Take Care of the Boys.

Are you sure you know where your boys are evenings—positively know, or just that they are "in the neighborhood somewhere?"

Every boy is a live wire that, unless properly insulated, will do mischief to himself and others. Even then the wires get crossed, and there are all sorts of complications.

Of course your girls are safely indoors under the parental eye, or properly chaperoned elsewhere; you would not dream of letting them out after night had fallen; but "the boys can take care of themselves," you say. That is one of the greatest mistakes parents make. Your boys are as tender plants as your girls.

The old idea that a daughter is more of a responsibility than a son is a mistake. If anything, the boys are more of a charge, for a girl is put on the defensive from the time she is born; she is made aware of the raging lion on every street corner seeking to devour her; but the boy, in many cases, is totally unarmed with advice of the right nature, and is sent out to do battle with the monster whose habitat is the corner and the loading place, in city, town and country. Boys are not so quick to recognize wickedness as their sisters, and it soaks into them thoroughly and surely, and sometimes a whole lifetime is insufficient to eradicate the harmful impressions received in childhood. Therefore, the mother's duty is as absolute to her son as to her daughter, and does not end in simply providing him with food and an education, and in sending him to Sunday School.—The March New Idea Woman's Magazine.

W. C. T. U.

The matter in this space is furnished by the Ladies, and they are responsible for it.

What is Lager Beer?

The most destructive arguments for the temperance people, against the brewers, are furnished by the brewers themselves.

"What is lager beer?" asked Chas. L. Brown, attorney for the Dairy and Food Commission, of a retired brewer. And the brewer answered that beer, as prepared in America, contains sulphites of lime, as a "cleanser"; tartaric acid as a preservative; citric acid as flavor; benzoic acid as an antiseptic; tannic acid as a bleacher; salicylic acid and kolum "metaphosphate" as preservatives; glucose as a sweetener; juniper berries as an antidote for salicylic acid, and various other ingredients as usual as these for human consumption.

Moreover, he stated that there had been little or no pure lager beer made in this country for ten years or more.—The Home Herald.

SATURDAY, FEB. 20, 1909

Kate Aylesford Chapter of D. A. R. celebrated Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12th, at the home of the Regent, Mrs. Bider. Appropriate music and games were indulged in, and each member was given an appropriate souvenir. An elegant collation was served. Those invited were: Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Elder, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Small, Mrs. McConfort, Mrs. Baeset, Mrs. Fance, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Spry, Mrs. Hylor, Mrs. Tweed, Mrs. King, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Austin, Miss Osgood, Miss McLane, Mrs. Bernehouse, Miss Abbott, Mrs. J. B. Small, Mrs. Adams, Miss Sage, Mrs. Elvins, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. Tomlin, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Dunn. Sec.

One of the pleasantest birthdays recorded was that of our friend, D. W. C. Russell, on Valley Avenue, Feb. 14th. Among those who assisted in its celebration were his brothers, John H. Russell and wife, from New York; Thomas H. Russell and wife, from Pittman-Grove; Richard H. Russell and wife, from Greenwood; and Mr. and Mrs. Leamon, of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Russell are ideal hosts, and with their friends, will long remember the occasion. May he live to have many more days like it.

SPRAY PUMPS—The friend, best double action pump on earth. Also spraying materials. Wm. H. Parkhurst, Agent. A bill was introduced, Monday, by Assemblyman Otto, of Hudson Co., in the same line as Mr. Kaffer's bill, but even more liberal. It puts it up to local councils to allow Sunday opening of saloons, theatres, baseball parks, and other amusements. We hope this bill will share the fate of all the others proposed, which would encourage even more corruption than is found in our State to-day. Senator Wilson has introduced a similar bill, which should be defeated.

To the Lady writing to Councilman Thos. Skinner: I am in a position whereby I can relieve you suffering immediately; but it will be necessary for you to give me, in confidence, your name, and under no circumstances will it become public. Respectfully,
THOS. SKINNER.

The great United States battle ship fleet is expected home to-day, from its long voyage around the world. The Prudential Insurance Company has loaned a picture, in colors, of the fleet passing Gibraltar; also a booklet descriptive of each ship, which can be had by writing to the company.
