Cycling News.

American bicycles sell in Mexico for from $200 to $300.

One of the Class B "cracks" proposes to make an effort to reduce the mile straight away record to one minute. A locomotive will be used as a pacemaker, the road being a level stretch parallel with the railroad.

During 1894 167,867 bicycles entered Fairmount Park between the hours of 9 a. m. and 7 p. m.

"Why does a bicycle stand up?" is a question quite thoroughly discussed by the scientific press. What the average beginner wants to know is why a bicycle don't stand up.

Under the Road Laws of New Jersey the State agrees to pay one-third the cost of all macadam roads built, up to its limit of $75,000 annually. During 1894 Mercer County spent $100,000 in macadam roads, Burlington $300,000 and Middlesex $25,000.

There are 40,000 wheelmen in this State.

It is rumored that Zimmerman and Wheeler have applied for re-instatement in Class B.

If this sort of weather continues the invention of a snow bicycle will be in order.

The bicycle track contemplated by the Athletic and Bicycle Club, provided sufficient ground can be obtained "right" and properly located, would contain besides the regulation banked track, a base ball diamond, foot ball "gridiron," tennis field, cricket grounds, etc.

They already have a foot ball team that with any sort of practice can hold its own with the best. We have material in the town out of which a really first class base ball nine could be made up. The record of our riders last season is a specimen of what we may expect with a better track. Everyone interested in good, honest, healthy sports should be willing to help along this athletic ground project, and it all will help its success is assured.

Democrats promised that the new tariff would greatly stimulate our export trade and liven things up generally. They must have made a slight miscalculation, for a review of our foreign commerce elicits fact that gold is the only important article the export of which has been prompted by that bill. As for the livening up of business it has principally been confined to the pawn-brokers.

A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time), and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in a like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. SATURDAY, FEB. 16, 1895.

At the last meeting of our Board of Freeholders, the subject of the County caring for our insane was introduced. In 1893 Atlantic County appropriated $5500 for care of insane in State institutions; in 1894 this was increased to $6800. After discussion, a committee was instructed to investigate the subject and report at next meeting. On Tuesday last, Director Jackson, Clerk Anderson, J. T. Irving, Steward of the Almshouse McConnell, and possibly others, interviewed the proper authorities in Burlington and Camden Counties where the insane are cared for at their almshouses. They learned that the State appropriated stated amounts to each county for the care of incurable cases, which sum about pays the cost of their maintenance. Altogether, it looks as though it would be economical for this county to erect a suitable building, save most of the money paid to the State, receive the State appropriation, and keep these unfortunate ones within our own borders. The matter will be more fully discussed at the Freeholders' meeting to be held on Wednesday, March 13th. (By the way, that is our town election day.)

Among the many interesting stories of the recent severe weather, none are more surprising than the many cases of poverty and consequent suffering in our midst. Empty coal bins, empty flour barrels and empty pocket books are a part of the tale. Let each one of our readers look about him and see whether he can help some one more unfortunate than himself. One of our citizens has bought several tons of coal and had it delivered in halftons lots to needy families. Another, a lady, has been soliciting plain sewing for an elderly woman, that she might earn life's necessities. These are but hints of what you can do.

A train on the Atlantic City Railroad, last week Friday, ran into a hand car on which were a number of section employees, who were engaged in clearing the track near Winslow, and two of the men, Walter Zimmerman and Frank Clark, the foreman, were badly injured. The former had an arm and leg broken, and sustained severe lacerations of the scalp, and the latter had his head seriously injured. The men were taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, where their injuries were attended to.

Frank Eck, an engineer on the Atlantic City Railroad, ran his train through the snow drifts, last week Friday, after his cab windows had been broken by the storm. He was badly frosted, and lay for hours delirious in the Winslow station. He was taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, on the first train that could be moved to the city.

Roadside Items.

There has been an unusual amount of sickness in the past month, nearly every family having one or more sick ones. The big storm was unusually severe in Rosedale. No mail was received on Wednesday or Thursday, the school was dismissed, and persons working in Hammon and Winslow thought it safest to stay at home the last three days of the week.

