The Christian Sabbath.

With the coming of the twentieth century, shall we lose our Christian Sabbath? During the last half of the nineteenth century, the Sabbath Day has gradually changed from a day of rest and for the worship of God, both public and private, to a day of pleasure and recreation. With the coming into use of steamboats, railroads, and other improvements in facilities for travel, Sunday travel has greatly increased, and many (particularly the laboring classes) have taken their Sabbaths-- God's day of rest--for excursions for pleasure, and many of them ending in debauchery and vice.

Said a prominent merchant in a New England city -- a man who cared little for church or religion -- to a friend, while watching several wild, rollicking young men and women passing by, making day and night hideous with their noise, one Sabbath day: "My friend, you are a Christian, and believe in religion and keeping the Sabbath day holy: I do not believe in either; nevertheless, it pains me to see the Sabbath day desecrated, -- a day made for rest spent in such a manner as those young people are spending it."

If it could make such a man sad, what must be the feelings of the thousands of good Christian men who see this Sabbath after Sabbath, while on their way to the Church of God? Shall this continue? Shall it increase as time goes on? Or shall Christian men and women work to reduce this evil, which is doing so much harm to our young people? Let us both work and pray that this great evil be overcome.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern which is not afraid to be generous. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of helpless ones.
Asthma, bronchitis, laryngitis and all throat, chest and lung diseases are surely cured by it. Call at Crowell's Pharmacy, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

LIVE FOR SOMETHING.

Live for something, have a purpose,
And that purpose keep in view; Drifting like a homeless vessel, Then one's life's end is in view.
Half the wrecks that strew life's ocean,
If a star had been their guide, Might have now been riding safely,
But they drifted with the tide.
Live for something, and live earnest, Though the work may humble be.
By the world of men unnoticed, Known alone to God and thee.
Every act has priceless value To the architect of fate;
'Tis the spirit of thy doing That alone will make it great.

Live for something--God and angels Are thy watchers in the strife, And above the smoke and conflict Gleams the victor's crown of life.
Live for something; God has given Freely of His stores divine; Richer gifts of earth and heaven,
If thou wiltest may be thine.

The Lyceum Debates.

At the meeting of the Lyceum on last Monday evening, considerable discussion took place on amending the rules. To some, this discussion was supposed to be useless, but really it was educational. Those who take part in debates should make themselves familiar with parliamentary law. This is not intended to obstruct business, but to facilitate it; and with a capable chairman and members on the floor who understand how to advance business, much time may be saved.

In the first place, the chairman must carefully watch the proceedings.
He must know all motions made, and every amendment. Under the rule limiting the floor to persons speaking once only, until others so desiring have spoken, he can keep order, and no one should at any time be offended when called to order by the chairman.
There is no loss of self-respect in obey-ing the chair.

A favorite method of preventing the passage of a motion is to load it down with amendments, the audience becoming confused, not knowing what is really being considered, and then move to "lay on the table," which shuts off debate until a vote is taken, and if carried, even on an amendment, it carries the whole question-- motion and amendments--with it.

One of the most amusing features in debate is the call for "question!" "question!" Nothing shows lack of education in parliamentary practice more than these calls; and strange to state, some chairmen will proceed as follows: "The question being called for, the vote will be taken." The only correct method of shutting off debate is to demand the "previous question," which must be seconded by at least three persons. If carried, debate at once ceases, and a vote on the main question is taken. If defeated, debate continues as long as any one wishes to speak. Otherwise, any person could shut off debate by simply calling "question."

A motion may be amended, and the amendment be amended, but no other amendment is then in order until the second amendment is voted upon.
A "substitute" must be germane to the question. For instance, such a question as "met at seven o'clock" may be changed by substituting the figure 8 for the figure 7; but a substitute destroying the entire question is not in order. As an example, a motion "That we have a plume" cannot be displaced by a substitute "That debates shall not exceed two hours." The substitute in such cases would destroy the motion. It is a difficult matter, at times, to distinguish between substitute and amendment.

Many other points might be referred to, but for the extended space required for explanation.

There is much enjoyment to be had in spending an evening in parliamentary practice. With a good chairman, and a few alert members on the floor, each and all would have more amusement than may be anticipated. The object is usually for the members to disconcert the chairman, while he aims to keep them strictly within the confines of parliamentary law. Such a meeting, at least once in three months, would be educational, and direct attention to something which all should desire, of which many are exceedingly ignorant, and of which every American citizen should have knowledge.

It may not be out of place to state that the Lyceum is not a hall for "free debate." Only members have the privilege of the floor. Others may visit once, and may join if approved by the committee. There is some expense connected with it, which, tho' not great, should be borne by all.
There have been no meetings in our town at which so much enjoyment has resulted, as at the Lyceum. The best local talent (who are considered guests, if not members) assist in the entertainments, and some of the best speakers are found among the younger members.

Traveling Libraries.

How would it do for our local Lyceum to secure one of the "traveling libraries" provided by the State of New Jersey? In a communication received this week the State Librarian says:

With the ending of the first year that the New Jersey traveling libraries have been in operation, half a dozen of the towns have for various reasons discontinued their use. In some cases public school libraries have been started; in others there was a lack of interest, or inability to secure anyone willing to act as librarian. The libraries have been in use in all the Counties, excepting Hudson, Middlesex, Ocean and Union. Cape May and Somerset each has five of them. About fifty of the libraries have been made up, and others will be procured when there is a demand.

It may not be generally known throughout the State that provision has been made by the Legislature for furnishing books to the small towns and country districts, or the demand for the traveling libraries would be greater. Each library contains fifty volumes, of which one-half is fiction, the remainder being made up of history, biography, travel, science and other subjects. A fee of five dollars is required, which pays the transportation charges both ways on as many libraries as a town can use in a year, and the cost of printed catalogues, members' cards, book slips and all other supplies. The libraries are furnished on formal application being made by twenty taxpayers, who choose a trustee and a librarian. The necessary blanks and circulars giving full information may be had by addressing Henry C.
Buchanan, State Librarian, Trenton, N. J.

