There will be no session of school at Central next Monday. If fuel ordered arrives in time, the bell will sound on Tuesday morning, for school. In other words, if the bell does not ring, there will be no school on Tuesday.

Michael Elliot, after passing the required examination, has gone to take up work in the aviation shops near Philadelphia. Because of his lack of hearing and speech, it is not likely that Michael will do any actual air work, but he is very ingenious and is not unacquainted with aeroplanes. It will be remembered that he built a plane at the old mill some years ago.

Game Warden Small reports that the quail have not yet suffered greatly—that if no more snow falls he expects them to go through the winter nicely. But more storms are still to be expected. Mr. Small has been making frequent trips, by sleigh, into the back roads, the day's feeding often being covered by the night's snow. The crust is a help to the birds, as they can travel more easily among the seed bearing plants.

Sunday liquor selling at rural roadhouses got a solar plexus yesterday (Tuesday) when Judge C. C. Shinn imposed a fine of $300 on Louis Purchase, of Hammonton, for that offense, when the latter pleaded non vult, withdrawing his previously made plea of not guilty. He is to pay $300 within a week, and thereafter $1 a week for three hundred weeks, reporting in person to the chief probation officer of the county.—Phila. North American.

Patriotic Sunday Service.

A patriotic and religious mass meeting will be held in the Eagle Theatre on Vine Street, Sunday afternoon, February 3rd, at half past three o'clock.

The speaker, as already announced, is the Honorable Frank J. Cannon, former United States Senator from Utah, and famous lecturer and author.

Senator Cannon has recently returned from Europe, where he went to study social conditions, and to secure speakers for the Third World's Christian Citizenship Conference to be held in Pittsburgh upon the conclusion of Hostilities. He will tell of present war conditions in Europe, and what he believes America must do to win the war, and also of moral conditions abroad, and the dangers to be feared at home. While crossing the vessel in which Mr. Cannon was travelling was pursued by a submarine, he witnessed an air raid in London, and had other thrilling experiences.

Mr. Cannon speaks under the auspices of the National Reform Association, and the General Superintendent, Rev. James S. Martin, D. D., will also be present. It is hoped that the people of Hammonton will attend in large numbers and secure the success of this effort to promote the morale of our country. An offering will be taken at the close of the meeting to defray the necessary expenses, and whatever balance there may be will be given to the Association. It ought to be added that Mr. Litke has generously given the use of the theatre with no return except for the bare expenses. It is to be hoped that the seating capacity of the theatre will be taxed to the utmost.

The following ministers and representatives of their churches have consented to act as an honorary committee:

- From All Souls Church,—Rev. W. H. Gardner, C. P. Osgood, W. A. French, A. P. Simpson.
Baptist Church,—Rev. W. J. Cunworth, W. O. Hoyt, N. C. Holdridge, R. G. Scudder.
Methodist Episcopal Church,—Rev. Everett van Dright, H. C. Doughty, A. L. Jackson, W. R. Tilton.
Protestant Episcopal Church,—Rev. W. H. Davis, Geo. S. Nicholson, Thos. Skinner, J. R. Watkins.
Presbyterian Church,—Rev. Charles O. Mudge, Dr. E. B. Allison, H. Oth Packard, A. J. Rider.
St. Joseph's Church,—Rev. Jasper Dalin, Irving I. Hearing, Anthony Colasurdo, Joseph Pizzi.

What Food Saving Involves

Sign the pledge and enroll as a member of the United States Food Administration, and you will be asked to do these things:

Eat plenty, but wisely, and without waste.

Buy less; cook no more than necessary; serve smaller portions.

Preach and practice the "economy" of the clean plate."

Use local and seasonal products whenever possible.

Whenever possible use poultry, game and sea foods in place of beef, mutton and pork.

Use potatoes and other vegetables freely.

Save wheat by substituting, in part, corn meal and other cereal flours for wheat flour.

Save butter and lard. Use butter on the table, but substitute vegetable oils for cooking.

Save sugar. Use less candy and sweet drinks and less sugar in tea and coffee.

