

South Jersey Republican

Hoyt & Sons, Publishers.

Terms--$1.25 Per Year.

VOL. 35.

HAMMONTON, N. J., FEBRUARY 6, 1897.

NO. 6

Geo. Elvins

Yarmouth Bloaters and Stringless Canned Beans
now in stock.

We have some Potatoes
which are first-class considering the quality of last year's crop.

Avena, Rolled Oats, and Oil are lower than they've been for some time.

The quality of those Pea Beans
we quoted some time since is a surprise to those who have tried them.

Wood, Syrup,
and Matches
we are still holding at the old prices.

AT ELVINS'

The People's Bank Of Hammonton, N. J.

Authorized Capital, $50,000
Paid in, $30,000.
Surplus, $15,000.

R. J. BYRNES, President.
M. L. JACKSON, Vice-Pres't
W. R. TILTON, Cashier

DIRECTORS:
R. J. Byrnes,
M. L. Jackson,
George Elvins, Elam Stookwell
G. F. Saxton,
O. F. Osgood,
A. J. Smith,
J. C. Anderson,
W. R. Tilton,
W. L. Black.

Certificates of Deposit issued, bearing interest at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum if held six months, and 3 per cent if held one year.

Discount days—Tuesday and Friday of each week.

SHOES.

Always a Good Stock

Only the Best!

Shoes made to Order is my Specialty, and full satisfaction is guaranteed.

Repairing done.

J. MURDOCH,

Bellevue Avenue,
Hammonton. : : N. J

We quote

Lion Coffee

at 19 cents.

Arbuckle

at 19 cents.

We think a very low price.

On other coffees
we quote no prices, but can furnish

Rio
Santos Java or Mocha

at figures that will be right, and quality always away up.

Frank E. Roberts

Grocer,

No. 8 South Second St.

Wm. Bernshouse, STEAM

Saw & Planing Mill

AND

Lumber Yard.

All varieties of the Finest Mill Work.
Sash, Doors and Blinds.

FIRST GRADE

Cedar Shingles

A Specialty.

Near the Railroad Stations,
Hammonton, N. J.

P. RANERE'S

Hammonton Steam

Macaroni Works

(Established in 1889)

Macaroni, Vermicelli,
and Fancy Paste,
The best made in the United States.

Sold Wholesale and Retail

Dealer in Imported & Domestic

GROCERIES.

Imported Olive Oil.

Moving the Capital.

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., Feb. 4, 1897.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: Kindly allow me space to say a few things in regard to the project of removing the County Capital from this place to Pleasantville.

I am informed that the tax-payers of the county, generally speaking, are opposed to such a project, and think the present location is desirable enough.

The Pleasantville Press and a few agitators of that place, are harping aloud for their removal for land-boom purposes solely, and want the poor taxpayer who owns a small farm and is already overburdened with tax, to pay the freight of the removal, if they are ever moved.

The buildings, as they are now located, will answer the purpose for which they are intended for years to come, and recent improvements made to the same place them in such a condition as they rank second to none in South Jersey.

Both Atlantic City and the County proper, at this time, have outstanding bonds amounting to $1,000,000, and all efforts to liquidate these bonds should first be made before adding to the amount. Down with the agitators.

PICKEREL.

[Our baby correspondent has done well, in a short article; but we call his attention to a few facts:]

It costs a Hammontonian three dollars to hire a team to the present County Capital, and he must spend a whole day to transact ten minutes business there.

While the proposed removal will cost considerable, tax-payers are in the habit of looking ahead, and see that their money is not wisely spent in repairing and re-modeling already out-of-date buildings.

Very few in this locality favor the removal to Pleasantville, thinking it would be little improvement on the present location. The town would be more accessible, but the buildings not so,—a mile away,—and hotel accommodations are missing.

By heavy expenditures, the county jail is now up-to-date; but the Clerk's office is not adequate, the Sheriff's office now requires enlarging; the old court-house is in appearance a disgrace to Atlantic County, and lacks convenience, which no one will deny. — ED]

George B. Roberts, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died on Saturday last, after a long illness, aged 64 years. Mr. Roberts was without doubt the foremost railroad man in the country. By perseverance, industry, and the development of his native talent, he rose from the lowly position of rodman to the Presidency of perhaps the greatest, best organized, and best equipped railroad corporation in the world. As to his standing in railway circles, the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, President of the New York Central Railroad, has this to say: "The appreciation of his associates was best indicated by their electing him President of every association they have formed in the last ten years. A great railway man, a conscientious and chivalrous gentleman, and a patriotic citizen has been lost to the country." Mr. Frank Thomson, First Vice-President, has been elected President.

The Pennsylvania Capitol Building, at Harrisburg, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday, — loss about $60,000. The fire is supposed to have caught from an open grate. The public records were mostly in another building. The state house was more than seventy years old, and a new one was needed.

Grover Cleveland and family will go to Princeton to take up their residence on March 5th, and the house and surroundings are being put into shape for their reception.

Republicans insist that it will be better to raise revenue on foreign-made goods than to issue bonds to run the government. Anything wrong with that business policy?

Most of us know a good thing when some one else has it.

A German who has not spent much time learning English, had a horse stolen from his barn, whereupon he advertised as follows: Von nite the odder day I was been awake in my shleep, I hear somethings vot I thinks was not yust right in my barn, and out I shumps to bed and runs mit te barn out; and ven I was dare coom, I sees dot my pig gray iron mare he was been tied loose an run, mit de stable off; and whoever vil him back bring I yust so much pay as vas kushtomary.

Two bills have been loaded up there in Trenton, and yet the public thinks nothing has been done by the Legislature in the past four weeks.

If Mr. Bryan isn't careful he will drop out of sight before Maj. McKinley takes the oath of office.

To Florida via Penna. R. R.

The mid-winter excursions has begun. The discomforts and dangers of wet winter weather are here, but to the southward, from a cloudless sky beams a beautiful sun upon a blooming land.

The next Penna. R. R. tour to Jacksonville, allowing two weeks in Florida, will leave New York and Philadelphia Feb.
9th. Excursion tickets, including railway transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth), and meals en route in both directions while traveling on the special train, will be sold at the following rates: New York $50, Philadelphia $48, Canaudigua $52.85, Erie $54.85, Pittsburg $53, and at proportionate rates from other points.

For tickets, itineraries, and other information, apply to ticket agents, Tourist agent at 1196 Broadway, New York, or to Geo. W. Boyd, Asst. Gen. Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Phila.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and is the best seller I have."
J. F. Campbell, merchant, of Safford, Arizona, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it: it never fails, and is a sure cure for colds, coughs, and consumption. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, colds and coughs is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to day stands at the head. I never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Croft's Pharmacy.

