It's hard enough under ordinary conditions to crawl from under those nice warm covers, but to have to dress in a room when the thermometer is down around freeze—shivers and shakes—B-U-R-R. Don't do it. What's the use when it's so easy to make that room warm and comfortable?

Mr. Harry M. Bank, of the well-known firm of Bank Brothers, of Hammonton, N. J., and Miss Marie Koller, of New York City, were married on Tuesday, Dec. 26th, 1916. They are now at home, and receiving the congratulations of a host of friends, among them the Editors.

Last Saturday night, William Osterman took a passenger down to Pleasant Mills in his automobile. When returning, alone, he heard a signal horn from the rear, but was unable to turn aside just then because of deep ruts. Later, he gave way, and two strangers went by; but they soon stopped their car and one man alighted, came back, mounted Osterman's car and struck him a violent blow on the side of his head and knocking him against the side of the car with such force that two of his ribs were broken.