"This is a duty of necessity, humanity and honor. As a free people we have elected to discharge this duty, not under autocratic decree, but without other restraint than the guidance of individual conscience."

—Herbert Hoover.

Raise Poultry.

The big drive for the increased supply of poultry throughout the country, carried on by the Department of Agriculture at Washington, the New Jersey State College co-operating.

This State is now well entitled, with the first posters, entitled, "Raise more Poultry," of the series and it should receive the best of attention by those who can keep poultry on farms or in back yards. It is quite necessary that serious attention be paid to this phase of increasing the country's supply of meat and save the cattle meat to its proper use.

It is pointed out that with grain being cheaper it will be economical as well as a patriotic duty for everyone to raise enough poultry and eggs for home consumption.

It is possible to estimate the benefit to the country in its present crisis if this could be carried out, and the Department hopes you will do your bit in this respect.

It was estimated in November, this year, that there was 68 per cent more poultry meat in cold storage than the year before. The resulting shortage will not be felt until next fall.

It is possible to estimate now, where the price of poultry meat will soar to next fall, owing to the above statement.

This is just another point for your serious consideration.

OUTLINE OF CAMPAIGN.

The campaign that has been inaugurated by the United States Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the State College of Agriculture, to stimulate and increase poultry production along more efficient lines is divided into the following phases:

Careful selection of breeding stock to reproduce a larger percentage of good types of profitable producers.

Early hatching so as to produce fall and winter layers.

To confine mother hens to brood coops for at least two weeks after the chicks are hatched.

To provide free range for both growing stock and layers in so far as possible to stimulate growth and production, and conserve food consumption.

To preserve eggs for winter use.

The production of infertile eggs as soon as the breeding season is over.

Disposing of surplus cockerels as broilers to conserve grain.

To discourage the marketing of all profitable hens at the end of their second year, and of the Mediterranean or egg class, until the end of their third laying year.

To encourage the careful selection of all hens in order to eliminate the unprofitable producers.

To discourage the marketing of all profitable pullets as broilers, and of all well-matured pullets for meat.

To encourage the raising of cockerels only when free range can be provided, and a special nearby market afforded.

To encourage back yard poultry keeping, especially among city and suburban dwellers, thereby utilizing table scraps for the production of fowls and eggs for home consumption.

To encourage, when conditions permit, the feeding of a winter ration, in order to conserve this grain for human consumption.

To encourage turkey, duck, and geese raising when circumstances are favorable.

For published information and individual advice on poultry raising, write your County Agent, State College of Agriculture, or the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, Washington, D. C.

Notice to Delinquents.

All taxes and sewer rents not paid on or before Feb. 4th will be returned to the County Clerk and recorded as first lien against the properties. A. B. DAVIS, Collector.

Important Notice.

The following information is of great importance to farmers, and should be read and acted on at once.

MR. EDITOR:

And to the farmers who have ordered nitrate of soda from the U. S. Government, through the County Agent, you will all have received blanks to fill out your orders on.

For corn, you fill out the portion laid out to grain; for truck, the same; also 160 other, use many attention be paid to this phase of increasing the country's supply of meat and save the cattle meat to its proper use.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1918.

The Senior Editor has been critically ill this week, his family fearing each hour would be his last. As we go to press (Friday evening), his condition is not improved.

There will be an unusual opportunity for our local readers to attend a patriotic-religious service to-morrow afternoon, at Eagle Theatre, at which time Hon. Frank J. Cannon will address his audience on a topic of interest to every one of patriotic nature.

The news school boys have met with but little opposition; everybody realizing that it could not be helped. The lower grades go from 8.30 to 12.30; and from Grade 5 up, 12.30 to 4.30. Of course, it necessitated changing of dinner hours.

With forty-two inches of frozen ground, from one to three feet of snow on top of it, and more promised, it did seem like a joke this week when seed catalogues arrived.

A thrift stamp gives you the right to stand up when the Star Spangled Banner is played.

Our local butchers say that to-day is ground hog day.

