of importance.

Many Hammonton people felt the shock of DuPont Company's explosion, last Sunday night about half-past twelve.

The Universalists have enclosed the front porch of their house of worship, including sash door to act as storm protector.

The Women's Civic Club will give a Ben Franklin social next Monday evening, 17th, in their Hall—opening at eight o'clock.
Friends invited.

January 30th will be "Home Mission Day" at the Presbyterian Church. Rev. S. J. McClenaghan D.D., Supt. of Home Missions, will be present all day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Smith spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Clyde Smith, who is slowly recovering from prolonged illness, neuritis and nervous prostration.

One of the lodgers in our lock-up this week, was a mason by trade, earning his four dollars per day when at work. Something wrong about his financial management.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America are to give a reception to the comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, next Monday evening, Jan. 17th, in their new hall.
It is hoped that every comrade will be present.

A party of young friends called on Miss Alma Krimmel, Monday evening, to assist in celebrating her thirteenth birthday. They brought a number of gifts. There was a fine birthday cake, cream, etc. All enjoyed it.

An Italian was caught in the act of helping himself from another man's hen-roost, this week. When escorted to the lock-up, he was very indignant, saying, "No steal-a da hen; bad dollar in my hand to pay for him." He was advised to bargain with the owner, next time, before seizing the poultry.

One of a series of meetings will be held by the Hammonton Grange in their rooms, on Friday even'g, Jan. 21st. The meetings will be open to all who are interested in farming. The Vocational Instructor will discuss "Fertilizers for crops of this section, this year."

Lockwood Myrick presented a thoughtful and well prepared paper on "Preparedness," in the Universalist Church, last Sunday even'g.
Grouping facts and figures as to conditions in the old world and our own land, he claimed that there is no reason to anticipate war with any nation, and that the U. S. is already prepared for any emergency that is likely to arise.

At The Universalist Church.

During January, February and March a series of addresses will be given in All Souls Church, on successive Sunday evenings.

On next Sunday Evening, Jan.
16th, Mr. C. L. Stonaker, Secretary of the New Jersey State Charities and Prison Reform Association, will speak. Many people will remember that Mr. Stonaker spoke here last winter, and was most enthusiastically received.

On Sunday evening, Jan. 23rd, Mrs. Wilhelmina Van Winkle, of Newark, will speak on "Mothers Pensions and Child Labor." Mrs.
Van Winkle is State President of the Women's Political Union, and is a very attractive speaker.

On the evening of Jan. 30th, Mr.
Joseph P. Beyers, President of the American Prison Association, and former State Commissioner of Charities and Corrections will be the speaker.

Alumni entertainments in the High School next week: Monday eve'g, Rev. Dr. Gardner's talk on "Preparedness," postponed from this week. Friday evening, a musical number,—noted elsewhere. Let us all take advantage of both of these opportunities. Com.

Bellevue Hall was well filled, Wednesday evening, to hear Miss Gove and her Pilgrim Girls. That they pleased immensely is heard on all sides, notwithstanding the fact that the piano was not at international pitch. They did very good work on violin, cello, cornet, clarinet, piano, and the little miss with the drums cymbals, etc., etc. Their return has already been asked for.

The Elwood Board of Trade is offering to residents of Elwood the sum of one dollar for a slogan to be used in the campaigns of the Board to increase settlement and industry about the village of Elwood. The competition will close January 25th, and the decision is to be announced at the February meeting at the Board. Robert H.
Johnson, Robert S. Smith and A.
G. Walker have been appointed as judges by President Wm. A. Blair.

the post office. Local school children are asked to compete.

Have You Had the Grippe?

The holidays are over now.
And here we meet once more,
We've climbed the eighty something stairs
To this familiar door.
And as I grasp your friendly hand,
There rises to my lip
The one real question of the hour,
"Say, have you had the grippe?"
We might have asked in other years,
Of Christmas gifts and fun,
The New Year's resolutions made,
And Charles began—
Of reading, resting, company.
Party or pleasure trip—
Those in their time; but tell me first Oh, have you had the grippe?
Now tell me did your poor head throb—
And did your back give out?
And did your aching limbs refuse To carry you about?
And did you take your meals in bed
And weak "moon vittles" slip;
And did you burn and cough and sneeze?
Why then you've had the grippe,
And would you know the secret cause
Of my so deep concern—
What misery loves of course you know (You've had a chance to learn.)
And what so sweet as sympathy
When other comforts slip;
One touch of nature makes us kin—
I, too, have had the "grippe." H.A.W.

Basket Ball.

Last Saturday's game between Hammonton regulars and St.
Michael's was a rather rough game.
During first half, Slack and Reeves were injured about the knees, and substitutes were put in. Our boys were defeated,—40 to 18.

Hammonton team won from the "Broadway" team, of Egg Harbor, —35 to 23.
To-night, our boys will play the "Indians," from Atlantic. There may be two games.

Temperance and Local Option Rally.

Arrangements are being made by the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey to hold the largest temperance and local option rally at Trenton, on Wednesday, February 2nd, that has ever been held in the State of New Jersey.

Delegations will come from every city and village throughout the entire state. Billy Sunday and the local committee have offered the tabernacle for a great mass meeting at 11 o'clock a.m., where the delegations will assemble by counties, and a program will be carried out and resolutions offered and adopted.
From the tabernacle, the delegates will march in a body to the capitol, and if the legislature be in session, present their resolutions. They will then re-march to the Sunday Tabernacle, where by request, the great evangelist will deliver one of his famous booze sermons.

Reservations will be made for all accredited delegates, for whom badges will be provided. Members of the Senate and Assembly will be invited to both morning and afternoon sessions.

Superintendent Shields, of the Anti-Saloon League, expects to have between ten and twenty thousand men in line.
