W. C. T. U.

The ladies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

An ex-soldier says: "There are various opinions in regard to the army canteen, or selling intoxicants in the post exchange. From my own personal knowledge, the canteen has been an injury to the U. S. soldier.

"With the exception of a few old soldiers who have been drunkards all their lives, there has been less drinking at Fort Dade, Florida, since the anti canteen law went into effect.
There have been fewer men in the guard house, more money deposited, and the men are better contented than when the canteen was selling intoxicating drinks. The mess has been just as good as when beer was sold.

"The canteen is nothing but a factory that manufactures drunkards.— Young men are constantly coming into the army who never drank; but they are soon persuaded to go to the canteen, and when they do they fall in with the old soldiers, and in a few weeks they are almost as bad as their leaders."

Thousands Sent into Exile.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. Don't be an exile when Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption will cure you at home. It's the most infallible medicine for coughs, colds, and all throat and lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astounding cures result from persistent use. Trial bottle free at J. B. Rogers'. Price 50c.
and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Blown to Atoms.

The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic, purgative pill has been exploded; for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system and absolutely cure constipation and sick headache. Only 25c. at J. B. Rogers' drug store.

Peddle Sunshine if You Can.

Though you deal in liquid blushing,
Dismal bluing, and such things,
When you have a sale to manage,
Do it as the robin sings.
Put some cheer-up in your business,
Be a chipper sort of man,
And, with other lines of notions,
Peddle sunshine if you can.
There's an awful deal of meanness
In this busy world of ours;
But, mix'd in with weeds the rankers,
Often grow the finest flowers.
Wear a posy on your lapel,—
It won't hurt the trade you plan,
And, along with other samples,
Peddle sunshine if you can.

Roosevelt's Career.

Boyhood.—Weakling, wore glasses, ambitious to become strong. Rather retiring. Doctor advised plenty of outdoor exercise. Fond of reading stories of great Americans' lives.

Youth.—Ridiculed on Montana ranch for wearing "specs." Not specially brilliant as a student. Possessed of a great amount of perseverance. Not a facile thinker, poor speechmaker.

Manhood.—Acquired robust constitution. Fond of constant exertion and out-door life. Full of intense energy, tenacity, and patriotism.

Author.—Stirred by slander of standard British author on American navy, wrote stinging denunciation of author in his first work, a history of the navy, at 24. Also wrote "American Ideals and Other Essays," "The Winning of the West," "The strenuous life,"
"Essays on Practical Politics," "The Wilderness Hunter," and "Hunting Trips of a Ranchman."

Ranchman.—Plainsman on western ranch several years, acquiring fondness for big game and rugged hardship.
Developed gigantic strength.

Reformer.—As Police Commissioner
in New York, reformed and reorganized police department, putting new blood into it. Patrolled officers' beats in disguise, and sought out violations of the excise law in midnight carriage tours.

Soldier.—Organized the regiment of "Rough Riders" at outbreak of Spanish war, becoming Lieutenant Colonel under Col. Leonard Wood, Mrs. McKinley's physician. Led regiment in famous charge up San Juan Hill.

Statesman.—Resigned from the police commission to become Assistant Secretary of the Navy in 1897. Was elected Governor of New York after the war, and Vice-President in 1900, after vigorously opposing nomination.

Orator.—Entered vigorously into the Presidential campaign, making several trips throughout the country, delivering several speeches daily.

Huband and father.—Prefers society of home and family to anything else.
Has six children, four boys and two girls. Married twice, first wife being Miss Alice Lee, of Boston, who died a few years later.

Personality.—Forty-three years old,
five feet eight inches tall; weighs 185 pounds. Has not been sick within ten years.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, according to directions, and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Pendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. Pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by J. B.
Rogers.

In answering advertisements,
say "I saw it in the South Jersey Republican."

The Republican.

[Entered as second class matter.] SATURDAY, FEB. 8, 1902.

A member of Town Council said to us, the other day: "The subject of appointing Water Commissioners is in my mind the first thing in the morning and the last at night." If every Councilman will give the matter as serious consideration, there will probably be no mistake made when the commissioners are selected. They should be men who are willing to devote much time to the work, particularly during the first year. Altogether, it will not be a "soft job," in any respect, and the munificent remuneration (one hundred dollars per year each) will not induce any great number of men to contest for the place. But we hope that competent men will be found who are willing to sacrifice a little, if need be, to secure a satisfactory supply of pure water in Hammoncton.

Last week's snow was reduced rapidly to bulk by Saturday all-day rain, which was continued during most of Sunday. That night, however, we were treated to one of those sudden changes characteristic of this winter. Mercury dropped away down, the wind blew away up. Monday was certainly cold; Tuesday not much better, and included a thin covering of snow over the icy streets. But that was better than last week's slush and mud. Wednesday dawned clear, with temperature of twelve above at 7 o'clock. Thursday of twelve above, and mild and cold. Friday was mild and pleasant.