It is not only pleasing to advocates of temperance, but to believers of fair play, to hear that local option passed both the New Jersey House and Senate, and is now up to the municipalities to ratify. This is a surprise to many, for it was believed that our State would be among the last to adopt it. Of course Governor Edge affixed his signature. Now we hope Hamilton will be among the first to say "No more booze."

People sometimes wonder why we do not publish more news about the going and coming of our soldier boys. Just this, we are requested not to do so, by the Department.

It was a funny sight, Wednesday, to see the street sprinkler going up and down Bellevue, through the snow drifts. On inquiry, we found that the Water Commissioners were carrying water to the several families whose pipe lines were frozen up. Many with whom we spoke had been shivering for washing purposes.

People have been hoping that the fabled groundhog would not see his shadow to-day, for they are certainly weary of winter. No sooner do they thaw their pipes out than they are frozen up again; and it seems as though boys stopped at your door daily to shovel fresh snow off your walks.

As yet, we do not know what will become of heatless and workless Monday. Of course, unless countermanded or substituted by some other move, it will continue for eight weeks yet. We have definite instructions from the Department that the Republican office can consistently work on the newspaper, but not on job work. Mayor Boyer, up to last evening, had received no countermand of the Monday-closing order.

We have received, from Congressman Bacharach, a limited number of pamphlets entitled "German War Practices," which can be had for the asking.

The present school hours would seem, in some cases, to defeat the fuel saving. Dinners must be gotten early for high school pupils, and kept warm for father and mother from the lower grades, for even "Father" must work these days.

We see by the "Phila. Record" that wheelless pigs were made in a Penna. city, for the Food Administrator. That's nothing; we made wheelless "pigs" years ago, when we were a printer's devil, and didn't get our name in the paper, either.

Registration of Aliens.

All natives, citizens, denizens, or subjects of the German Government, being males of fourteen years of age and over, who are within the United States, and not naturalized American citizens, must register some time between next Monday, Feb. 4th, and Saturday, Feb. 9th. The local registration office is Chief T. H. Adams, and his headquarters are in the Tax Collector's office.

All aliens so registering should first ascertain his height and weight, secure four unmounted photographs of himself (three by three inches), and be ready to answer questions as to his parentage, occupation, date of arrival in this country, etc. Also, he must make finger and thumb prints on the registration blanks. After ten days have elapsed, he must again appear before the officer, sign his name and secure his registration card.

As the penalty is very severe, and the above orders for the safety of the country, no one should hesitate complying with the law.

If any of our readers know of any alien, it is ones duty to inform him of the registration order.

RED CROSS BUYS MILLION AND HALF ARMY SWEATERS

SUPPLIES SENT ALSO TO MEN
IN NAVY.

System of Distribution Prevents Waste and Duplication, Atlantic Division Announces.

Nearly one million and a half of sweaters have been purchased for training camps, according to the Bureau of Military Relief of the Atlantic Division of the Red Cross, which has charge of the distribution of supplies to the enlisted and conscripted men in the states of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

About 400,000 of these sweaters
were bought in the last month. Sixty thousand helmets were also purchased, many of which have not yet been delivered because they are held up by the present traffic blockade.
The need for sweaters among the American fighting men is increasing,
and the American Red Cross is buying in the open market almost the same quantity of knitted garments as is now being made by the women volunteers in the Red Cross.

Camp Dix, Camp Upton, Camp
Mills, Camp Merritt, Camp Vail and
the aviation fields are within the jurisdiction of the Atlantic Division. Besides these camps, the Division supplies Madison Barracks and Forts
Hancock, Wadsworth, Hamilton, Jay,
Wood, Totten, Tilden, Schoyler, Slocum, H. G. Wright and Terry.

Red Cross Men at Camps.

At these stations, including some miscellaneous giving and in addition to 50,000 Christmas packages, the Red Cross has distributed 52,378 sweaters, 19,009 helmets, 52,468 mufflers, 38,624
wristlets, 52,747 socks and 8,679 comfort kits.