We take the following paragraph from the Pleasantville Press of this week, and see no reason why voters in this section should not endorse the sentiments expressed:

On general principles I could wish that the movement to send John T.
Truitt to the next Assembly might result in failure because he is so well qualified to fill the bill. I will explain this apparent paradox by saying it is because he is so much needed in his present position as Director of the Board of Freeholders. Grave matters, involving the outlay of many thousands of dollars are at stake, and Mr. Truitt can render the people of the county great service by retaining his present position. The same line of argument will apply also to M. L.
Jackson, of Hammonton, whose business interests now demand his whole attention, but I want to see the voters of Hammonton send him back again for further service. . . . The present Board of Freeholders stands on record as a painstaking and careful body of men, and have proven their ability to serve the county acceptably and honestly.

The Lyceum.

The regular meeting was held last Monday night. The entertainment opened with a well rendered solo by Mr. S. L. Drake. Miss Edna Hill and Mr. A. T. Trafford gave interesting recitations, and Mr. P. H. Jacobs read the first number of the "Lyceum Reporter," which proved to be interesting and amusing. The question for debate was--

Resolved, That the expectation of reward is a greater incentive to exertion than the fear of punishment."

It was ably debated by Miss Amanda Wilson and Miss Harriet McFarren on the affirmative, and by Miss Maude Jacobs and Mrs. McAnany on the negative. Quite a number of volunteer disputants, including Miss High, Mr.
Jacobs, Mr. King, Dr. Bowles, Mr.
Harry Smith, and others, took an interested part in the discussion. The judges awarded the debate to the affirmative, although in the opinion of many the sympathy of the audience seemed to be with the other side.

Several amendments to the Constitution were then taken up and passed; but one, providing for an entrance fee for non-members, was voted down after a warm and exciting debate. Each member is allowed to bring one friend, but the privilege has been abused. The dues are only twenty-five cents per quarter, and it is hoped that in the future everyone will join. There will then be no necessity for action on the subject.

See next week's issue for the program of the meeting on Feb. 25th.

Thirtieth Anniversary.

The thirtieth anniversary of the marriage of Ansel B. and Emma B. Crowell was celebrated on Wednesday, at their lovely home at Gravelly Run, just east of May's Landing. A host of friends from the Landing, from Hammonton, and Atlantic City, were there. Sixty-two, from childhood to old in age, sat down to supper, and participated in the joyous festivities. Among the guests were ministers, doctors, and lawyers.
Speeches were made, and they talked and played, laughed and sang, recitations given, and the occasion was one long to be remembered.

The merrymaking was continued till the " wee wee " hours of the morn., and many did not sleep, but kept their precious heads from their pillows until old Sol in his glorious effulgence gave notice of the dawn of St. Valentine's Day. There were but few of those who were witnesses of the ceremony thirty years ago.

Those present from Hammonton were Dr. Bowles, uncle of the bride, A. H.
Whitmore and wife and daughter, Miss Littie, Mrs. Jennie Simons, sister of the bride, and her two sons, Miss Mabel Scotly and brother Paul, and Master George Bowles. All pronounced it a joyous occasion, and left congratulations and kindly wishes for continued happiness and prosperity of their host and hostess.

ELM ITEMS.

Mrs. Besola Dredoff and her sister, Miss Sophia C. Reeves, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gittinger, of Camden, spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Geo. Sweet.

Miss Jennie Kowenhoven spent last Saturday in Vineland.

The Epworth League is to have one of the best courts ever given in Elm, next Friday evening, 22nd.

Cold weather does not bother the skaters. They are taking advantage of the ice, and crowds can be seen every night enjoying the rare sport.

Mr. John Leed has one of the largest piles of stove-wood ever seen in this vicinity.

Mr. Henry Maseley has purchased the property lately owned by Walter S.
Borden.

The fire-bell rang last Friday evening, about 6:30, and it didn't take ten minutes to collect a crowd of five hundred people of all sorts and sizes.
The fire was in the chimney of Skinner & Son's glass factory, and looked so threatening that the alarm was given.
One man climbed to the roof, and while held there by another, inserted the nozzle of a hand chemical extinguisher into the chimney top, which soon put out the flames. That old building is worth more to Hammonton than some others that cost more, and its destruction would be a public calamity.

Spread Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best," they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 60 cents. Sold by Crowell, Druggist."

EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH

Better than a Piano, Organ, or Mado Box, for it sings and talks as well as plays, and don't cost as much. It reproduces the music of any instrument—band or orchestra—tells stories and sings—the old familiar hymns as well as the popular songs—it is always ready. See that Mr. Edison's signature is on every machine. Catalogues of all dealers, or NATIONAL PHONOGRAPH CO., 335 Fifth Ave., New York.

DR. E. H. JONES,

Originator of the celebrated Home-treatment for the cure of all Chronic, Nervous and Wasting Diseases.

I challenge all forms of disease, acute or chronic.

I treat on scientific principles, with selected medicines.

A LASTING CURE

The above statement is open and frank, without fear of contradiction.

I treat all forms of chronic diseases successfully that have baffled skilled professors. No so-called "cure-alls," but remedies prepared for each individual case. A full statement of your case sent me by mail will receive prompt and careful consideration and advice sent gratis on receipt of stamp. Office advice FREE.

Hundreds of testimonials bear evidence of the good results obtained from our method of treating all forms of chronic disease.

All correspondence is strictly private and confidential. No matter the disease or how long standing, consult Philadelphia's Eminent Specialist.