For the benefit of those who desire to attend the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of President-elect McKinley, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington, March 1, 2, 3, and 4, valid to return from March 4 to 8, at the following rates:
From New York, $8.00; Philadelphia, $5.40; Baltimore, $1.60; Harrisburg, $5.06; Williamsport, $8.79; Buffalo, $11.29; Rochester, $10.48; Altoona and Pittsburg, $10.00; and from all other stations on the Pennsylvania system at reduced rates. This inauguration will be a most interesting event, and will undoubtedly attract a large number of people from every section of the country.
The magnificent facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad make this the favorite route to the national capital at all times, and its enormous equipment and splendid terminal advantages at Washington make it especially popular on such occasions.

Hammonton Hotel.

FRED. K. BOCKIUS, Prop.

(Successor to Alex. Aitken)

Excellent accommodations for transient guests. Is located close to Railroad Stations. Good stables.

Bring

orders

for

Job

Printing

to Hoyt & Sons.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To William Bryan:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Annie U.
Bryan is Complainant, and you are Defendant, you are required to appear, and plead, deny, or answer to the complainant's bill, on or before the thirteenth day of March next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you. The said bill is filed to secure a divorce from the bonds of matrimony.

Dated January 12th, 1897.

ALLEN B. ENDICOTT,

Solicitor of Complainant.
P. O. address, Atlantic City.

J. B. Small,

Baker

&

Confectioner

THE EXAMINER.

(Established 1823.)

The Leading Baptist Paper

AND A

Complete Family Newspaper

During '97, its 75th year

It will publish several series of important articles that will be contributors by eminent men of various evangelical denominations, notably:

Samuel W. Dike, LL.D., Secretary National Divorce Reform League.
Merrill Edward Gates, LL.D., President Amherst College.
J. H. Stollenberg, D.D.
Daniel Rochester, D.D.
Charles F. Twing, D.D., President Western Reserve University.
Washington Gladden, D.D.
Prof. J. O. Murray, D.D., Vice-President Princeton Seminary.
Rev. J. Munro Gibson, D.D.
Bishop John F. Hurst, D.D.
President Valentine, D.D., Theological Seminary, Gettysburg.
Theodore L. Gayler, D.D.
Rev. George M. Stone, D.D.

As a matter of course, every eminent Baptist teacher and scholar of eminence will be represented in The Examiner during 1897,— as most have been during 1896,—presenting to The Examiner readers their best work.

Edward Bright and His Times.

A series of historical and anecdotal articles covering the fifty years that Edward Bright was a central figure of the Baptist denomination, by Prof. Henry C. Neidder, of the Crozer Seminary.

A LITERARY COURSE under direction of Miss Marcoussis, Lecturer in English at Vassar College. The first quarter, beginning Nov. 20, concerns the Victorian Poets.

RAMBLER LETTERS, containing the weekly observations on news and things by that keen observer.

Rev. H. L. Wayland, D.D.,

Honorary Editor of the Examiner.

All this, and much more, in addition to the regular weekly features that make The Examiner a welcome visitor into tens of thousands of homes.

$2 a year. Sample Copies Free.

AGENTS WANTED.

Address
The Examiner, Box 2203,
New York.

A Rare Opportunity

Eyes Properly Attended To.

Dr. Wm. L RAUBITSCHKE.

A graduate of the Philadelphia Optical College, the Expert Eye Specialist,

Has opened an office at Dr. E. North's on Railroad Ave., and will be prepared to give your eyes a thorough examination to correct all cases of defective vision by the latest approved scientific methods, on Monday, Feb. 1.

No charge for examination. Only reasonable charge for glasses, if required.

Persons unable to call, by sending me word, will be treated at their residence.

Every alternate Monday.

Office hours, 10 a. m. to 12 m. and from 1 to 4 p. m.

Philadelphia address, 941 N. 7th St.

He was sitting at the window, and his little nose was flat, As he pressed his face to his me, with his lips against the pane; Then, lo! and without knowing—in vexation seized my hat;
It had jostled, and I knew that I would lose it—so I ran to the door, Came just faintly, "Papa, kiss me!" as I hurried out the gate, And I heard the door to be opened and I really couldn't wait, For I heard the distant whistle, and I knew that I was late,
And my work accumulating in the town.

He was sitting at the window, and his little nose was flat,
I looked back to see the house and land distance watched it pass, And I knew that he was crying with his little meek and main For the kiss I hadn't time to press against the window glass.
I could not see the "choo-choo"
quite disordered upon the floor, And his wooden blocks, forgotten—and his little meek and main
And I thought: "Dear God! what—what if I should never see him more!
At the window when I started for the town!"

He was sitting at the window, and his
little nose was flat,
As my mental vision saw him all that long and wretched day,
And my foolish, fretful fancy knew him just as he was,
With his kiss that still was waiting for his papa, far away, His little meek and main, the grieving of the awful, awful ache Of his little baby heart that love had only failed to break,
And I thought the papers from me and declared that I would take The returning train and hurry from the town.

He was sitting at the window as I elattered down the gate, And his tiny nose was flattered as he pressed it to the pane, And I heard his joyful clamour, as with
his little meek and main He screamed out a royal welcome with
his little meek and main,
With a burst and sugared doughnut held in either chubby fist,
And his cherry lips a-pucker in the quaint-est sort of twist,
To my arms he came a-leaping, and he clamoured as I kissed:
"Now, ven, papa, what you bling me
—Chow, ven, papa!"

"Smoky Hill was the windmill of the track at that time," said the old engineer, shifting his lance foot to an easy position. "We had built a round house—a square one—with two stalls and room at the back for three or four bunks and a kitchen. The round house was built against the Sioux we had lined, or, I might say, the house up to about five feet from the ground and filled to be behind the lining with sand.

"The Indians were thicker than grasshoppers on the line. They were the leading of the Kansas Pacific, and scarcely a day—never a week—went by without a fight. At first they appeared to be swayed by the locomotives, but in a little while their superstitious fear had vanquished their courage. They were full of legends to capture the 'big house,' as they called the engine. One day we were out at the front with a train of steel, nine eight or ten miles west of the line, and the Indians were coming in a little bit and spits, and one night all the clouds became thicker and darker, and before the sun had gone down the show was falling fast. By the time the first rail had been unloaded it was raining hard. The Indians were so scared, we were obliged to back up all the way to Smoky Hill. The conductor and the captain of the guard, composed of government recruits, took a station on the line, and when the train got a signal I spread out the trucks and began to poke the blunt end of the construction train into the darkness. Ordinarily, I late ran backward at night, but in a case of this kind it is a matter of life and death. I had a dozen or more well-armed soldiers behind me and whatever the darkness looks like. Three or four men with white lights were stationed at intervals along the line, and I had two men that ran up and down the train. The engineer and I, of course, were next the engine, and upon the top of this car stood the foreman of the gang, and from him I was supposed to take my orders.