It has also given to the Navy 13,810
sweaters, 7,744 helmets, 9,975 muf-
flers, 11,649 wristlets, 14,620 socks and 8,167 comfort kits. This makes a total of articles distributed by the Atlantic Division last month 66,197
sweaters, 27,653 helmets, 62,464 muf-
flers, 50,273 wristlets, 67,367 socks and 6,846 comfort kits.

The Red Cross Field Director has come to be the main solution of the great problem of distribution for the American Red Cross. In every training camp in the Atlantic Division
there are Red Cross headquarters
with a director and sometimes several assistants. From here whole units of men are fitted out with complete sets of knitted garments, which are sent out by the Division in response to hurry calls.

In the larger camps a supply of five or six thousand sweaters is kept on hand to meet emergencies. In the forts where there are no Red Cross field directors the distribution of Red Cross supplies is made by the commanding officer.

"It was early evident," said John Maggie, Director of Military Relief for the Division, "that to prevent waste and misuse of material our distribution must be made in a systematic manner. We therefore adopted the plan of fitting out units as a whole.
The commanding officer canvasses each company. He allows only one outfit to a man. On inspection day he checks the articles in the same manner as material issued by the War Department."

RED CROSS ASSIGNS WAR WORK TO SCHOOLS.

Schools in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, which have been enlisted for war work in the Junior Membership and School Activities Department of the Red Cross, have been asked by the Atlantic Division of the Red Cross to make 60,000 French and Belgian refugee garments.

This is the first definite task to be assigned to school children enrolled in the Red Cross Junior Department.
It is the result of an appeal from Red Cross representatives in France who cabled that thousands of homeless and helpless women and children
there are in need of warm garments.

Work upon these garments has been allotted through the school committees of Red Cross chapters. The order must be completed in three months, and chapters have been asked to report to the Junior Department on February 10 the portion of the allotment then completed.

RED CROSS DECENTRALIZES NATIONAL SUPPLY SERVICE.

The decentralization of the Red Cross Supply Service has just been completed. This service has been divided into two departments: the Red Cross National Clearing House and the Bureau of Purchases.

Mr. Clyde A. Pratt, formerly executive secretary of the War Relief Clearing House, has been appointed director of the National Clearing House, now situated in New York city. The Bureau of Purchases is under the management of Mr. W. H. McLaren.

1,000 MEN NEEDED FOR MOTOR SERVICE BY RED CROSS IN FRANCE.

More than 1,000 motor truck
drivers, mechanics and helpers are needed immediately by the American Red Cross for service in France. The duties of these men will be to operate and repair the Red Cross motor trucks which transport supplies to war hospitals. Men in this service will receive pay and expenses.

A recruiting office has been opened at the headquarters of the Atlantic Division under Mr.
J. Leo Skelley of the Red Cross
Foreign Transportation Department Recruiting Service. Applicants must be over thirty-one years of age.

RED CROSS ISSUES CALL TO NURSES FOR WAR SERVICE

Statement Says Between 30,000
and 40,000 Will Be Needed
in a Short Time.

A call to qualified nurses to enlist for war service has been issued by the American Red Cross Nursing Service,
the mobilizing agency for nurses for the United States Army and Navy.
Attention is called also to the imperative need for an increased enrollment in training schools so that fully qualified nurses may be released from civilian hospitals for military service.

Citing an estimate of the Surgeon-
General's office that the Army alone will need between 30,000 and 40,000
nurses in short time, the Red Cross Nursing Service makes it clear that the present average enrollment of 1,000 a month falls far short of the military needs of the Government.
Moreover, it is asserted, the Allies are depending upon this country to supplement their nursing service.

The fact that the recruiting of nurses does not keep pace with the military needs does not indicate that the women in the nursing profession
are slackers, according to Miss Jane A.
Delano, Chairman of the Red Cross Nursing Service. It indicates merely that the sudden and extraordinarily heavy demand for nurses has not been thoroughly realized by the women available for this service.

As demands grow daily, the problem of home nursing for civilian needs becomes harder to solve. It is estimated by the Army Nurses' Corps that over 30,000 nurses will be needed, on the basis of the present estimates, for an army of 1,000,000 men.

16,500 Enrolled.

