

South Jersey Republican

Hoyt & Son, Publishers.

Independent
Phone - No. 532

Terms, $1.25 per Year; $1 in Atlantic County.

VOL. 46

HAMMONTON, N. J., FEBRUARY 22, 1908

NO. 8

Elvins' Store

Flour,

Feed,

and

Farming Implements

Try SPIRELLA

[Unbreakable]

Will not rust, or take a permanent bend at waist line.

Models for every figure.

Fifty styles of latest Corset creations.

Call, or address

Mrs. M. C. Setley,

No. 9 North Second St., Hammonton.

GEO. A. BLAKE

Carpenter and Builder

Work Finished as per Agreement.

Plans, blue prints, and estimates

furnished. Jobbing attended to promptly. Box 533. Local Phone 806.

Corner Egg Harbor Road and Cherry Street, Hammonton.

Singer Sewing Machine Company

Jos. D. Rubertone, Agt.,

Needles, Bells, Oil, Repairing

Hammonton, New Jersey

Write, or Phone Bell 49-F.

E. F. FRY

Pure Milk

AND

Cottage Cheese

Dairy Rooms,

214 Railroad Avenue

Local Phone 928

Advertise in the S. J. R.

Town Council Meeting.

A special meeting was held on Thursday evening, at the request of the Water Commissioners—all members being present, except the Mayor, with Messrs. Seely, Black and Smith, the original auditing committee; also Collector Davis, and a few interested citizens.

After stating the object of the meeting, a recess was taken, during which Mr. Seely, who prepared the first report, and who had privately revised the J. L. White report, sat with Councilman White and the Collector for an hour or more, pointed at the inaccuracies of the late report, showing how they were made, and assisted in correcting the errors.

It was a complicated job for one not familiar with these accounts, and we cannot pretend to explain it; but after recess the matter was gone over, and the committee ordered to have same printed, as corrected.

Mr. Seely also presented an addition to the first committee's report—a sort of summary, which will also be printed, simplifying the maze of figures and making a connecting link between the two reports.

A resolution was adopted, directing the acting Mayor to procure from our Solicitor, Mr. Stockwell, a definition of Council's powers in the water business, whether the Commissioners are in any sense responsible to Council; can they be required to make reports to Council, etc.

It was shown that, though each Commissioner is required to furnish a bond in the sum of $3000 for faithful discharge of duty, yet these bonds are kept in possession of these same Commissioners. Certainly that is not right, and Council desires to know what to do about it.

Altogether, the reports which will be before you in a short time will give you a fair idea of how business stands; then it depends upon the Commissioners to keep everything straight hereafter.

Annual School Meeting.

DEAR SIR:—Who sets the hour for the annual school meeting? The present hour, three o'clock, practically disfranchises a large number of voters. Those who go to the city every day, storekeepers, factory employees, and many farmers find it difficult, if not impossible, to attend. Every voter should have an interest in school matters. Would not 7.30 or 8.00 p. m. be a more convenient hour?

A LADY VOTER.

[This question was agitated at several meetings, and the majority being of the opinion that the greater number were accommodated by holding it during the afternoon, so voted. Nearly everybody can arrange their private business, one afternoon in the year, so as to be present,—having had previous notice. Our correspondent might introduce the subject at next meeting, and advocate a change.—Ed.]

MEXICAN

Breakfast Coffee

23 cts. pound

5 pounds for a Dollar

JAS. L. WHITE

Next to the Bank, Hammonton

ALL THE RAGE

Ping Pongs and Postals

By the Painless method.
Also Higher Grade Work.

G. RANDALL SWAIN,
BABIES MY DELIGHT

BANK BROS.

Suggestions from Merchant Tailoring Department.

We are ready to take your measure and build you your Suit or Overcoat in our Merchant Tailoring Shop, on the second floor of our building.

A man with eighteen years of experience in making clothes will take your measure, sponge and cut the goods, and personally make the suit, from start to finish.

The very best of Trimmings will go in, in the suit we'll build for you.

The garment must fit you before it leaves our store.

Our Merchant Tailoring is at your service. Accept its invitation.

Costs Less than Nothing

The one book for the woman who wants to wear the right dress at the right time; the one book containing styles from Paris, London, Berlin and New York, is

Butterick Fashions, Spring, 1908

Price, 20 Cents

including a certificate good for

ONE BUTTERICK PATTERN FREE.

This book and pattern certificate are given to every new subscriber to THE DELINEATOR on payment of 10 cents for handling charges.

Subscribe to THE DELINEATOR — use the pattern certificate — and you get the book for 5 cents less than nothing.

Subscriptions taken and Butterick Fashions on sale at Bank Brothers.

Hammonton, New Jersey

Pennsylvania Railroad

Bulletin:

Washington City—The Magnet of the People.

The eyes of eighty million American people are now on Washington, the Capital of the Nation.

The wheels of the National Government are now in full motion. Congress is in session and the busy whirl of the legislative mill is intensely interesting. Many hours may be spent in the Senate or House gallery, watching the legislators at work.

The other workshops of the Nation are also well worthy of a visit. The White House, the home and office of the President; the State, War, and Navy Building, with its museums and models; the Treasury Building, with its huge vaults; the Government Printing Office, the Patent Office, and the Congressional Library; the National Museum, the Smithsonian Institution, the great Monument, and the new Union Station are all attractive features of the Capital City.

The splendid city, with its numerous parks and statues, never loses its charms at any season.

The service of the Pennsylvania Railroad to Washington serves a wide territory. Its trains afford a direct means of reaching the National Capital, and tickets at reasonable rates are on sale at all ticket offices.

Attractive three-day Personally-conducted Tours to Washington, leave New York, Newark, Elizabeth, New Brunswick, Trenton and Philadelphia, on March 12, April 2 and 13, and May 7. The low rates, $12 and $14.50 from New York; $9 and $11.50 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other points, covering hotel accommodations, all necessary expenses for the three-day outing, bring these tours well within the means of everybody.