"I was on the line for more than ten minutes when I saw the conductor's light (we were going with the storm) stand out, and following this movement all the lights along the train's top began to glow. I began to feel the train to glow down. The engineer and I were freed from the darkness. Muffled by the storm, the sound came, as if a pack of firecrackers were going off and I knew that I was all right. I knew what we had run into. 'Judge,' said the foreman, looking across the gangway, 'and there's on my side.' 'Keep your seat,' said I, 'they're on my side, too.'

"Now all the white lights, following the foreman's lead, began to glow, and began to whirl furiously in a short time. 'That was my action precisely. If I had prepared to ditch us as might as well go to the ditch as to remain on the line, I would have done so. I was the first, but I opened the throttle and the engine, to back away again as fast as possible. The Indians had prepared to ditch our train. They had placed a

[illegible]

"Presently, hearing no sound from within, the attacking party ceased firing and began to crawl about the building in search of a weak spot where a quick and easy exit would be gained. The fate of the three early killers who had begged it under the door kept them from feeling about that trap for the remainder of the evening. In a little while the fire was as good as still as the tomb, save for the soft flutter of steam from the safety valve of the 40. Poor Foot knew what was going on. Even so, however, he was not to be deterred. He was faithful to his work, and he was faithful to his men. He was working for his release, and how when all was silent he shouted from the coal tank and to his braves to break the door down and to force the Pawnee captives to come out. He was not to be quietude he had imparted to his people the particulars of his whereabouts, and immediately the whole band threw themselves against the front of the building.

"The house fairly trembled, the Indians surged from without and the great doors swung to and fro, threatening to fall in upon the inmates. But the flood of bloodthirsty redskins in upon us.

"'Stand together,' called the captain to his men.

"The blower and get her hot called to the fireman; for I knew the frail structure could not withstand the strain much longer. As often as the fireman opened the furnace door to look out, the flames would sweep it up the whole interior and showed three dead Sioux near the door. One of them lay across the rail, and I found myself speculating as to whether the flames would sweep him off, or whether I must run over him. I did not deem that the whole band had thrown themselves against the building, and the yelling was deafening. Above it I heard our captain shout: 'Get ready, Pawnee!'

"I was ready," said I.

"'All right,' said he, 'shoot it to 'em.' I opened the sand valves and the steam came out. I have often thought what a temptation it was for those soldiers to leap upon the engine and make their escape, but, although they all understood perfectly what was going on, not one of them took advantage of this last chance.

"Just as the 'Big Boss' moved with all her ponderous and almost irresistible weight toward the front of the building, the double doors sagged toward me like the bows of a ship under a terrific strain. I was overcharged and then hit 'em. The big doors, being forced from their hinges, fell out upon the redskins and they were caught like rats in a trap. The steam rushed through, demolishing and killing a number of the Indians, and on went the 40 over the safe valves, which had already been set off by her before the fight began. The engine came to a halt. The awful work of the 'Big Boss' which they began to fear, was over. The engine was injured, but the Indians, who remained unhurt realized that the engine was making war with their chief, for he had told them that the engine was the captive in the belly of the big horse.

"'All effort for the capture of the 'round house' was instantly abandoned and the Sioux as one man turned and fled. The captain, however, in command of the scouts, taking advantage of the confusion of his foe, and of the fact that his force was in the rear building, while the Sioux were in front, ordered his men to follow him to the rear of his men at the open door and began to pour a murderous wicked fire into the baffled Sioux, who, like footmen, were, chasing the 40 out over the engine.

"'All the Indians who were crippled by the engine were promptly, and I thought very properly, killed by the Pawnee warriors and the rest were driven off by the engine.

"It was a desperately risky run from Smoke Hill to Lawrence, with no running orders and due to collide with a locomotive ahead, or an extra train going to the terminus with a train load of passengers, and I am fearing that something might arise which would cause us to want to come, had very wisely abandoned all trains, and the whites went down, and we went to the engine.

"My first thought was of my captive, Poor Foot, who had made track laying his business for our people for so long. He put three fingers in his mouth, looking about I saw only four Pawnee, and concluded that the fierce fellows all killed the chief and robbed him of his life. I was not to be deterred.

"'Here,' said I, 'Pawnee!'

"Quietly settled upon the number of the engine tank, and he pointed down, showing the excellent in the round house. The engine, however, had made a desperate effort to escape and had been quietly dropped into the tank, where he had remained throughout the entire run.

"The one thing to say in a tank engine is in his staff, and quite another thing to inhabit a place of that kind where a locomotive is making a dying effort to escape a track. After much time of labor had been expended, the engine got into a 'snicker' track, one of the cuts got the tank, which was quite empty, and hauled the engine out. Then we had killed him out and he had along the depot where the men would catch him early, the engine came and out on 'ty and pronounced him a good Indian.' (ty was

A DEPARTMENT FOR LITTLE BOYS AND GIRLS.

Something that Will Interest the Juvenile Members of Every Household.

—Quaint Actions and Bright Sayings of Many Cute and Cunning Children.

Old Vesuvius Wakes Up.
Old Vesuvius has begun grumbling again and spitting out fire and ashes. For more than eighteen months the grim old volcano kept quiet, and the people of Naples; Italy, who are always more or less afraid of its eruptions, began to think that it had gone out. But it was only taking a nap; now it is waked up, and down its sides two streams of boiling lava are flowing, and some of the settlers on the mountain may be cooking that it had gone lava. A fiery old volcano isn't a pleasant thing to live neighbor to, is it?

Two Hundred Feet of Fish.
A few thousand years ago there must have been high water out in Wyoming. And that water must have been full of fish. Geologists recently discovered immediate hills and valleys a mile and a half above the level of the sea, made entirely out of the bodies of fishes turned to stone. These beds of petrified fish, containing millions upon millions of individual specimens, cover hundreds of square miles in the northwestern part of the State. In some places these beds—almost a solid mass of perfectly fossilized fish—are from 150 to 200 feet in thickness.

—Wouldn't some of our boys like to have lived then, so that they could go out with a can of angle-worms and a hickory pole to catch a string of fish!

A Milk-White Frog.
No doubt you have seen albino girls and boys, and boys at the circus, with pink skin, yellow hair and pink eyes, and possibly you may have seen albino raccoons and other albino animals, but did any of you ever hear of an albino frog?

You know an albino animal is one that has no color, except in its skin, eyes and hair, and such a specimen is always interesting to scientists. Consequently, it was considered a great find when one of the students of Facker Institute, in Colorado, collected an albino frog. You may imagine how fresh a creamy-white frog with beautiful pink eyes would look. It is supposed to be the only specimen of the kind ever captured, and it will be kept alive as long as possible, so that visitors may see it.