The Passenger Department of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway are preparing to issue the 1902 number of "Pleasant Places on the P. & R. R.," containing a list of summer boarder houses and hotels on the line. Each ticket agent has been furnished with a blank form to report name, rates and other information. Persons in this vicinity desiring a select class of summer boarders, on application to the agent will be willingly placed on list. This is a perfectly free book, and there is no charge either for the book or for publication of names, rates, etc.

M. L. JACKSON, P. M.

Last Sunday was Candlemas Day, and according to the old folks, the groundling came out for an airing. It was a shadow, he rained for six weeks more of winter weather; otherwise, Spring might be expected right soon. Now, in this locality, there was no shadow until three o'clock; did he see it? In other sections the sun shone at intervals, all day; in others, clouds prevailed until after midnight. What shall we do about it? Wait and see.

The fire-bell rang about half past six o'clock last Sunday evening, and the firemen made quick and efficient use of their chemicals in extinguishing a fire in A. J. King's chimney. When the alarm was given, flames were pouring out several feet above the chimney-top, and the strong wind carried sparks all over the neighborhood. It looked very dangerous, but a stream from the chemical engine, poured directly into the fire soon ended the suspense, and the crowd scattered. Mr. King claimed that there was no danger, but some of the neighbors think the firemen for prompt relief from anxiety.

A congregational meeting was called for Friday evening by the trustees of the Presbyterian Church, to discuss the advisability of moving the church to another location, and building a manse.

Mrs. Mary MacMillan is again at home, after an absence of two months.

Mrs. M. A. Ham has returned from her visit at Batsto.

Mrs. S. Bentley was very forcibly impressed with the fact that a pump handle is no agreeable object to come in contact with, unless it is under perfect control. She was drawing water the other day, when her hand slipped, and the pump-handle struck her a little above the eye, inflicting a very bad bruise.

A small party of young people drove over to Pleasant Mills, on Wednesday night, and enjoyed the skating, saying nothing of the drive.

Have you seen "Smith's Pond"? You ought to go up and have a skate. It's a good place for beginners.

Francisco di Camillo and family have moved to Egg Harbor City.

The Lyceum.

The Lyceum meeting has been postponed until one week from Monday evening. The unavoidable absence of several participants in this week's programme made this action necessary.

It is anticipated that the proceedings of the Lyceum, acting as the House of Representatives, in passing a bill dealing and providing the punishment for anarchistic teachings, will be of extraordinary interest. All are invited to attend and, if possible, present some argument for or against the bill.

See next Saturday's REPUBLICAN for further particulars.

Once in a while, Dime Fortune smiles upon an Editor. This time it is John F. Hall, of the Atlantic Democrat, who has inherited a snug sum from his great grandmother Mrs. Mary Deshong, who recently died in Canton, Maine. Congratulations.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Greenmount Cemetery Association will be held at the office of Mr. J. B. Small, on Wednesday, Feb. 12, 1902, at 8:00 p. m., for the election of two trustees and transaction of any other business properly coming before the association. D. S. CUNNINGHAM, Secretary.

Some of the Uses to Which They May Be Put—How the Films Are Made.

The included biograph film is simply a series of pictures, each representing a scene. The pictures are on a strip of film, which is developed in such a way that each picture appears on a separate strip of film. The pictures are two inches high and cover the film to its edges, while between each picture there is a margin of one-eighth of an inch. A picture-film of a scene that has lasted a minute will be three inches wide and 320 feet long. On it will be 1,600 separate photographs of the scene. There is a margin of one-eighth of an inch between each picture, so that at the rate of thirty distinct snap shots per second, and the biograph or mutoscope (by which names the two forms of projected apparatus are known) will exhibit to spectators at the same rate of speed. The eye cannot detect where one picture joins another, for they pass at the rate of 1,600 pictures per minute. "Everybody's Magazine."

VALLEY OF ROCAMADOUR.
Remarkable Oasis in French Plain of Rocky Debris.

It is impossible to describe the suddenness of the transition, the surprise of this unforeseen oasis after the barren stretches and the rocky reaches of the upper Gasse. A river, the rippling Edmon, winds its long curves through the smiling valley, disappearing in a moment under the briar bushes, only to appear again farther on near the tall aspens and the dainty birches. But great cliffs hem in this charming Eden, and one precipitous rock, larger than the rest, turns its scarred and battered face toward the rising sun.

A Deep Mystery.
It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Oberley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c. at J. S. Rogers' drug store.

Remarkable Cure of Croup.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D. and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth to day.—Joel Demont, Luwood, Iowa. It is ordered that all persons interested in the lands, tenements, and real estate of the said decedent, appear before the Court, at the Court House in May's Landing, on the eleventh day of March next, to show cause why so much of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate of said decedent should not be sold as will be sufficient to pay his debts or the residue thereof as the case may require.
