

PLATFORM OF THE Union Republican Party.

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the question before the country:

First. During eleven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, secured the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity—it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with firm hand the resultant disorders of a great war, and initiated a wise and humane policy toward the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted, the public lands freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgement of the naturalized citizens' right secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions a year, great financial crises have been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably composed, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficent progress.

Second. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are a law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can safely be entrusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

Third. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political, and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union, by efficient and appropriate laws and Federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit any discrimination in respect of citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Fourth. The national Government should seek to maintain honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

Fifth. Any system of the civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party favor is totally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency, and fidelity the essential qualifications for public positions, without practically creating a life-tenure of office.

Sixth. We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

Seventh. The annual revenue, after paying current expenditures, pensions, and the interest on the public debt, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and that revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax upon tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties upon importations, the details of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, prosperity, and growth of the whole country.

Eighth. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who, in the line of duty, became disabled, without regard to the length of service or the cause of such discharge.

Ninth. The doctrines of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, "once a subject always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the individual's right to transfer allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge congressional encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration.

Tenth. The franking privilege ought to be abolished, and the way prepared for a speedy reduction of post-ge.

Eleventh. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognizes the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor—the creator of capital—the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

Twelfth. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

Thirteenth. We denounce repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the rejection of the principal of the debt, and the wise of interest upon the balance; and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payment.

Fourteenth. The Republican party is mindful of its obligation to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom. Their admission to wider field of usefulness is viewed with satisfaction, and the honest demand of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

Fifteenth. We heartily approve the action of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

Sixteenth. The Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and to the Federal Government. It disapproves of the resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing of, by, to, it, not, sur- and, ple to either the State or National Government.

Seventeenth. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as may tend to encourage and restore American commerce and shipbuilding.

Eighteenth. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, the sound judgment, the practical wisdom, the incorruptible integrity, and the illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day upon a new march to victory.

Nineteenth. Henry Wilson nominated for the Vice Presidency, known to the whole land from the early days of the great struggle for liberty as an indefatigable laborer in all campaigns, an incorruptible legislator and representative man of American institutions, is worthy to associate with our great leader and share the honors which we pledge our best efforts to bestow upon them.

THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE RELIANCE WRINGER

Have had unusual opportunities of ascertaining precisely what is wanted, and of producing a perfect Machine. They have brought out an entirely NEW WRINGER which they call the "PROVIDENCE."

New 1871 Perfect A GREAT IMPROVEMENT

It Saves Labor. It Saves the Clothes. It will Save its Cost Every Year. It wrings Faster than by Hand.

We consider the Providence superior to all others for the following reasons:

1. The ROLLERS, of large size and best quality of White Rubber, are all secured to the shafts in the most permanent manner by the Monitor Process, making the best roller in the world.
2. The PATENT METAL JOURNAL CASINGS prevent any wear upon the journals. The wooden journals in which the iron shafts of other machines, run soon wear, and the efficiency of the wringer is thereby greatly reduced.
3. The DOUBLE SPIRAL COGS used on this wringer give the utmost ease and steadiness in working, while the double stop prevent them from bottoming or being thrown out of gear. We furnish either single or double geared Providence as desired.
4. The ADJUSTABLE CURVED CLAMP readily adjusts this machine to tubs of any size or thickness making a perfect fastening. No wooden pegs or rubber straps on this Clamp.

5. SIMPLICITY, STRENGTH and BEAUTY are combined in this machine, with all the requisites of a great class wringer.

The New York Times

Campaign Edition

During the ensuing Presidential Canvass, we shall publish a SPECIAL WEEKLY EDITION for the convenience of those who desire the latest and most trustworthy political intelligence.

Having made ample arrangements for securing the earliest reports of meetings, conventions, and other occurrences of political interest, we shall, throughout the Presidential canvass, publish fuller information relating to the progress of the campaign than any other New York paper. We aim only at supplying the public with the most complete information on all current affairs.

Subscribers to our Campaign Edition will therefore secure an exhaustive summary of the political news of the day, besides receiving the general news from all parts of the World, obtained from the best sources, and rearranged and prepared especially for this edition.

The New York Times is a Republican newspaper, and will, during the canvass, now fairly commenced, steadfastly maintain the established principles of that Party. It will support the regular nominees of the Philadelphia Convention, and do its share in securing their triumphant election in November. It regards the success of the Republican Party as an object of the very first importance, and will give no support to irregular or "bolting" nominations, which can only result in the return of the Democrats to power. There are projects of all kinds on foot for dissolving the Republican Party, and the TIMES will oppose them all. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and disavaged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871—now other journals are attempting to make political capital out of the mere repetition of the cry. There is no sincere and honest proposal for reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the party. It regards the Philadelphia Convention as the only body authorized to speak and act for the Republican Party.

