at present may be seen in Horace Greeley...

Two years ago he was earnest since this utterance, and already may Mr. Greeley be addressed in the words of the Roman satirist:—

Change but the name, of thee, the tale is told. Although always erratic and visionary, always wedded to spurious fallacies, always abounding in contradictions, yet he has now involved himself in a mesh of antagonisms which are wonderful in comparison with his former position.

diar, whose history and renown, and whose successful administration for the last three years have won such popular confidence...

Having accepted, thirty-six years ago, the doctrine of the Rev. R. B. Lyman, a publican party to-day having, during the years of their advance, subordinated all other issues, acting and co-operating with political organizations...

According to John Bunyan the ground before the entrance to the cave of grief was blood, bones, and mangled bodies. This might metaphorically be said of the approaches to the Presidency.

This presidential fever—inveeter and incurable. It seizes the citadel of life, and renders its victims ridiculous and contemptible.

pathizers. It is rebel at the core to-day. "It would hail the election of a Democratic President to 1872 as a virtual reversal of the Appomattox surrender."

As to the Administration of General Grant, I recognize one as a Republican who is not grateful for its judicious, energetic, and successful efforts to procure the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment...

Horace Greeley made an address last fall before the Grand-Ball-County (Ohio) Agricultural Society. He is doubtless sorry for it. In his speech he said: "I saw, the other day, a suggestion that I would probably be the best Democratic candidate for Gen. Grant for President."

GRANT BROWN'S organ-pitches for Free Trade and Horace Greeley's organ preaches Protection. Both are the representatives of a party which is for definite and specific principles which may not be distorted or twisted to suit trade or local advantages.

The World concludes a series of provoking questions addressed to Mr. Greeley with this comment: However these searching questions may be answered, certain it is that Mr. Greeley is receiving the support of every corrupt and dishonest man in this State.

Two years ago he was earnest since this utterance, and already may Mr. Greeley be addressed in the words of the Roman satirist:—

Change but the name, of thee, the tale is told. Although always erratic and visionary, always wedded to spurious fallacies, always abounding in contradictions, yet he has now involved himself in a mesh of antagonisms which are wonderful in comparison with his former position.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to receive a call, during the past week, from Dr. AYER's traveler, who was in our town devoting his time and attention to the preparations of the great medicine man.

PLATFORM OF THE Union Republican Party.

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to the liberty and announces its position upon the questions before the country:

First. During seven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity it criminally punished no man for political offences, and warmly welcomed all who roved loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with firm hand the resultant disorders of a protracted war, and initiated a wise and humane policy toward the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted. Immigrant lands freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the naturalized citizen's right secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary conditions, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions a year, great financial crises have been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably composed, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficent progress.

Second. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are a law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can safely be entrusted only to the party that secured their enactment.

Third. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political, and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union, by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit any discrimination in respect of citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Fourth. The National Government should seek to maintain honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

Fifth. Any system of the civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency, and fidelity the essential qualifications for public positions, without practically creating a life-tenure of office.

Sixth. We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be kept apart for free homes for the people.

Seventh. The annual revenue, after paying current expenditures, pensions, and the interest on the public debt, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and that revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax upon tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties upon importations, the details of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, prosperity, and growth of the whole country.

Eighth. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who have been honorably discharged, and who, in the line of duty, became disabled, without regard to the length of service or the cause of such discharge.

Ninth. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, "once a subject always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the individual's right to transfer allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unaffiliated claims by their former governments, and we urge constant careful encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration.

Tenth. The franchise privilege ought to be abolished, and the way prepared for a speedy reduction of postage.

Eleventh. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognizes the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor—the creator of capital—the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

Twelfth. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treacherous organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

Thirteenth. We denounce repudiation of the public debt in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the resolution of the principal of the debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance; and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payment.

Fourteenth. The Republican party is mindful of its obligation to the loyal women of America for their noble sacrifices to the cause of freedom. Their admission to wider fields of usefulness is viewed with satisfaction, and the honest demand of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

Fifteenth. We heartily approve the action of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

Sixteenth. The Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as originally as the powers delegated by them to the State and to the Federal Government. It disapproves of the recent unconstitutional laws for the purpose of re-er-giving, by interfering with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

Seventeenth. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as may tend to encourage and restore American commerce and shipbuilding.

Eighteenth. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, the sound judgment, the practical wisdom, the incorruptible integrity, and the illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day upon a new march to victory.

Nineteenth. Henry Wilson nominated for the Vice Presidency, known as the whole land from the early days of the great struggle for liberty as an intellectual laborer in all campaigns, an incorruptible legislator and representative man of American institutions, is worthy to associate with our great leader and share the honors which we pledge our best efforts to bestow upon them.

THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE RELIANCE WRINGER Have had abundant opportunities of ascertaining precisely what is wanted, and of producing a perfect Machine. They have brought out an entirely NEW WRINGER which they call the "PROVIDENCE."

New 1871 Perfection A GREAT IMPROVEMENT ver All Other Wringers!

It Saves Labor. It Saves the Clothes. It will Save its Cost Every Year. It wrings Faster than by Hand.

We consider the Providence superior to all others for the following reasons:

1st. The ROLLERS, of large size and best quality of White Rubber, are all secured to the shafts in the most permanent manner by the Mountain Process, making the best roller in the world.

2d. The PATENT METAL JOURNAL CASINGS prevent any wear upon the journals. [The wooden journals in which the iron shafts of other machines, run soon wear, and the efficiency of the wringer is thereby greatly reduced.]

3d. The DOUBLE SPIRAL COGS on the end of this wringer give the utmost ease and speed in working, while the double stop prevent strain from bottoming or being thrown out of gear. We furnish either single or double geared Providence as desired.

4th. The ADJUSTABLE CURVED CLAMP readily adjusts this machine to tubs of any size or thickness, making a perfect fastening. No wooden pegs or rubber straps on this Clamp.

5th. SIMPLICITY, STRENGTH and BEAUTY are combined in this machine, with all the requisites of a great class wringer.