Spectacle Wiper.
Here is something nice for grandpa. Cut out a pair of glasses, with the round one-half inches by two and one-half, and on one-half of it make the address of an envelope, putting on the wrong side the address. On the other make a spectacle wiper. You may make one. This can be done with pen and ink, or better still with water-colors. Then fold the champagne silk together (fatten on it) with a ribbon bow where it is folded.—The Household.

Had Fairy of Rosa Brown.
Mary C. Turle, one of our girls, who lives in Washington, D. C., writes about a fairy she named Rosa Brown, which was a pot of her mother's, when girl. Rosa was full of odd pranks, such as pulling the pine out of all the cushions in the house and gratifying her queer appetite by eating candy from the pantry. She lived to a good old age with her children around her, and when she died she was buried with all the pomp that a cat of her standing deserved, and her little mistress wrote the following:

Haste to my aid, ye sisters mine,
To surely can't refuse To sing, for me, her praises,
Of a dear, though absent friend.

Her voice was never "hill for cat," Unless she "melt a cat,"
In her life she was a fish or fowl—
The motto of this cat.

High her position, on the fence,
Though often found yet wide Down would she spring, on either side Where tempting morsels lies.

No "mating chums" did she affect,
But at it, both and all;
Of many a hard-won battle
Was left on but the tail.

Language her pen can ever paint
Her virtues and renew,
In her life she was a fish or fowl—
"Twas always "alone up Brown."

Beard-Breaking Hydras.
It takes an American longer to get used to the venomous uppers of the South American countries than to any of the other discomforts and dangers of tropical life. To be always out of doors, a putrid smell at home in stifled air, for the untidy web, is a nuisance,

HUMOROUS SKETCHES FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

Dearest—Hiccup—Only That—Famly Secret—The Irish Sluer's Mistake—Cattivating
the Nurse, Etc., Etc.

If into one kindly moment know,
 I'll tell you the facts of the story.
 To "even a man stops on your toes And it doesn't hit your countenance." —Detroit Tribune.

TELEGRAMS.

Eastern Girl—"We have the credit that my grandfather was cooked in." Western Girl—"We have the boot that my grandfather died in."—Life.

ONLY THAT.

Author—"Only one thing kept me last night from making a suggestion."
Friend—"What was that?"
Author—"No one read it."—Chicago Record.

OUTRAGED.

Tramp—"Can't you give me some thin to eat, ma'am?" Kind Woman—"Yes; here is a piece of homemade mince pie." Tramp—"I asked for food, madam, not cooking."—Truth.

CULTIVATING THE MUSE.

Poet—"I have here some verses would like to submit. They are no perfect, I admit; perhaps they want fire."
Editor—"You are quite right, sir;
 fire is what they want, but the waste basket will do just as well."

THE BASH BLUNDERER'S MISTAKE.

Sociable Texan (to waiter)—"Wig-getta." Hasty Waiter (yelling toward the kitchen)—"Get outab here!"
S. T. C.—"Hein, nein!" H. W.—"You will be lucky if you get it."—Newport News.

A FAMILY SECRET.

Neighbor—"I hear your father intends to put up a new house. Who is his builder?"
John—"What's that?"
Neighbor—"Why, the—er—one who bosses the job."
John—"Oh! Why, ma, of course."—Good News.

RAILROAD OUTLIT.

Old Lady (to fat party on seat in front of her)—"I'd thank you to close that window, sir. I'm literally covered with dust." Courteous Passenger (opening his grip)—"I'm always like to be obliging, madam. Here's a whisk-broom."
 —Judge.

NOT HALF DRESSED.

Challie—"Aren't you going out tonight with me?" Henry—"I can't go until I dress can I?" Challie—"What's the matter with your present costume?" Henry—"I haven't got my chrysanthemum on."—Chicago Record.

FATAL GIFT OF BEAUTY.

"That in an awfully pretty girl, the Timmins is nagged to just now."
"Yes. Too pretty, in fact."
 Timms tell me that he is so fascinated with her beauty that he has never had the courage to turn down the gas when he was sitting on her for fear of losing sight of her pretty face."—Indiana Observer.

NARROW ESCAPE.

"Yes," said Mr. Hunsell to one of the guests, looking at his watch and looking dreadfully off into vacancy.
 "It was exactly twenty-five years ago at this moment that I felt—ah, in my dear, I was just observing to Mr.
 Thompson that exactly twenty-five years ago by the watch you had let me the altar."—Chicago Tribune.

WELL VERBED IN DIVISION.

Pa—"Bobby, the school teacher for-forms me that you are well up in division."
Bobby—"Yes, sir." Pa—"Well, Bobby, suppose I told you that I was a well up in division, you would be just as well up in how much would she get?"
Bobby—"The more," said Pa.

HIS WAY OF JUDGING.

Sunday-school Teacher—"I told you last Sunday that I wished each of you would try to make at least one person happy during the week. Did you?" Boy—"Yes; I made grandpa happy."
Teacher—"The noble. How did you do it?"
 "I want to visit her, and she's a ways happy when she sees I've got good appetite."—Good News.

JOURNEY WAS FURNISH RETURN.

Doctor—"Well, Johnny, don't you feel better since I gave you the medicine?" Johnny—"Yes; forgot all about be-lying sick." Doctor—"That's what I thought, and it wasn't hard to take, was it?" Johnny—"I guess so, for I took two of us boys to hold Fido when we gave it to him."—Chicago Late-Opinion.

There are twenty-four creameries in Maine that do nothing but manufacture butter the year round.

A man in Gilsom, N. H., while cleaning out a rucaway recently, found a gold watch which his wife had lost seven years ago.

A herd of 7,000 horses was bought on a Washington ranch the other day by the Portland Horse Meat Canning Company at $3 a head.

About 1,000 grammar school graduates of schools of the United States are unable to find places in the high schools, so crowded are those buildings.

Boston is said to have spent $75,000 to entertain the Knights Templar, and the Knights left behind $1,000,000 in the city.

It is estimated that the city of New York contains fully 50,000 children of school age who cannot be accommodated in the public schools of that city this year.

The record of attendance at the public schools of the United States during the last year gives a total of 15,536,265 pupils, a figure larger than that of any other nation.

Many efforts have been made by Atlanta barbers to induce the authorities to schedule the hair of the men cut off during the exposition. The matter is now settled with a positive negative.

It is estimated that there are about 500,000 windmills now in operation in the United States. About 100 established ones are in the manufacture of these motors, and 50,000 pre-produced annually.

In California it has been found that peach stones burn as well as the best coal, and give out more heat in proportion. It is the opinion of some that out of the fruit that is tinned or dried are collected and sold.

Professor F. H. Cushing asserts that one of the most ancient things man has made is the arrow. It antedates even the bow, and in its embryonic state is older than the stone ax or the shaped knife or flint.