Detailed itineraries and full information may be obtained of Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agents.

ROYAL TAILORING

Is distinctive—exclusive—individual.

The Royal line of Spring Suitings and Overcoatings is now ready.

No handsomer display of reliable men's cloth has ever been placed before our trade.

During the forty-three years that "The Royal Tailors" have been making clothes for critical men they have maintained a leadership that was never more strikingly emphasized than in the superb assortment of spring goods now offered for your inspection.

THOMAS E. HARRIS,

The Men's Outfitter,

217 Bellevue Ave., Hammonton.

SEE WASHINGTON

The Heart of the Nation.

THREE-DAY TOURS

VIA

Pennsylvania Railroad

March 12,
April 2, 13, and May 7, 1908

Round-trip Rate from Hammonton, $9.75 or $12.25

According to hotel selected. Covers necessary expenses for three days. Tickets good returning for three days.

All the principal points of interest in the National Capital. Detailed itineraries and full information of Ticket Agents, or

J. R. WOOD,
Pass'r Traffic M'gr.

GEO. W. BOYD,
Gen. Pass'r Agt., Philadelphia, Pa.

THE WINDS.

When sluggishness my pulse, I plead
The rigorous North will rouse and blow.
Clearing the far horizon's blue,
Starting the true-phantom of the day,
And leading to the true-phantom of the day,
The bracing tone of the snow.

When I incline to dreams, and faint,
With half-sleeping lids, would fain and faint,
The boughs swing languorously above
The low, thrumming hum of the rain,
And ripples goldenly the rain,
The South for me, the South for me!

When, melancholy suits my mood,
I long to list, 'mid fading leaves,
The misty East discourse of pain
In its thin, minor, and the rain,
With ancient sorrowing inebriate,
Make plaintive patter round the eaves.

And when the pilgrim rest is strong
For bracken paths, mounting high
Along the hill slopes to the crest,
Then would I have the artist's hand
Fling me his buoyant welcome song,
Toss me his old ecstatic cry.

So with the veering wind that sweeps
The emerald I am one;
Feeling close kinship unto each,
Blow they or shrill, or low, or deep,
Across the face of God's white sun,
Youth's Companion.

THE POSTMARK.

WELL? Is it to be, lass?
Fred or Frank?
"I'm glad of it, lass," said old Adamson heartily. "Mind ye, I've nothing against Frank. I darsay he's all right; but of the two I'd sooner trust my daughter's happiness with—
you know."

And so it was settled, Fred Sanders had won the bonniest lass in Timberport.

The cousins were men of a different stamp. Each a different kind of man. Fred Sanders, of course, would have been better met by Fred.

Mr. John Saunders, of Brighborough, described himself as a "patent agent."
He would have been more correctly described as a thriving and successful John, for a purpose of his own, had kept in touch with his nephews in Tim-
berport.

He well knew they were rivals for the hand of Eva, and, within a few days of the event he knew that Fred had been accepted by the ex-cousin's daughter.

He wrote the lucky man a congratulatory letter, and he added something also in the shape of a postscript, which read as follows:

"I hear that Adamson has invented something sensational in the way of wreck raising appliances. I have made him an offer which he has refused.
Perhaps you are in the old line of confidence. If so, I will give £100 for a trip off the coast of the plans. You will, of course, burn this letter."

For the credit of the family, as he put it, Fred burnt the letter, but not before he had tossed it indignantly over the table to his cousin, who shared his lodgings.

Mr. John Saunders was somewhat disappointed. All the same his ears tingled as he read the unflattering epistle which reached him next morning from his nephew Fred.

"So! so!" he muttered. "I'm the unhappy uncle of a virtuous nephew, it seems. I suppose my letter, has he,
Fred, by any means picked up any letter and opening it, 'what have we
here?'"

This second letter was also from Timberport, and its contents seemed to plunge the unhappy uncle of a vir-tuous nephew much better than did the previous epistle.

"That's it!" he laughed softly, and there was a very supple light in his eyes. "Fred for virtue, Frank for brat! An ax of his own to grind, has he?"

Mr. John Saunders committed Fred's letter to the flames. The envelope he kept, plucking a drawer and carefully
placing it among his private papers.

One morning, about a week later,
Mr. Adamson, for a purpose of his own,
had an envelope bearing the Brighborough
postmark.

Tearing this open, he saw enclosed
another one addressed to

THE DIET-FACED BOY.

Mr. John Saunders, patent agent,
Mill street, Brighborough:
With this was the following explanatory note:

"Mr. Adamson: Dear Sir—Some little time ago I made you an offer for the invention on which you have wasted so much time. You refused to meet me. Since then an obliging friend has submitted to me a copy of your plan.
The scheme is utterly unworkable, my dear Adamson, and I return the plan to their rightful owner. Thus you lose little—and I gain less—by the treach-ery of a friend. Yours truly,

"JOHN SAUNDERS."
Mr. Adamson was a passionate man, and the blood rushed to his head as he stared at the address on the returned envelope. It was unmistakably the handwriting of Fred Saunders.

When Fred Saunders, boisterously lively and blithely unconcerned of the coming storm, entered the little workshop as usual after tea, the old man's pent-up fury found vent in a torrent of abuse.

"You!" he roared, rising to his feet,
and glaring at the astounded young fellow. "How dare you come here, you viper? You treacherous bound!"

"Mr. Adamson—"
"Go! Leave me!" commanded the furious old fellow. "Know first though, that your treachery has gained you nothing. You were in too big a hurry. The plans you stole and submitted to your rascally uncle were an old set and absolutely of no use to me."

"But I have stolen no plans," said
Fred. "I want none of your explanations,"
thundered old Adamson. "I've heard
enough. Now, go! D'ye hear me, go!"
—and in his blind fury the old
man picked up a heavy hammer from
the bench—"Go! or by heaven I'll brain
you!"