TERMS:

The CAMPAIGN EDITION of the NEW YORK TIMES will be furnished to mail subscribers for the six months next ensuing, for the sum of FIFTY CENTS. All copies sent to the same Post-office to be mailed to one address.

THE NEW YORK TIMES,

As a Republican journal, will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that Party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best conserved and promoted.

Started in September, 1851, the TIMES has for many years been recognized as among the most successful, popular, and influential newspapers in the country. Two of its original proprietors still direct its policy; and, with greatly increased resources and experience, will spare no pains to extend and strengthen its claims upon the confidence and support of the public.

Its EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will be conducted in a spirit of fairness and impartiality, free alike from self-interested aims, political jobbery, or undue favoritism. It will represent the great body of the public rather than any clique of professional "politicians." It has no one connected with it who seeks office, or who will become a candidate for office. Its CONSPICUOUSNESS will be full and timely, and its REPORTS will be prepared with the utmost care. The LITERARY DEPARTMENT will be in thoroughly capable hands, and will present a full review of the literature, the fine arts, the music, and the drama of the day.

As a family paper, free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, the TIMES will continue unexceptionable, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

The Sunday edition of the TIMES includes, in addition to all the news, selected and original literary matter of the most varied and agreeable character. Special arrangements have been made to impart new attractions to this feature of the paper.

The WEEKLY and SEMI-WEEKLY editions of the TIMES are compiled with the greatest care, and will contain selections from the most important contents of the Daily issue, besides matters of interest to the agricultural sections of the country. All who prefer a newspaper but once a week will find these editions admirably suited to their requirements.

A special edition of the TIMES for European circulation is published every Wednesday and Saturday, in time for the European mails, and will be valuable and welcome to our friends abroad, whether Americans or of any other nationality than our own.

All these editions of the TIMES are of the very largest size, on large quarto sheets, each containing 17 1/2 columns, printed in clear and legible type at the following rates:

MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

The DAILY TIMES, per annum, including the Sunday Edition.....$12

The DAILY TIMES, per annum, exclusive of the Sunday Edition..... 10

THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE RELIANCE WRINGER
 Have had unusual opportunities of ascertaining precisely what is wanted, and of producing a perfect Machine. They have brought out an entirely NEW WRINGER which they call this PROVIDENCE.

It Saves Labor. It Saves the Clothes. It Saves the Cost Every Year. It Works Faster than by Hand.
 We consider the Providence superior to all others for the following reasons:
 1st. The ROLLERS, of large size and best quality of White Rubber, are all secured to the shaft in the most permanent manner by the Moulton Process, making the best roller in the world.
 2d. The PATENT METAL JOURNAL CASINGS prevent any wear upon the journals. [The wooden journals in which the iron shafts of other machines, run soon wear, and the efficiency of the Wringer is thereby greatly reduced].
 3d. The DOUBLE SPIRAL COGS used on this wringer give the utmost ease and steadiness in working, while the double stop prevent them from bottoming or being thrown out of gear. We furnish either single or double geared Providence as desired.
 4th. The ADJUSTABLE CURVED CLAMP readily adjusts this machine to tubs of any size or thickness, making a perfect fastening. No wooden pegs or rubber straps on this Clamp.
 5th. SIMPLICITY, STRENGTH and DURABILITY are combined in this machine, with all the requisites of a great class wringer.

The New York Times
 Campaign Edition
 During the ensuing Presidential Campaign, we shall publish a SPECIAL WEEKLY EDITION for the convenience of those who desire the latest and most trustworthy political intelligence.
 Having made ample arrangements for securing the earliest reports of meetings, conventions, and other occurrences of political interest, we shall, throughout the Presidential canvass, publish fuller information relating to the progress of the campaign than any other New York paper. We aim only at supplying the public with the most complete information on all current affairs.
 Subscribers to our Campaign Edition will therefore secure an exhaustive summary of the political news of the day, besides receiving the general news from all parts of the World, obtained from the best sources, and rearranged and prepared specially for this edition.
 The NEW YORK TIMES is a Republican newspaper, and will, during the canvass, now fairly commenced, steadfastly maintain the established principles of that Party. It will support the regular nominees of the Philadelphia Convention, and do its share in securing their triumphant election in November. It regards the success of the Republican Party as an object of the very first importance, and will give no support to irregular or "bolting" nominations, which can only result in the return of the Democrats to power. There are projects of all kinds on foot for dissolving the Republican Party, and the TIMES will oppose them all. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discredited its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform, from 1869 to the close of 1871—now other journals are attempting to make political capital out of the mere repetition of the cry. There is no sincere and honest proposal for reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses.—It will not encourage defection from the party. It regards the Philadelphia Convention as the only body authorized to speak and act for the Republican Party.