The Kansas City Board of Education has promulgated an order forbidding the smoking of cigarettes by pupils during school hours (on penalty of expulsion) and forbidding teachers to rigidly enforce the rule.

When the commission of cardinals for the administration of Peter's pence proposed to Pope Leo XIII. recently to invest 2,000,000 francs in foreign securities, the Pope insisted that the money should be put into Italian government bonds.

It is proposed to erect statues of Siemens and of his colleague and friend, Helmholtz, in front of the technical school in Charlottenburg, in the same manner as the statues of the brothers Humboldt were erected in front of the Berlin University.

The highest speed ever attained upon the water is credited to the new Russian torpedo boat, Solod. Tests for her speed have been launched in England, where she went thirty-five miles an hour on her trial trip. At that rate an Atlantic liner would cross the ocean in three or four days.

The death rate of Berlin for 1894 was 17.2 per thousand; that of London, 17.7; Brussels and Hamburg, 18.1; Amsterdam, 18.3; Copenhagen, 18.7; Turin, 18.8; Rome, 19.6; Glasgow, 20.0; Paris, 20.2; Manchester, 20.4; Vienna, 22.8; Liverpool and Dublin, 24.7; St. Petersburg, 31.4, and Moscow, 34.1.

At Mystic, Conn., sheep owners are annoyed against the dogs, which have been devastating their flocks for some time past. Many sheep have been killed by the dogs. The city authorities, in support, and others are valuable animals. Several dogs have been caught among the flocks and several have been killed.

A curious outcome is reported of the great plague of locusts which swept over Florida eleven years ago. The two thieves, who got away with 250,000 dollars have been caught. The principal has been tried in India-Peeth and released. The other thief is in the State Prison. He accomplices will be tried in Austria, where no such limitation exists.

A movement has been projected at Vincennes looking to the establishment of a university at Vincennes, Ind., on the site where Lincoln spent his boyhood. The general idea is to ask for a subscription of 10 cents from each school child in the State, the inspectors figuring out that the giving would be a patriotic inspiration to the children.

In Spain exemption from military service is granted to the first-born payment of 1,500 pesetas. The other four of a family presented a petition to the queen requesting that he had already paid 15,000 pesetas for ten of his brothers. The queen's day the other fourteen from paying for the other fourteen, as he had no money left. His request was granted.

Intelligent.

A London dog noticed that at a certain crossing the policeman allowed the traffic in order to allow his mistress to pass. The dog was not content to sit alone, and when he came to the crossing he barked to attract the policeman's attention. The policeman, guessing what the dog wanted, stopped the traffic and the dog walked across the street.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

BLIND EYES OR BROWN EYES, WHICH SHALL IT BE?
 I ADORER BOTH AND THEY BOTH ADORER ME WHICH ONE SHALL I MARRIAGE
 I MUST PUT THE QUESTION
 TOMORROW WHILE WE SMILE

WITH GOLDEN LOCKS BY ME ALL THE WORLD IS GLAD WHEN DASH EYES HAS LEFT EVEN JOE IS SAD DO SOLVE THE RIDDLE FOR ME
 OUI SWAINING FARE WHICH WOULD PROVE THE SURVIVOR FOR A LIFE TIME HATE

NOW ELECTRIC CABS.

AN ENGLISH COMPANY TO PUT THEM IN USE IN LONDON.

Claimed that Electrical Automobiles
 Has Been Solved by the Patents Held by the Company—Three Hundred and Fifty Cabs Purchased.

Fast, Cheap, Noiseless.
 While French enterprises are expectantly awaiting the perfection of the horseless carriage on the gasoline or gas electricity principle before embarking extensive capital in so new a field, the English have found practicable automobile on the use of electricity as a motive power and have already put it to a practical application. A company has already been formed, known as the London Electrical Cab Company, with a capital of $750,000, and in the course of a few weeks 250 cabs, most of which are already built, will be started in the streets of London.

It is claimed by the projectors of this company that electrical automobilism has been practically solved by the mechanism whose patents they hold, and the amount of the capital these men have invested in the enterprise is certainly the guarantee of the good faith of their claim. The statement will pass without contradiction that, whether or not it really has solved the great problem of the times, the company certainly believes that it has.

Parliament recently passed the road locomotives act, which authorized mechanically driven wheels to pass along the Queen's highways at a rate of speed not to exceed fourteen miles an hour.
 It was the passage of this act that started the company some months ago upon the quest for a thoroughly practicable automobile cab. They engaged Mr. W. C. Boney, the well-known Eng-

LONDON'S NEW ELECTRIC CAB.

lish electrical engineer, as their electrical manager, securing with him the right to use his electric vehicles and the sole use of the important horseless carriage patents belonging to the British motor syndicate.

Prior to taking this step the company thoroughly investigated all the motor inventions in the field. By turn they studied gasoline, petroleum, benzoline and the various explosive oil and spirit powers, with the result that they discarded them all as powers for use in such crowded thoroughfares as those of London. No choice was then left but electricity, and when the inven-tigators examined the contrivances whose rights they have since purchased they unhesitatingly decided that they had the solution of the vexed problem.

The perfume of her violet
 I never shall forget.
 For the florist's bill that came with them
 Is hovering 'round me yet.
 —New York Herald.

Buzz-fuzz—Is there much difference between come and grand opera? Siccidee righte thetly!—Oh, yes! In comic opera the actress wears the startling costume; in grand opera they are worn by the society ladies, in the boxes.—Funch.

ORIGIN OF A PHRASE.

How "I Acknowledge the Corn" Came to Be Used.

Indian corn, the chief product of Middle West, sometimes attains a height. The stalks pictured here were grown on the farm of D. B.
 Joe in Henry County, Iowa. T

SOME IOWA CORN.

until a recent writer of the originator, "I acknowledge the corn" much in use by people generally.
 A Western man and a son of England fell into conversation of way train. They passed some looking corn, and the New Englander remarked: "What is fine Wheat the Westerner replied:
 "We don't think much of corn than that out where I live. It good corn for New England, but the West."

The Eastern man could not that corn grew to be more than high in the West. His compan-his name and address and prom-sent him a few stalks of big corn. A few weeks passed and New England man received a by express; in it were several corn more than seven feet high wrote to his traveling companion concise sentence: "I acknowledge corn."

"Copied the Name of the
 Mr. Smith, an English traver arrived one evening at a hotel in On the way he had picked up a German and hired him as a In Austria every one traveling at is obliged to register his name in a book, which is read by a police examination, so Mr. Smith his servant Fritz to bring him to him to write his name correctly.
 "I have already registered and Fritz," as an Englishman pondant moment.
 "But I've never told you my so how do you know what it is?"
 "I copied it from mine's pa-team," answered Fritz.
 "Why, it isn't on my particulated Mr. Smith; 'bring the horse let me see what you have put down."
 The book was brought and Mr.
 to his amusement, discovered clever servant had described him
 "Monsieur Warranted Sole
 erp"—The triplock.