"You are unjust, dad," said Fred.
"Unjust," repeated old Adamson.
"Unjust," said Fred. "You are unjust, dad."
—and he brought down his huge fist
on the envelope on the table—that fatal envelope which threatened to destroy the happiness of two young lovers.

Dad picked up the insignificant looking scrap of paper and stared moodily
at it.

"Aye, look at it!" muttered his faithful son. "You call me unjust and look
at that!"

"Yes, dad! I can't suddenly
cry Eva, excitedly springing to her
feet. "You are unjust, and, oh, dad,
I can prove it! Fred Saunders didn't
steal your plans—"

"But the envelope?"
"The envelope proves it!" cried Eva triumphantly. "Look at it, dad! The postmark! The date! Don't you remember leaving this very set of plans
lying open on your desk? All this was on the Sunday morning, the 2d of July."

Now, don't you see? This envelope was sent away—the postmark proves it—
on the 2d. Early the next morning, the postmark again—it was in Brigh-
borough. At that moment the plans were lying on your desk! They couldn't have been in the Brighborough at the same time, could they, dad?"

Old Adamson sank back in his chair
and was silent for some minutes. When he did speak the words meant much to Eva.

"Fred!" he said hoarsely.
While Eva was absent her father
had been "considering" her, and by
the time he returned lovers entered
the room he had arrived at a pretty ac-
cure solution of the mystery.

"Eva, I am convinced that I have treated you unjustly, Fred," said Mr.
Adamson, extending a hand, which
was heartily shaken. "Now, one question: How did this envelope come into
your uncle's possession?"

"Oh!" laughed Fred. "When I sent
it off it contained something exceptionally warm. A fitting reply to a letter
in which my precious uncle offered me
£100 for a peep at your plans."

"And this letter of your uncle's? Did
you show it to anyone?"
"Only to Frank!"

"Only to Frank?" echoed old Adam-
son, bitterly. "And at the risk of making a fool of myself a second time, I'll
have a shot at guessing what Frank
did. He knew you were writing that something exceptionally warm, and he
knew that something would put
your uncle in a bad mood to fall in with
a plot of his own. He wrote accordingly
the offer himself, and subsequently
stole the plans. These, when duly copied, were placed in the envelope of
this letter—and returned."

"So! so!" he muttered. "I'm the
unhappy uncle of a virtuous nephew, it
seems. I suppose my letter, has he,
Fred, by any means picked up any
letter and opening it, 'what have we
here?'"

Mr. John Saunders committed Fred's
letter to the flames. The envelope he
kept, plucking a drawer and carefully
placing it among his private papers.

THE DIET-FACED BOY.

When Willie Green came in from play
at 4 o'clock one Saturday,
He had a dirty face.
His mother said: "Come here to tea;
I've washed you up for tea;
And fixed your hair in place."

Then Willie Green began to scowl,
And Willie Green began to growl.
"You always want to wash my face,
Or fix my hair back in its place—
What you'd let me alone."

And so his mother told him there,
That she would not arrange his hair.
Nor wash his face again.
Until he asked to have it done.
He thought the plan a happy one
And stopped complaining then.

Three days went by and Willie Green
A thorough scrubbing had not seen.
He thought it pleasant for a while
But soon he saw the people smile
And turn their heads to stare.

His father's friends said: every one
"You surely can't be Judge Green's son
He has returned from the city with
The rats have nested in your hair.
And yet you do not seem to care."

"You must be in disgrace,"
thundered old Adamson. "I've heard
enough. Now, go! D'ye hear me, go!"
—and in his blind fury the old
man picked up a heavy hammer from
the bench—"Go! or by heaven I'll brain
you!"

"You are unjust, dad," said Fred.
"Unjust," repeated old Adamson.
"Unjust," said Fred. "You are unjust, dad."
—and he brought down his huge fist
on the envelope on the table—that
fatal envelope which threatened to destroy the happiness of two young
lovers.

Dad picked up the insignificant looking scrap of paper and stared moodily
at it.

"Aye, look at it!" muttered his faithful son. "You call me unjust and look
at that!"

"Yes, dad! I can't suddenly
cry Eva, excitedly springing to her
feet. "You are unjust, and, oh, dad,
I can prove it! Fred Saunders didn't
steal your plans—"

"But the envelope?"
"The envelope proves it!" cried Eva
triumphantly. "Look at it, dad! The postmark! The date! Don't you remember leaving this very set of plans
lying open on your desk? All this was
on the Sunday morning, the 2d of July."

Now, don't you see? This envelope was
sent away—the postmark proves it—
on the 2d. Early the next morning, the
postmark again—it was in Brigh-
borough. At that moment the plans
were lying on your desk! They couldn't
have been in the Brighborough at the
same time, could they, dad?"

Old Adamson sank back in his chair
and was silent for some minutes. When
he did speak the words meant much to Eva.

"Fred!" he said hoarsely.
While Eva was absent her father
had been "considering" her, and by
the time he returned lovers entered
the room he had arrived at a pretty ac-
cure solution of the mystery.

"Eva, I am convinced that I have
treated you unjustly, Fred," said Mr.
Adamson, extending a hand, which
was heartily shaken. "Now, one question: How did this envelope come into
your uncle's possession?"

"Oh!" laughed Fred. "When I sent
it off it contained something exceptionally warm. A fitting reply to a letter
in which my precious uncle offered me
£100 for a peep at your plans."

"And this letter of your uncle's? Did
you show it to anyone?"
"Only to Frank!"

"Only to Frank?" echoed old Adam-
son, bitterly. "And at the risk of making a fool of myself a second time, I'll
have a shot at guessing what Frank
did. He knew you were writing that
something exceptionally warm, and he
knew that something would put
your uncle in a bad mood to fall in with
a plot of his own. He wrote accordingly
the offer himself, and subsequently
stole the plans. These, when duly copied, were placed in the envelope of
this letter—and returned."