TERMS.
 The CAMPAIGN EDITION of the New York Times will be furnished to mail subscribers for the six months next ensuing, for the sum of FIFTY CENTS. All copies sent to the same Post-office to be mailed to one address: THE NEW-YORK TIMES.
 As a Republican journal, will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party.
 It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that Party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best conserved and promoted.
 Started in September, 1851, the TIMES has for many years been recognized as among the most successful, popular, and influential newspapers in the country. Two of its original proprietors still direct its policy; and with greatly increased resources and experience, will spare no pains to extend and strengthen its claims upon the confidence and support of the public.
 Its EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will be conducted in a spirit of fairness and impartiality, free alike from self interested aims, political jobbery, or undue favoritism. It will represent the great body of the public rather than any clique of professional "politicians." It has no one connected with it who seeks office, or who will become a candidate for office. Its Correspondence will be full and timely, and its Reports will be prepared with the utmost care. The LITERARY DEPARTMENT will be in thoroughly capable hands, and will present a full review of the literature, the fine arts, the music, and the drama of the day.
 As a family paper, free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, the TIMES will continue unexceptionable, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.
 The Sunday edition of the TIMES includes, in addition to all the news, selected and original literary matter of the most varied and agreeable character. Special arrangements have been made to impart new attractions to this feature of the paper.
 The WEEKLY and SEMI-WEEKLY editions of the TIMES are compiled with the greatest care, and will contain selections from the most important contents of the Daily issue, besides matters of interest to the agricultural sections of the country. All who prefer a newspaper but once or twice a week will find these editions admirably suited to their requirements.
 A special edition of the TIMES for European circulation is published every Wednesday and Saturday, in time for the European mails, and will be valuable and welcome to our friends abroad, whether Americans or of any other nationality than our own.
 All these editions of the TIMES are of the very largest size, on large quarto sheets, each containing fifty-six columns, printed in clear and legible type at the following rates:

Our New York Letter;
 NEW YORK, JULY 9, 1872.
 For a week the heat has been positively awful. There is no adjective indeed, superlatively descriptive enough to set forth the situation. Of sun strokes there have been 100 a day. The rays seem to come straight down like barbed arrows. The air is hot and dry, and the marble walls between which we have to walk only serve to collect and refract the intensified temperature. The rage for business is gone, and men are content to sit in their shirt sleeves and pant and fan. Lager beer, ginger pop and soda water have become the beverages of the hour, and you cannot find a place in the city where these refreshments are sold that is not thronged. Cars and steamers are carrying everybody out of town who can get away, and the Stay-at-home clubs resort for a change to the parks and excursions on ferry boats. The churches consequently make a poor Sunday show. The fashionable preachers are engaged in fishing for souls at the sea-side, and their flocks are going to country churches in Paris made clothes; as a compromise with their consciences.
 Policemen are killing dogs right and left. In Hoboken, last week, a poor German having drunk too much lager, was taking a nap on the curb stone. An ordinary black and tan dog slept or rather watched by his side. One of the knights of the star and baton attempted to arouse the man for the purpose of taking him to the station house, when the little fellow showed fight in his master's defence. The policeman thereupon drew his revolver and shot the animal several times. He did not die instantly, but with an expression almost human, crept up to his now half awakened friend and owner, laid his little head upon, and kissed the drunken face, and with a long pitiful, almost human look, breathed his last. The incident was witnessed by a dozen persons to whom that dead dog has been made more precious than a brigade of brutal policemen.
 The Aldine makes its usual artistic appearance this month. No periodical in New York is watched by the public with more interest, or treasured in the household so long. Its illustrations constitute a superb picture gallery. D. K.

LITERARY.—Mrs. F. G. de Fontaine, has written a book for mothers and children, that promises to become one of the most popular educational works of the day. It is appropriately entitled "WISDOM TEETH FOR LITTLE PEOPLE," and embodies in the form of question and answer, just that kind of information with which little folks should be supplied. It is not an easy matter to present learning in sugar-coated doses, but the authoress has most happily overcome this difficulty by preparing her volume in a shape so attractive that, like Oliver Twist, the children will call for "More!" Parents and primary school teachers will do well to give the book an examination. Published by E. J. Hale & Son, New York, and sold at all the bookstores.