Life in Spain.
 In Spain constitutional indolence the soul, and a magnificent blue blue to make life one long day Turkey the natural thrift and of the great Turkish population layed into idleness and apathy hopelessness of winning anything having which will not be at all by official corruption.

She boasts a pretty, gold-trimmed pure white dress. The best she has.
But showing leads from bad to worse.
It is an empty boast.

—Washington Star, to forget yourself
sir. He—How could I do otherwise your presence?—Judge.

Friend—I suppose everything you write now goes? Author—Yes, the most of it comes back.—Harlem Life.

"I know now," remarked the young man, "the branch of journalism which they call 'courtin'.'"—Tribune.

Editor—Your story is flat. A. Author
Yes? Editor—I wish to compliment you.
Most stories we get are rotten flat.—Star.

"Uncle Simon, what is a phenomenon?"
"A phenomenon is a man who gets so rich that he won't accept a page of a railroad."—Chicago Record.

Bubbles—"My wife and I met by accident. Thrown together by chance."
"You mean you were thrown together?"
Did you break the bicycles?—Buffalo Times.

"I fared pretty well on Christmas,
said the man with the blue coat.
He was a conductor; you know I'm a street car conductor.—Philadelphia North American."

Mrs. Newlywed (to tears)—You used to say that you would be glad to do for me. Mr. Newlywed—Well, I would now. Mrs. Newlywed—Well, I would now.—Judge.

"I'll wager that woman submarine driver doesn't stay under the water more than ten minutes at a time." "Why?
"Nobody down there to talk to."— Chicago Record.

"Fugilium isn't what it used to be,
No."—The advances made to implement of modern warfare have thrown it in the shade somewhat."—Philadelphia North American.

Hungry Higgins—All his here had out heels is finger-bowls. Weary W and his friends are eating finger-bowl curbent a free-finger bowl myself.— dianapolis Journal.

Reporter—Three men fell on live relay wires to today. City Editor—What in the current events column. (Chorus) of the Commercial Tribune.

She—Mr. Fullback never boasts of football exploits, does he? He—No.
understand that he has nearly killed half a dozen men, but he never says so.—Chicago Record.

"Called 'say-to-day'" "Only one"
and then I was left out in the cold at Bagley's. He held four ace."— cinemat Commercial Tribune.

Aethen (bursting)—Now, don't forget to remember little Peckham watching at the key-hole. Dumas.
Well, let's gratify his curiosity, as then he may go away.—Puck.

"I am sorry to hear that Alviruth, clothing merchant, has failed in business. I hope to see him again. His confidence in life brought about a carful of car-muff."—Chicago Tribune.

Judge (to a couple sentenced for fig-ling)—Give you anything to say? M Defendant—I would like to have visiting commence here term in prison at 11 and end at 6.—Glasgow Herald.

She—Do you believe in long engagements? He—Well, I think an engagement should be long enough to test man's constancy and to give the time to learn to cook.—Brooklyn Ex-

"I'm afraid you're making things worse than they are. You insist upon about. She—Well, you won't find in Vienna. All the women here under 60 are over 22.—Illustrated Bit-

"You know that old gag of telling beggar that if he takes time to ask himself, 'What did I try?' he will find that he tried it the other day."
"Did it work?" "No; he licked me getting on his head!"—Chicago Record.

Cholly—it would be queer, conceivably, if the Phenomenons were right and it came to pass that just such other form. She—Yes, Cholly; so folks might expect better luck in time.—Puck.

Mrs. Mulligan—Do yez feel better morning, Mrs. O'Toole? Mrs. O'Toole and her mother and daughter all knowed Phoebe's dead, fur I'm bound to know' whether or not I'm sorry glad.—Harpers's Bazar.

"They must have had a cyclone of at Northwestern" last week. "We knew you said it was just wind."
And their monogram bin
into every piece of glass in the house.
—Detroit Free Press.

"What kind of goods, ma'am?" as the salesman, "I think," replied young man, "you had just bought what was about to rot in your riding suit." "You show how soon your early fall styles." Chicago Tribune.

"...," asked the lady. "This will not cut it." "Cut off?" "Oh, dear, mum," said the clerk. "It is equivocal variation to stand all the knees of vestigation once! female friends according to try on it."—Indianapolis Ju-

According to the way some folks talk, the only people who can be bad are good are dead.

People's Meat Market.

Beef of the finest quality.
Canned Beef—sugar-cured, a specialty.
Beef, Veal, Lamb, and Mutton.
Ham, Dried Beef, and Bacon.

Country Sausage.

At H. L. MCINTYRE'S

Gold Medal Butter is the best—it won the prize at the World's Fair.

The New Year is bright and full of bargains for you. They are to be found in our stock.
We will positively give you a liberal reduction for the month of January. It will pay you to call—stock must be reduced.

ROBT. STEEL,
Hammononton Jeweler.

HOYT & SONS

Have facilities for every kind of

JOB PRINTING,

And solicit your orders in that line.

Geo. M. Bowles,

Pork, Sausage, Scrapple,
etc., etc.

Home-made Mince Meat.

Egg Harbor Road, cor. Cherry St.

Skirts

Black, $1.25.
Black—extra fine—$2.25.
Blue, black, and brown, $2.98, worth double that price.

Goodman

Bring us your orders for Job Printing.

WRIGHT'S
Cure DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION and PILES.

Largest Stock

and most complete assortment of

COAL

Try a sample of our

PEA COAL

You'll find it O. K.

W. H. Bernshouse

Railroad Avenue
and Orchard Street, Hammononton.

The Republican.

[Entered as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, FEB. 6, 1897.

Annual Meeting.

The Fruit Growers' Union met, as required by their Articles of Association, on Saturday last, in Union Hall. The weather was not propitious, and the attendance was not large.

President E. R. Sproul made his annual address, which interested every one present. The past year was uneventful in the Society's history, there was little of encouragement to report, but the speaker gathered considerable which was worth hearing.

There was a little talk about varieties and culture of strawberries; about marketing sweet potatoes, etc., etc.

It was moved to allow the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company to run a siding onto the Society's grounds. This started one of the liveliest discussions we have heard for an age. Some one mentioned that a former Board of Directors had entered into contract with the Reading R. Co., giving them their exclusive privilege on Union grounds for ninety-nine years. Some one also inquired what compensation had been given the Union for such a franchise;

and being assured there was none, wanted to know what inducement had been tendered the then Board, that they should consent to such a deal give-away. That question had been asked before (perhaps not publicly). The reply came that at that time the Union was not in a position to make demands upon any Railroad Company; but were compelled to ask for the siding as a desirable facility for shipping fruit, and only gave what was demanded of them.
After long debate, the motion was adopted.