"So! so!" he muttered. "I'm the
unhappy uncle of a virtuous nephew, it
seems. I suppose my letter, has he,
Fred, by any means picked up any
letter and opening it, 'what have we
here?'"

Mr. John Saunders committed Fred's
letter to the flames. The envelope he
kept, plucking a drawer and carefully
placing it among his private papers.

One morning, about a week later,
Mr. Adamson, for a purpose of his own,
had an envelope bearing the Brighborough
postmark.

THE DIET-FACED BOY.

When Willie Green came in from play
at 4 o'clock one Saturday,
He had a dirty face.
His mother said: "Come here to tea;
I've washed you up for tea;
And fixed your hair in place."

Then Willie Green began to scowl,
And Willie Green began to growl.
"You always want to wash my face,
Or fix my hair back in its place—
What you'd let me alone."

And so his mother told him there,
That she would not arrange his hair.
Nor wash his face again.
Until he asked to have it done.
He thought the plan a happy one
And stopped complaining then.

Three days went by and Willie Green
A thorough scrubbing had not seen.
He thought it pleasant for a while
But soon he saw the people smile
And turn their heads to stare.

His father's friends said: every one
"You surely can't be Judge Green's son
He has returned from the city with
The rats have nested in your hair.
And yet you do not seem to care."

"You must be in disgrace,"
thundered old Adamson. "I've heard
enough. Now, go! D'ye hear me, go!"
—and in his blind fury the old
man picked up a heavy hammer from
the bench—"Go! or by heaven I'll brain
you!"

"You are unjust, dad," said Fred.
"Unjust," repeated old Adamson.
"Unjust," said Fred. "You are unjust, dad."
—and he brought down his huge fist
on the envelope on the table—that
fatal envelope which threatened to destroy the happiness of two young
lovers.

Dad picked up the insignificant looking scrap of paper and stared moodily
at it.

"Aye, look at it!" muttered his faithful son. "You call me unjust and look
at that!"

"Yes, dad! I can't suddenly
cry Eva, excitedly springing to her
feet. "You are unjust, and, oh, dad,
I can prove it! Fred Saunders didn't
steal your plans—"

"But the envelope?"
"The envelope proves it!" cried Eva
triumphantly. "Look at it, dad! The postmark! The date! Don't you remember leaving this very set of plans
lying open on your desk? All this was
on the Sunday morning, the 2d of July."

Now, don't you see? This envelope was
sent away—the postmark proves it—
on the 2d. Early the next morning, the
postmark again—it was in Brigh-
borough. At that moment the plans
were lying on your desk! They couldn't
have been in the Brighborough at the
same time, could they, dad?"

Old Adamson sank back in his chair
and was silent for some minutes. When
he did speak the words meant much to Eva.

"Fred!" he said hoarsely.
While Eva was absent her father
had been "considering" her, and by
the time he returned lovers entered
the room he had arrived at a pretty ac-
cure solution of the mystery.

"Eva, I am convinced that I have
treated you unjustly, Fred," said Mr.
Adamson, extending a hand, which
was heartily shaken. "Now, one question: How did this envelope come into
your uncle's possession?"

"Oh!" laughed Fred. "When I sent
it off it contained something exceptionally warm. A fitting reply to a letter
in which my precious uncle offered me
£100 for a peep at your plans."

"And this letter of your uncle's? Did
you show it to anyone?"
"Only to Frank!"

"Only to Frank?" echoed old Adam-
son, bitterly. "And at the risk of making a fool of myself a second time, I'll
have a shot at guessing what Frank
did. He knew you were writing that
something exceptionally warm, and he
knew that something would put
your uncle in a bad mood to fall in with
a plot of his own. He wrote accordingly
the offer himself, and subsequently
stole the plans. These, when duly copied, were placed in the envelope of
this letter—and returned."

"So! so!" he muttered. "I'm the
unhappy uncle of a virtuous nephew, it
seems. I suppose my letter, has he,
Fred, by any means picked up any
letter and opening it, 'what have we
here?'"

Mr. John Saunders committed Fred's
letter to the flames. The envelope he
kept, plucking a drawer and carefully
placing it among his private papers.

One morning, about a week later,
Mr. Adamson, for a purpose of his own,
had an envelope bearing the Brighborough
postmark.

Tearing this open, he saw enclosed
another one addressed to

EGGS ARE A PERFECT FOOD.

Contains All Elements Necessary for Nourishment of Food.
Almost everybody eats eggs. There is perhaps no article of diet that is more commonly eaten in all countries than eggs. Hens' eggs are used more than any other kind, although some people eat duck, geese, and turkey eggs. The eggs of guinea fowl, turkeys eggs are not so often eaten; they are generally kept for hatching.

Eggs are said to be a perfect food,
the same as milk—that is, containing all the food elements necessary for the growth and maintenance of the young chick, just as milk does for the young animal. While it is true of course, says Medical Talk, that the egg does contain all the elements necessary for the young chick, yet it would not follow that these elements are in the right proportion for the sole nourishment of an adult person.
That eggs as a perfect food is not to be questioned, but that eggs alone would furnish sufficient diet for a grown person is hardly probable.

Eggs consist of proteine and fat, water and mineral matter. It is the proteine and fat that make up the bulk of the egg, while the fat supplies energy. The white of an egg is often said to be pure albumen, but it also contains phosphoric acid and sodium chloride or common salt. The yolk contains the fatty part of the egg, phosphorus, calcium, magnesium, potassium and iron. Eggs also contain sulphur, and this probably accounts
for the dark stain left by eggs on silver, the sulphur combining in contact with the silver forming silver sulphide.