Mrs. Ryan has returned from Philadelphia after a month's attendance at the Women's Hospital. The fourth quarterly conference of the Elm and Winslow charge M. E. Church was held in Rosedale last week. The church membership was largely increased during the year. Rev. W. B. Nobles, the pastor in charge will close his connection with this year. James B. Ryan was made District Steward, F. E. Priestly, of Elm, alternate.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house, and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free, at Groff's. Regular size, 50 c. and $1.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, itching hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. 25 cents per box, at Groff's Pharmacy.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectively as Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by druggists.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler County, West Va., appreciates a good thing, and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by druggists.

FARM FOR SALE—on Ninth Street, near R. First Road. 27 acres. Horse improved. The small house and barn. Some fruit, 20 grape vines. Inquire of JOHN ATKINSON.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ellsworth are about building a handsome residence at Riverton. Mr. Bernhouse is making the drawings.

Nearly every man who owns a horse has a sleigh of some kind. Many have given their mechanical and artistic skill full play; and most wonderful are some of the products.

Everybody says that the Wren and Durand combination always keep their promise. Feb. 23th they agree to give a first class entertainment in Union Hall,—for the benefit of the Old Fellows.

FOR SALE OR RENT. The 10 acre farm opposite the Middle Road School House. For terms apply on the premises to Mrs. D. G. JACOBS.

Henry G. Thayer, of the Guy Brothers, left Vineland on an engine, Sunday morning, found the road blocked a mile beyond Winslow, then walked, reaching home about four o'clock that afternoon, tired out.

Joe Hooker Post, G. A. R., of Atlantic City, has subscribed for one hundred shares of stock in the local Hospital and Sanitarium Association, and will be entitled to a certain number of beds in the institution.

We are told that there will be an old fashioned "Citizens' Caucus" in Union Hall, at a date to be fixed. The promoters express the hope that those who take part in this will support its action and not aid in nominating any party ticket.

HOUSE FOR SALE.—seven rooms, heated two lots, nicely located. Easy terms. Inquire of Mrs. D. G. JACOBS.

The Guy Brothers were to give an entertainment last Friday evening, but were snow bound on the way from Vineland, and were returned thither in sleighs on Saturday afternoon. The money was refunded to those who bought tickets.

Mrs. A. H. Whitmore was taken suddenly very ill, Wednesday, with vertigo. While alone in the kitchen, preparing supper, she fell to the floor, where her father (Dr. Bowles) found her unconscious. A physician was summoned, but she remained unconscious all night, and partially so on Thursday, with encouraging symptoms as we go to press.

SEWING of all kinds wanted. Mrs. E. GRAVATT, with Mrs. H. H. House, Washington Street, above Pleasant.

The down express train on the Atlantic City Road which reaches Hammon at 5:51 p. m., meets the up express near East Hammon, this side of Elwood. Tuesday evening, all trains were a little late, and as the up express neared the place of meeting, the engineer saw an obstruction on the track, stopped just in time to prevent an accident, and found that some miscreants had piled a lot of ties on both tracks—principally on the north bound—evidently with the intention of wrecking one or both trains. Fortunately no damage was done, but so nearly that ties were tightly wedged under the pilot, and the trains delayed for half an hour. There is some prospect of the guilty parties being apprehended. A fall of snow prevented tracking that night, but suspicious circumstances point in a certain direction.

For Sale.
Seven-room cottage, corner lot, fruit, shade, good water pump in kitchen, good dry cellar. One who wishes to leave the town.