Statistics prepared at the headquarters of the Red Cross Nursing Service in Washington show that there are between 30,000 and 40,000 registered nurses in the United States. Of this number approximately 10,500 are enrolled Red Cross nurses, the majority of whom are in active service or ready for mobilization for specified purpose. The Red Cross enrollment forms the reserve of the United States Army Nurses' Corps and the United States Navy Nurses' Corps.

Already 1,700 nurses have been equipped and sent abroad by the Red Cross Nursing Service. For service at home the Red Cross has provided 2,600 nurses. More than 2,000 additional nurses have been organized into units which now are ready for mobilization.

Red Cross nurses also are doing appetual work in sanitary zones surrounding cantonments. Eighty-nine are serving in a public health detachment under the American Red Cross in France. Twelve public health nurses are in Roumania, three in Greece and one in Berlin.

Requirements Modified.

All Red Cross nurses assigned to duty in military hospitals automatically become members of the Army or Navy Nurses' Corps and are no longer under the supervision or direction of the Red Cross. These nurses, when on active duty, are entitled to the same Government war risk insurance
as Army or Navy officers and enlisted men.

To meet the increasing demands of the Army and Navy Nurses' Corps the Red Cross has modified somewhat the former requirements for enrollment.
The age limit is lowered to twenty-one years, and in special cases nurses over forty may be accepted. Eight schools for training nurses have been placed on the accredited list.

Since the entrance of the United States in the war the number of pupils entering nurses' training schools has increased 20 per cent. Within the last few days the Red Cross has recruited and equipped a group of 100
nurses for the Army Nurses' Corps
for service with the British Expeditionary Forces at the request of the British Government. It has also mobilized several highly specialized groups of nurses for orthopedic, psychiatric and facial surgery hospitals,
as well as mobile operating units and other important groups.

FACE the FACTS

LET us face the facts. The war situation is critical.
Unless the Allies fight as they never yet have fought, defeat threatens. Hungry men cannot fight at their best; nor hungry nations. France, England, and Italy are going hungry unless we feed them.

Wheat Savings—They must have wheat. It is the best food to fight on. It is the easiest to ship. We alone can spare it to them. By saving just a little—less than a quarter of what we ate last year—we can support those who are fighting our battles. And we can do it without stinting ourselves. We have only to substitute another food just as good.

The Corn of Plenty—Corn is that food. There's a surplus of it. Providence has been generous in the hour of our need. It has given us corn in such bounty as was never known before. Tons of corn. Train-loads of corn. Five hundred million bushels over and above our regular needs. All we have to do is to learn to appreciate it. Was ever patriotic duty made so easy? And so clear?

America's Own Food—Corn! It is the true American food. The Indians, hardest of races, lived on it.
Our forefathers adopted the diet and conquered a continent. For a great section of our country it has long been the staff of life. How well the South fought on it, history tells. Now it can help America win a world war.

Learn Something—Corn! It isn't one food. It's a dozen. It's a cereal. It's a vegetable. It's a bread.
It's a dessert. It's nutritious; more food value in it, dollar for dollar, than meat or eggs or most other vegetables. It's good to eat; how good you don't know until you've had corn-bread properly cooked.
Best of all, it's plentiful and it's patriotic.

Corn's Infinite Variety—How much do you know about corn? About how good it is? About the many delicious ways of cooking it? And what you miss by not knowing more about it? Here are a few of its uses:

There are at least fifty ways to use corn meal to make good dishes for dinner, supper, lunch or breakfast. Here are some suggestions:

HOT BREADS

Boston brown bread.
Hoecake.
Muffins.
Biscuits.
Griddle cakes.
Waffles.

DESSERTS

Corn-meal molasses cake.
Apple corn bread.
Dumplings.
Gingerbread.
Fruit gems.

HEARTY DISHES

Corn-meal croquettes. Corn-meal fish balls.
Meat and corn-meal dumplings.
Italian polenta. Tamales.
The recipes are in Farmers' Bulletin 565, "Corn Meal as a Food and Ways of Using It," free from the Department of Agriculture.