Eggs are very easily digested. Raw eggs are more quickly digested than cooked eggs. Soft boiled eggs, roasted eggs and poached eggs are more easily digested than fried or hard-boiled eggs. The stomach will digest a raw egg in from one and a half to two hours. Soft boiled and roasted eggs require from two and a half to three hours, while hard boiled or fried eggs
may be allowed from three and a half to four hours for digestion.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this purpose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

Eggs furnish a good substitute for
meat, and may be used for this pur-
pose. They are better for the average
person than meat, as they are more
frequently used in place of
meat. Especially do they make a
light nutritious dish for breakfast.

THE PULPIT.

A SCHOLARLY SUNDAY SERMON BY DR. N. MOORE WATERS.
Subject: Joy in Work.

Brooklyn, N. Y., in his series of sermons on "The Choice of a Profession," the Rev. Dr. N. McGee Waters, pastor of the Tompkins Ave.
and Congregational Church, Sunday preached on "How a Young Man May Find Joy in His Work."

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's
work. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work.

The story of labor is a chequered
one. It is not the story of a man's
life, but of a man's work. It is not the
story of a man's life, but of a man's

A Royal Gift for your Wife, and Family,—one of the NEW Low-cost ordinary Life Insurance Policies of

THE PRUDENTIAL

Clear Terms,
Every Feature
Guaranteed,
Low Cost.

S. C. White Leghorns
Four fine Cookers for sale, hatched
from Lakewood eggs.
Also, fresh laid Eggs, for table use
and hatching.
Thos. Creamer, Fairview Ave.,
Hammonton, N. J.

HARRY M. WALLACE

PAINTER
Paper Hanger
and Decorator

Shop on Second St., near Bellevue
Hammonton

For Sixty-Two Years

Cumberland Mutual
Fire Insurance Co.
Has insured the property of its members,
paid all losses promptly, and saved
the assured from 25 to 50 per cent. of the cost in a stock company.
For particulars see

Wayland DePuy, Agt.,
Overland Second and Cherry Streets,
Hammonton, N. J.

Harness, Blankets, Robes, Whips,
Trunks, etc.
At L. W. COGLEY'S.

W. J. SLACK
Contractor and Bricklayer
Jobbing promptly attended to 217 Peach Street, Hammonton, N. J.

W. H. Bernshouse
Insurance Agent

Notary Public,
Commissioner of Deeds,
Office, Spear Building,
Hammonton.

MACCARONI—All Kinds

Domestic, 5 cents a pound

Imported, 8 cents a pound

30, 35, and 50 cents per quart.

Bold by the pint or quart.

M. RUBBA, Italian Grocer
108 Bellevue Avenue.

DR. J. A. WAAS,
Dentist

Cogley Building, Hammonton, N. J.

20 words (or less) 10c
in the Republican

The Republican.

Issued every Saturday morning.

Printed at the Republican Press.

ROBT. G. SON, Publishers.

ORVILLE E. ROY

WILLIAM O. ROY

SATURDAY, FEB. 22, 1908

These Water Accounts.

We expected to publish the Water

Commissioner's Reports this week, and have it all in type, but there has been a private audit of portions of the accounts, and more or less expert examination of the reports themselves, showing to many inaccuracies that Council is not willing to accept of the figures written and present them to the public.

I think to the writer, as though the only practical thing to do is,—take the balances as they apparently stand, collect what is unpaid, begin an accurate

keeping of accounts, for which elaborate books were long ago provided, and hold the proper officials strictly responsible,

insisting upon regular reports.

With numberless vouchers missing,

early accounts not kept, bills uncollected, and a mix-up generally, there would seem to be no way for even the most expert accountant to give us the desired

balance-sheet.

Of course, this is not the right way to do business, but what else can be done?

We have not heard any one accused of graft, or profiting by the water expenditure. It seems to be a case of neglect,— no one feeling personally responsible and consequent neglect.

New Fire House.

Hammonton needs a fire-proof firehouse, and the time may come when the feels it badly. Our present down town building, owned by the members, is a frame structure, altogether too small for the apparatus, and when an improved ladder-truck is installed, and other improvements made, it will be literally jammed full.

There are several propositions, and this is one of them:

Sell the old building and move it off.

Erect a brick structure, with stone

front, four feet wider on the south and three feet wider for better still, secure ten feet from Mr. H. D. Moore) on the north. Finish a large hall in second story, for entertainments, etc. On the rear, build a stable, in which will be kept a pair of good horses belonging to one of our business men for use at night

drives, rent free, and the town to ren-derate the owner for each fire attended.

A passage way to be left clear through the building for the horses to quickly

be hitched up to the apparatus. This scheme is successfully worked in other parts of Jersey.

This is a proposition, and not an alternative; something must be done.

Another has enlarged on this plan:

Erect a combination fire-house and Y.

M. C. A. building, covering both lots to the corner, containing fire apparatus on one side, and store on the other; and on the second floor a hall, such as H.

K. Spear advocated at the Board of Trade meeting.

What do you think of it?

Blue's Little Liver Pills wake up lazy livers

clean the system and clear the skin. Try them for Biliousness and sick headache.

Ask your druggist—CITY BUSINESS.

RAG CARPET WEAVING

Mrs. TAMAR ANDERSON

Rosedale, N. J.

Leave rags at my home, or send me

a card, and I'll call.

CONCRETE

Building Blocks!

To be seen at the yards

CHARLES E. SMALL'S,

Walnut Street

Samples at J. B. SMALL'S

Off. Second St. and Bellevue Ave.

SOLD IN ANY QUANTITY

Hammonton Concrete Co.

Republican Phones.

532, 578, 1073.

EASY SHOES

EASY PRICES!

$3.50

Obey

Shoes are usually cheap.

You pay

in patience

what you save

in costs.

Not so with A. B. BOTT'S

The A. B. BOTT shoe is easy,—easy on the feet, easy on the parrot, wears well, looks well. You can't do better at the price anywhere. One look will convince you. Will you look? A long line to choose from.