A. L. GIDDINGS,
Cor. Second and Grape Sts.

The Grand Army representatives who attended their State Encampment, last week, left Trenton at 4:14, Friday afternoon, reaching Camden in time for the accommodation train, at 6:10. We knew that the road was badly blocked with snow, but hoped to reach home, possibly a little late. Delayed for a time at Ashland, arriving at Berlin, Conductor Layer received orders to send all passengers to the hotel, and wait until the morning. Train hands and passengers numbered about a dozen. Landlord Small, after some persuasion, set his folks to work and provided a hearty supper of ham, etc., about ten o'clock. The weather was extremely cold outside, and when the party were shown to their rooms they found zero temperature there, and didn't sleep much; in fact, part of them spent the night close to the heat register in the bar-room. The next day was spent in various ways, with three straight meals of ham at appropriate hours. For some reason, that landlord seemed to have a fellow-feeling for ham, declined to purchase poultry when offered, or to cook mutton brought in by the guests,—storing the meat away for future use. The entire party acquired an irresistible tendency to grunt whenever meal time approached. Saturday night all hands spent in one of the cars, arranging cushions into comfortable beds and keeping good fire. Sleep, yards, and fun made the dark hours pass rapidly. About seven o'clock Sunday morning the welcome news came that the road was open, and our train soon resumed its interrupted trip, and a late breakfast was eaten at home. Like our army experience, the hardships and unpleasant features have been softened by time, and memory retails them only as links connecting much that no one wishes to forget.

Three Italians were buried this week,—a child on Tuesday, a woman on Wednesday, a man (member of the Benevolent Society) on Thursday.

The Baptist Church was filled last Sunday, at the funeral of Mr. Brown. Pastors Wagg and Randall assisted at the services. Pastor Killian gave a most excellent discourse from the words, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." The G. A. R. Post attended in a body, and performed the last sad rites at the grave. The Fire Company, of which Mr. D. was a charter member, also attended in a body.

We were in Philadelphia on Tuesday. The Delaware river was so full of ice that ferry boats required from fifteen minutes to two hours to cross. The four o'clock boat started at 5:30 was unable to pass the heaviest ice until assisted by a large tug boat. There must have been two thousand passengers on board,—a solid mass of humanity filling cabins, decks and passage ways. All trains were late during the day.

By advice of a competent attorney Messrs. Jackson and Bernhouse will submit the facts of the late election for Secretary of the Workmen's Loan & Building Association to the Supreme Court of the State, for a decision. It all rests upon the admissibility of votes on proxy, and the question is of importance to every Association in New Jersey. It has been discussed heretofore in the State League, and this reference will be generally approved.

There's a real looking in at the window in every condition of life,—in days of content and enjoyment, in hours with bitterness of life. Where there's a smile of a true wife, as bright as a beam from above, 'Tis the real looking in at the window And filling the dwelling with love.

The blizzard of 1895 will go down in history as one of the severest storms that ever afflicted the country. In many respects it was even worse than the celebrated blizzard of 1888. While the amount of snow that fell was probably less, yet owing to the long continued high winds and the protracted period of low temperature the effect upon railway transportation and general traffic was more serious. For two whole days there was practically no communication by rail with outside points and in many places the blockade continued much longer. There was zero temperature or worse for several consecutive days over nearly the entire country, which caused many deaths and a vast amount of suffering among the poor. In general destructiveness this storm stands without a parallel in the history of the weather bureau and it is the universal hope that it may never be repeated.

The New York Recorder puts a solid chunk of truth in the following: "There was no run on the gold reserve during the administrations of Hayes, Garfield, Arthur and Harrison. Why? Because the Government's income, derived from tariffs that yielded ample revenue, was always more than enough to meet all its liabilities." The financial disaster now prevalent in the land is the result of the passage of the Wilson tariff bill,
and the worst of it is that nobody can tell when the end will come.

When such distinguished Democratic authorities as the New York Times and Herald accuse their party of incompetency
and stupidity it is not worth while for the lesser lights to make any attempt at justification. In view of the present situation the less the Democratic papers
have to say about their party's statemanship the better they will stand with the people.

President Harrison left the national debt in 1893 some 259 millions less than he found it in 1889. President Cleveland has increased it in two years 100 millions, and it will take 400 millions more to put the treasury in as good shape as it was on March 3, 1893.

Walter Stackhouse, twenty years old,
the eldest son of Charles Stackhouse, of Palmyra, was taken to an asylum on Wednesday, having become violently
insane from smoking cigarettes.

The present Democratic Congress is devoting its entire time nowadays to proving that the people knew their business when they voted the Republicans
into power last November.

God's keeping power is no less than
His saving power.

The experience of George A. Apper, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months, treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one small bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale
by druggists.