It was voted to hold monthly meetings of the Society, especially to discuss practical matters of interest to the members—the next meeting to be held on Saturday, Feb. 27th, the topic to be "Strawberries—the best varieties—how to grow and how to market them."

The tellers reported the following elects: President, Edwin R. Sproul.
Directors, Edwin Adams, Thomas Aubright, P. J. Fitting, L. H. Parkhurst, J. E. Holman, H. J. Moulter, C. S. Newcomb, H. G. Newton.
Auditors, E. Cathcart, Wm. Colwell, A. E. Holman.

Council Meeting.

Saturday evening last was the date for regular meeting, but only Messrs.
Anderson, Adams, and Cunningham, and the Clerk, were present; so they adjourned to Tuesday eve, Feb. 2nd.

Tuesday evening, adjourned meeting.
Present, the Clerk, and Messrs. Cunningham and Anderson. No quorum.
Adjourned to Saturday evening, Feb. 6.

For nearly half a century Vick's Floral Guide, catalogue of flower and vegetable seeds, plants, bulbs, roses, grapes, potatoes, etc., has come out regularly as Spring time. Here it is again to remind us that it's time to think about our gardens. This issue contains half a dozen full page half-tone illustrations of roses, asters, gold flowers, carnations, and tomatoes. It is a full of the necessary information for either amateur or professional. Send 15 cents to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N.Y., for a packet of either Vick's branching aster, now Japan morning glory or extra choice penny and a copy of Vick's Floral Guide. If you state where you saw this notice you will receive a package of flower seeds free.

A 3-days Tour to Washington.
Washington at the present time is the most attractive city on the continent.
For architectural grandeur has often been contested of the most various departments and institutions are among the most interesting in the world. The Capitol, the Treasury, the Smithsonian Institute and National Museum, and the new Central Library, are all intensely interesting, and the city of Washington affords a view long to be remembered.

The most personally conducted tour of the Pennsylvania R. R. will leave New York and Philadelphia Feb. 11. Tickets including transportation, hotel accommodations, and every necessary expense, will be sold at the following rates: From New York, Brooklyn, Newark, $13.00; Philadelphia, $14.00; Potomac, $15.00; Annapolis, $16.00; and at proportionate rates from other points.

For tickets, literature, and full information apply to ticket agents, courthouse, 1100 Broadway, N.Y., or Geo. W.
Hoyt, New York. Passenger Agents, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Electric Bitters.

Is a medicine suited for any season, but is most generally needed when the liver is torpid and sluggish, when the liver is torpid and sluggish, and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarious poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. 50 cents and $1 per bottle, at Croft's Pharmacy.

FOR SALE, A fine brick residence in Hammononton, eight rooms, heater, broad plazas, with nearly five acres of cultivated land, with fine house, carriage, workshop, cow, and farming tools. Immediate possession. Part cash. Inquire at FREDERICKSON office.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and possively cures piles, or no pay required.
It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale at Croft's.

Beginning January 15, 1897, the New York and Atlantic City through express train, via the Pennsylvania Railroad, will be placed in service, daily except Sunday, leaving New York at 1:50 p. m., arriving at Atlantic City 5:30 p. m., returning, leave Atlantic City at 9:00 a. m. and arrive in New York 12:45 p. m. This train will carry a comfortable car and a Pullman buffet parlor car between Jersey City and Atlantic City in each direction, stopping at Newark, Elizabeth, New Brunswick, Trenton, and Burlington. The inauguration of this train formally opens the season at Atlantic City. All of the large beach front hotels are ready to receive guests, and all of the manifold attractions of the fashionable early season will be present.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

At no time of the year is Atlantic
City more desirable than during the
Lenten and ante-Lenten period. It
certainly dignified, conspicuously absent
during the rush of the Summer, prevails
throughout, convenient indeed to both
the season and the reality of the migration. It is at this time that the most
thorough benefits are derived. The year
1897 promises to surpass in every respect
all former seasons, and the new through
express brings it within easy reach of
the great metropolis.

Fruit Growers' Union

And Co-Operative Soc'y, Inc.

Butter

We have just received a new lot direct from York State that we are selling for 20 cents in 5 or 10 lb. lots.

X-ray Chimney

A new chimney that will give a better light and last longer than the ordinary kind.

A New Burner

made so as to prevent the breaking of chimneys. It fits inside of the chimney, so that when the hot glass expands it will loosen instead of pressing against the burner.

The Cuban War
isn't "in it" with the war we are making on the prices of a great many articles. We mention a few,—

Phila. Oleine Soap, $2.50 pr box.
Chewing Tobacco, 8 cents for 10 cent plug.
Pickles, 25 c. kind 20 cents.
Celery Sauce, large bottles, 16 c.
Men's Rubber Boots, pebble lug, $3.50.
Misses' Rubber Boots, $1.25.
Tea Sets, $3.75.

Children's Hose, small sizes, best black, 8 cents, two pair for 15 cents.

Misses and Children's fleeced black hose, 12 c. etc.

Ladies' Hose, 10 to 45 cts.

Full line of Dress Lining, including genuine hair cloth.

Fruit Growers' Union

D. D. FRET

HAEMONONTON, Italian and American
STEAM
MACCARONI.

Manufacturer of the finest Vermicelli and Fancy Pasta.

Maccaroni in packages, with directions.
The home, as well as the period of the very best quality, and nothing inferior to the imported ones.

Imported Groceries

HARNESS.

A full assortment of hand and machine made,—for work or driving.

Trunks, Valises, Whips, Riding Saddles, Nets, etc.

L. W. GOGLEY, Hammononton, N. J.

Chas. Cunningham, M.D.

Physician and Surgeon.
His Block, Hammononton.
Office Hours, 7:30 to 10:00 A.M.
1:00 to 3:00 and 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, FEB. 6, 1897.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Council meeting to-night.

Robert E. Thomas is on the sick list.

G. A. R. Post meeting this evening, at 7:30.

No un-called-for letter in the post office this week.

Miss Emma Preasey is now in Tampa, Florida.

Postmaster French is steadily improving in health.

The Band of Mercy meeting was again postponed until next Thursday.

HALLS Hair Renewer renders the hair thick and silken, gives it an even color, and enables women to put it up in a great variety of styles.

Edwin Jones came home from Pennsylvania for a Sunday with his family.

The Fruit Growers' Union are harvesting an excellent quality of six inch ice.

Frank L. Bassett spent part of this week in New York City, strictly business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benjamin spent part of the week with relatives in Philadelphia.

Burns, in Hammononton, Monday, Feb. 1, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W.
Bassett, a daughter.