MONFORT'S SHOE STORE

C. I. Littlefield

COAL

AND

ICE

Let us supply you with the best grade of coal. If it does not satisfy you, tell us. If it does,

tell your neighbors.

Local Phone 104

Eyes Examined.

ROBERT STEEL
Optician
215 Bellevue Ave.

Store closed at 6.15
every evening except Saturday

Shoes of Quality at Right Prices!

Invest your money in the kind of shoes we sell, and you will get the best return on your investment.

Men's shoes, $1.45, $1.95, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4—oil leather.
Educator shoes for men, women and children, in box calf,
and patent calf.

Women's shoes at $1.20, $1.50, $1.95, $2.50, $3 and $4, in button and lace, patent calf, vici and gun metal.
Children's shoes at 65 c, 75 c, 95 c, $1.20 and $1.50, button and lace, vici, box calf and gun metal.

Men's high-cut shoes in russet and black, $3, $3.50, $3.75.
Boys' high-cut shoes at $2 and $2.50.

Ladies' leather boots at $1.95 and $2.50.
Men's slippers, 48 c, 75 c, 95 c, $1.20, $1.50, black and russet.

Ladies' warm lined slippers at 95 c.
Rubber boots and rubber shoes for everybody.

BANK BROTHERS, Hammonton.

An Act For You To Act

Men who move the world act, not dream or brood over going to do this or that or the other, later. You will gain more than words can tell. If you will do this act at once that will make decayed teeth strong to decay.
One evidence that my Dental operations will please you—my patients say they don't believe that any one could use more skill or do better work than I do.
Let me look at your teeth at once.
Dr. FILER, O'Donnell Bldg., Hammonton

Cook with Gas.

Mrs. S. L. Rorer, the noted cooking authority, in the "Ladies' Home Journal" for January, says
She fully believes in the economy of Gas Stoves.
Kitchen cleaning is reduced one-half.
One can get simmering heat or intense heat in a moment.
They not only save the cost of fuel, but also save hours of hard labor.

HAMMONTON GAS CO.

YOU CAN GET IT THERE—

RED CROSS PHARMACY.

Chest Protectors, all sizes, for all ages, 25 cents up
Also, Chemicals (Hed Vests, at low prices
A fine selection in Rubber Goods. Fountain Syringes, 75 c up Fountain Syringes and Hot Water Bottles combined, $1.50
Bull Syringes, 50 cts. Infant Syringes, 25 cts. up Now lot of Hot Water Bottles, plain and cloth covered, holding from half-pint to two quarts; good ones at 75 cents,
in white, slate, red and maroon colors.

UNDERTAKER

EMBALMER

ELWOOD P. JONES

Office and Residence, 216 Bellevue Ave.
Local Phone No. 842; Bell, 40-A

Wax Flowers, Figures, etc., for funerals and memorial services, furnished on short notice.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22, 1908

Mr. Imhof is confined to his house by illness.

G. A. R. Post meeting next Saturday, 29th inst., at 2.30.

BUTTERICK Patterns for March, 10 and 15 cents, at Bank Bros. store.

Otto O. Daminger has bought the Davidson place, at DaCosta.

The annual school report will be in the printer's hands next week.

WANTED—An iron farm kettle, holding 20

gallons or more. C. A. Wood.

Philadelphia had an election

Tuesday and the next day it snowed.

The Tell building, lately occupied by R. L. Patten, has changed color.

KLING'S shoe up Piano Polish—best polish yet put on the market. Piano shoes, on sale at Little's Hardware.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walther and child of Philadelphia, made their local relatives a visit, this week.

Bank Brothers say that "bul-ding" is going backwards, "but they are making the building with them.

ZAMBONES. New gingham.

D. W. Cowles, of Bradford

county, Pa., made his friends, W. H.

and E. H. Farrar, a flying visit last Friday.

Mrs. Lucy Chambers has returned from a week's visit with Philadelphia friends.

PEEL shoes—$2, $2.50, $3, and $3.50. Just the thing for this winter. Memory.

Mrs. L. Frank Horne is to open an eating house in the second story of the Tell building—according to rumor.

Mr. L. E. Williams, of Nottingham, N. H., is spending a few days

at his father-in-law's, Mr. Wm. F.

Bassett.

A Broadcast. Sewing Machine for sale,

cheap. C. K. Holman & Son, Middle Road.

Washington's Birthday to-day.

Bank closed; post-offices open only from 7 to 10 a. m., 5.30 to 6.30 p. m. Electi-

ing office open all day as usual.

Thos. E. Westcott, commission

merchant of Philadelphia, visited his parents, Daniel Westcott and wife,

early this week, and made this office a call.

ACTRESS, at 51, 51.50, 52, 52.50, and 53

From the advances made in the Mayor's letter from the South, last week, one of our readers says he expects

some very interesting stories when his Honor returns.

Mrs. Harry McD. Little is to open a five and ten cent cash store on the corner of Bellevue and Central Avenue. The room is being enlarged and improved for that purpose.

WANTED, a half-grown girl to assist at general housework. Apply to Mrs. Crowley Loveland.

A couple of inches of snow fell on Wednesday morning, but the temperature was too high, it changed to rain, and poured all day, dissolving the snow and adding to the discomfort of travel.

These alternate snow and rain storms are trying to roofs. There seem to be few buildings that prove entirely water-proof. You can see pane, pale,

and bottles strown about in most any home, to catch the drops.

CLASS Fin Lot, "100" blue and gold, on Monday evening. If not it returned to the office.

The Band will give a hop in Bellevue Hall, on Saturday night, Feb.

20th, from 8.30 to 11.30. Music by the "Band"—square and round dances.

Admission, ladies, 10 cents; gentlemen,

25 cts.

Mrs. Wm. F. Bassett received word, Wednesday morning, of the death of her brother, Jas. Deems Leavitt, at Williamsburg, Mass. Mr. L. will not be remembered by some of the older residents.

Oliver, the four-year-old son of

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. White, died yesterday morning, Feb. 21st, following an attack of a gripe. Funeral will probably be held on Monday. Universal sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

ZAMBONES. Children for waists or suits

in light blue, cream, and pearl. Only

Two Golden Wedding anniversaries next week, in Hammonton. Mr.

and Mrs. Joshua B. Dudley, Middle road, to-morrow, Feb. 23, and Mr. and

CENTRAL CASH STORE!

We are now doing business, and invite you to call and inspect our stock of:

Groceries, Macaroni, Pure Olive Oil, Imported Cheese, Fresh and Salt Meats.

We sell for Cash only, and on the lowest possible margin, therefore we feel sure our prices are right and our quality will suit. Hoping to serve you, we are:

BAKER BROS., 208 Bellevue Ave., Hammononton.

John Prash, Jr., Furnishing Undertaker and Embalmer

Twelfth St., between railroads.
Phone 3-5

Hammononton, N. J.

All arrangements for burials made and carefully executed.

Notice to Creditors.

Estate of Susanna Carhart, deceased.

Pursuant to the order of Emanuel O. Shaner, Surrogate of the County of Atlantic, this day made on the application of the undersigned, administratrix of the said decedent, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said decedent to exhibit to the subscriber, under oath or affirmation, their claims and demands against the estate of the decedent, within nine months from this date, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

LAVINIA CARHART AND May's Landing, N. J., CARRIE L. GEE,
January 4th, 1908. Administratrixes.

Baked beans and Brown bread!

Leave orders not later than Friday.

Bread, Cakes, Pies, and Breakfast Rolls

SMALL'S BAKERY

DO YOU NOT KNOW?

If you do not, you can find out by a very little investigation that

The Hammononton Paint

Is the very best paint that was ever used in Hammononton.

There are scores of buildings that you see every day, painted with the Hammononton Paint eight to twelve years ago, and looking well at the present time.

The Hammononton Paint is sold for less than any other first-class paint. It has no equal, as it works well, covers well, and wears well. Sold by

JOS. I. TAYLOR
House, Sign and Carriage Painter,
Second and Pleasant Sts., Hammononton, N. J.

The Peoples Bank for Hammononton, N. J.

Capital, $50,000
Surplus and Undivided Profits, . $28,000

Three per cent interest paid
on time Deposits.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

R. J. BYRNES, President.
M. L. JACKSON, Vice-Pres't.
W. R. TILTON, Cashier.

DIRECTORS

R. J. Byrnes M. L. Jackson
O. F. Osgood George Elvine
Wm. Stockwell Wm. L. Black
Wm. J. Smith J. O. Anderson
Sam'l Anderson W. R. Tilton

Young People's Societies.

Y. P. S. C. E.,—Presbyterian Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 8:30.
Topic, "The foreign-mission work of our denomination: a survey."
Rom. 10: 8-15. Led by Missionary Committee.

Y. P. S. C. E.,—Baptist Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 8:30.
Topic, "The foreign-mission work of our denomination: a survey."
Rom. 10: 8-15. Led by Missionary Committee.

Jr. C. E. at 8 o'clock.

Epworth League,—M. E. Church:
Meets Sunday evening, at 8:45.
Topic, "The power-house of faith."
Mark 11: 20-25; Rom. 4: 1-9.

A Few Winslow Items.

Misses Edna and Ada Corlis are visitors at the M. E. Parsonage.

Winslow is now looking more like itself once more, as many houses that have been empty are now being filled.

It is expected that the new stand-pipe will be erected soon. Workmen are expected daily.

The new sawmill is running full tilt, which enlivens things very much.

Miss Clara Priestley, for some time a teacher in the primary school here, has resigned, which is regretted by many friends here.

Revival meetings that have been running for two weeks, closed on Tuesday evening.

Winslow Young Republican Club is the latest organization here,—boys 14 to 17 years.

Pastor Amer and wife were tendered a donation party on Wednesday even'g. They had a very pleasant time, and all departed happy.

"I trust this may be read by many sufferers from kidney and bladder trouble," writes Mrs. Joe King of Woodland, Tex. "I suffered four years and could find nothing to give even temporary relief. Our druggist at last induced me to try your 30 days' treatment of Pinettes for $1. This one bottle has cured me and money could not buy the value it has been to me. Guaranteed. Sold by the City Pharmacy."

List of uncalled-for letters in the Hammononton Post Office on Wednesday, Feb. 19, 1908:

Miss Laura Mulby John W. Turner
T. J. Stanton Richard Swape
Miss Irene Schick Santa Ginny

FOREIGN

Andriez Schoeder
John Stenger } Due 10 cents
Cora Jickosa } each
Stef. Sedak
Steingo Yados

Several Bell telephone subscribers have done some hard kicking because that company has sent bills for a full month's service, when, since the storm, they had, but one or two weeks' use of their phones. But we hear of one case where the proper reduction was made when attention was called to the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McD Little celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage last Sunday, Feb 16, at their pretty home on Third Street, Hammononton. Among the relatives present were, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lake and son, Chaire, and Mrs. Mabel Choate, of Norristown; Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Brown and daughter Ruth, of Philadelphia. We second the wishes of their friends for "many happy returns."

Hotel Hammononton

Opposite Penna. Depot

LEADING COMMERCIAL HOTEL.

ALL MODERN CONVENIENCES.

ANTON PIEZ, Proprietor,
Hammononton, N. J.

70th ANNIVERSARY NUMBER DREER'S GARDEN BOOK

Is invaluable to every amateur and professional grower of vegetables or flowers. Conceded to be the most complete, helpful and instructive catalogue issued. 248 pages, 4 color plates, 4 dozens plates and hundreds of photographic illustrations. When you are in the city call for a copy—or write—we will mail it free.