J. S. THAYER will give music lessons on Guitar and Mandolin, at reasonable rates.
Apply at his residence.

Birthday social of St. Mark's Guild, next Tuesday evening, at Mrs.
J. M. Peebles's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Will. Farrell and child, of Atlantic City, are visiting relatives in Hammononton.

Muscles are prevalent,—three cases in one family, and numerous others in town, but in a mild form.

Wilson G. St. John was down from the city yesterday. He is a conductor on the Arch Street line.

Rev. Henry T. Taylor occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church last Sunday,—the acting pastor being ill.

Capt. Hooper has recently returned from South America, and his vessel is being loaded for South Africa.

Al Smith, while working on the railroad, Thursday, ran the point of a pick into his foot, near the ankle joint.

TO RENT—Two nice rooms—in convenient location. Inquire at this office.

A number of young Hammonontians, graduates of the High School, are taking the County teachers examination.

We were asked, recently, Can a postmaster legally hold any other office of trust or profit,—that of Councilman, for example?

The union meetings have closed for the present. The Baptists and Presbyterians will hold services in their own churches to-morrow.

A cold rain on Tuesday,—began about daylight, continued all day, with increasing blizzard. At night, much colder, turned to snow.

DRUG OLD CIDER VINEGAR for sale at 20 cents per gallon. Cedar Paste and other stocks for sale to the purchasers by JOHN SULLIVAN.

The admission for for spectators at the "Masquerade Valentine Party," to be given by Wm. R. C. and S. of V.
Feb. 16th, will be ten cents.

New advertisements this week:
M. L. Jackson, New York Tribune, Geo.
Elvins, Fruit Growers' Union, Frank E. Roberts, Jacob Goodman.

Jose D. Fairchild has been very ill with typhoid pneumonia, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. John McGee, but is now reported as recovering.

Only those who are masked will be allowed on the floor at the Masque-rade Valentine Party, to be given by the W. R. C. and S. of V., on Feb. 16th.

ACRES of good land for sale, mostly with, between Reynolds Street and Newman Road,—to close up the A. G.
Cottrell estate. Will be sold very cheap, at a nominal price, and easy terms given.
Address 22 acres in addition, on depth at adjoining above, will be sold with it or separately. For particulars, N. E. AARHORN,
12th and Grand Streets, Hammononton.

Mark Hanna is the biggest political bugaboo the Democrats have run up against. They don't like him and don't know how to get rid of him.

Two things that the Republican Republicans may be expected not to do, pass a race-track gambling bill, and let down the Sunday anti-liquor bars.

Teatro with A. H. Phillips & Co., 1233 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

As we go to press, Mr. John Sullivan is resting a little easier, though not out of danger.

Chas. Ross, of Troy, N. Y., spent part of Sunday last with A. L. Littlefield. He was a few years ago a popular young Hammonontian, and received cordial greetings.

Edwards to unite the Hammononton Athletic Association and the Base Ball Club have failed, and we are told that the latter are about to open a club room of their own.

TO RENT—A small house by the Lake, furnished, with five acres of ground.
Rent reasonable to good tenant. Apply to Mrs. Rutherford, Hammononton, or W. B. FICK, Yorkers, N. Y.

Everything looked strange, on Monday morning. A heavy frost had congealed and covered every limb and twig,—giving all nature a ghastly appearance in the dim light before sunrise.

Henry Molino's barn, away out in the First Ward, was burned last Saturday evening. The owner was absent, but neighbors succeeded in saving dwellings which were very close by.

SMALL HOUSE for sale,—next to George
S. Hamilton's. Six rooms, electric bell.
Everything in good order. Lot 50 x 150 feet fronts on the city street.

Our thanks are due to Hon. M.
L. Jackson for a copy of Fitzgerald's "Legislative Manual" for 1897. It is a valuable book, filled with information and statistics in relation to the politics and government of New Jersey.

Mr. H. Claves, of New Hampshire, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. T. J. Smith, and other relatives in Hammononton, started for home, Wednesday. His daughter, Miss Lena, who has been here all Winter, returned with him.

The Woman's Relief Corps, together with the Sons of Veterans, will give a "Masquerade Valentine Party" in H. A. Hall, February 16th, for the benefit of the G. A. R. relief fund.
The admission will be ten cents, dancing tickets ten cents extra.

ACRES of land for sale, near Barnard's Station—the Korte property. About 30 acres ready for cultivation. Comfortable house, vineyard, etc. Price, $20,000, with $20 down. Must be sold. Apply to J. S. THAYER,
12th and Grand Streets, Hammononton.

A little more. Last March voters appropriated $2000 for highways.
Just where the mistake originated, no one seems to know, but $2500 was the sum raised, and has been so carried on the books, leaving $500 $1 now unexpended.

The new Boards of Registry and Election for Hammononton will probably be as follows: First precinct,—W. R.
Scott, Wayland DeFay, Z. E. Roberts,
M. Fitzpatrick. Second precinct,—J.
H. Garbo, Andrew E. Holman, Will.
Slack, R. R. Ruby.

Word was received here that Dr.
Carl M. Cook, of Baltimore, yet kindly remembered in Hammononton, was critically ill with diphtheria, with narrow chance for recovery. We are glad to be able to say that he is better, and making progress toward health.

FOR RENT—Captain Taylor's house, on Bellevue Avenue. Apply to M. H. BURGESS.

Mr. Frank E. Roberts will be a candidate for nomination for Collector and Treasurer. He has resided in Hammononton since childhood, is known to all as an honorable and energetic business man, with every necessary qualification for the office.

Yesterday afternoon, about one o'clock, several garments were stolen from the clothes-line in W. F. Bassett's back yard. The thief must have made time, for one of the family had just gone into the house for more washed garments, and returning in a few minutes, discovered the loss.

REPAIRING, Cleaning, and Dyeing done at my residence, the brick house on Bellevue Avenue. Dyeing made to order —good stock of dyes on hand.
GEO. HYPERMAN, Tailor.

Rev. Alfred Wynn will occupy the pulpit at the M. E. Church to-morrow.
Services follow: Love-feast at 9:30
a. m., Teaching and Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 10:30. Sunday School at 12:00 m. Epworth League meeting at 6:30 p. m.,—topic, "Immanuel, God with us," leader, Miss Emily Bishop.
Pleading at 7:00. All are invited.

In response to several requests, Rev. Mr. Weston will repeat his recent sermon, "The Creed of Ian MacLaren," at the Universalist Church, Sunday morning. Lovers of the Scottish preacher's books are cordially invited. In the evening, Mr. Weston's subject will be "The Story of Jonah, and Christian Faith," with special reference to recent denominations. Everybody welcome.

1. The first group of people who are not in the labor force are those who are not in the labor force because they are not in the labor force. This group is the largest group of people who are not in the labor force.