Henry A. Dreer, 216 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

BEES LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

CONTAINS HONEY AND TAR. CONFORMS TO NATIONAL PURE FOOD AND DRUGS LAW.

An Improvement over many Cough, Lung and Bronchial Remedies, because it rids the system of a cold by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. No opiates. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Prepared by PINEULE MEDICINE CO., CHICAGO, U. S. A.

Lakeview GREEN- HOUSE

Central Ave., Hammononton, N. J.

Large assortment of Palms, Ferns, House Plants,
Cut Flowers. Funeral Designs
in Fresh Flowers, Wax, or Metal.

WATKIS & NICHOLSON,
Florists and Landscape Gardeners.
Phone 1-W

WALTER J. VERNIER

Plumber .
Gas, Steam, and Hot Water Contractor.

Central Ave. above Park Ave.
HAMMONONTON, N. J.

HAMMONONTON TRUST COMPANY

[ORGANIZING]
Capital, $100,000.

Subscribed Surplus, $10,000.
Subscription Price per Share, $110.

Organization Committee:

A. J. Rider, Chairman	James Macaulay
Benj. W. Richards	John A. Hoyle
Wm. H. Bernshouse	Dr. F. C. Burt
H. Kirk Spear	Dr. G. M. Crowell
Jos. R. Imhoff, Treasurer	J. L. O'Donnell
Thomas Skinner	Dr. J. C. Bitler
F. B. Price, Jr., Sec'y	Dr. Chas. Cunningham
Donald M. Chapman	Henry Measley

Nat. R. Black.

Harley - Davidson

MOTORCYCLES

$210.00

E. A. CORDERY

Subscription books open. For blanks or other information, address Committee, or

SETH H. RICE, Correspondent
Box 127, Hammononton, N. J.

THESE LOTS ARE FOR SALE!

50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26

HARTWELL STREET

ELEVENTH STREET

$50 each,—$10 down, balance on time if required.
Inquire of I. E. HARTWELL, Wilkesbarre, Pa.

A Lasting Effect.

This Evidence should Prove Every Claim made for Doan's Kidney Pills in New Jersey.

Relief from the pains and aches of a bad back is always welcome to every backache sufferer; but to cure a lame, weak, or aching back is what's wanted. Cure it so it will stay cured. It can be done. Here's the strongest evidence to prove it:

William Purney, janitor of the Bethany M. E. Church, living at 70 Bayard St., Trenton, N. J., says: "I still think as favorably of Doan's Kidney Pills as I did in 1897, when I allowed a testimonial to be published relating to my experience. Before I used this remedy I suffered for a year or so with my kidneys, and there was an almost steady pain in the small of my back and through the muscles of the hips. Sometimes the pain extended around to the lower part of the abdomen and very often it was simply torture to reach out, to stoop, or to lift anything. Doan's Kidney Pills being recommended to me, I got a box and, as I stated at that time, they justified all the recommendations I had heard. The benefit has been lasting, and for this reason I am glad to recommend them again."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

It will be unnecessary for you to go through a painful, expensive operation for piles if you use Manzan. Put up in collapsible tube with nozzle, ready to apply to the soreness and inflammation. Potent form of pills, prices 50c. guaranteed. Sold by City Pharmacy.

JOS. R. IMHOFF

LUMBER Mill Work WOOD COAL

If you want coal that will not clinker, but will give you a soft white ash, with lots of heat, we can supply you.

— GET —

THE BEST ROOF

and that is Cortright's Metal Shingles.

For which we are Sole Agent for Hammononton.

They are Best and Cheapest

Wm. BAKER, Agent
25 N. Third St., Hammononton.

A. H. Phillips Co.

Fire Insurance.

— MONEY —

Mortgage Loans.

Correspondence Solicited,
Bartlett Building,
Atlantic City, N. J.

Lyford Beverage

Notary Public

for New Jersey,
tenders his services.
Pension vouchers executed.
Hammononton, N. J.

Special Master's Sale.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

Between WILLIAM H. BREARLEY, Trustee, Complainant, and the NEW AUDITORIUM PIER COMPANY and the ATLANTIC AMUSEMENT COMPANY, Defendants.

Pl. fa. For sale of mortgaged premises. Returnable February term 1908.

Charles D. Thompson, Solicitor.

By virtue of the above stated writ to me directed and delivered, I shall sell at public vendue at Kuchner's Hotel, at South Carolina and Atlantic Avenues, Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, the thirteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all the following described lands and premises with the appurtenances, being the same premises described in said writ, that is to say:

All and singular, the corporate property, real, personal and mixed, assets, accounts, leasehold interests, patents, franchises, rights and privileges to the New Auditorium Pier Company now belonging or that may by it be hereafter acquired, including two certain leasehold interests in certain premises at Atlantic City, New Jersey, held by certain leases or agreements, as follows:

(1) Lease made by Mary A. Riddle Co. and Joseph A. Brady to Thomas U. Barker, dated January 2nd, 1900;

(2) Lease made by Mary A. Riddle Co. and Joseph A. Brady to "Auditorium Pier Company," a corporation of the State of New Jersey, dated January 2nd, 1900;

Which said leases have been duly assigned to the New Auditorium Pier Company, together with the pier and buildings thereon erected, and also the personal property now on the pier and new auditorium of the New Auditorium Pier Company, including chairs, benches, scenery, etc., as said pier now exists.

Together with the appurtenances, and all the estate, right, title and interest of the New Auditorium Pier Company of, in and to the same, and every part and parcel thereof; and also, all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto in anywise appertaining, and the reversion or reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof; and also all the plant, machinery, fixtures, merchandise and stock in trade and supplies and effects, and all other assets of every kind and description of the Company at Atlantic City, New Jersey, or elsewhere, including whatever the same may be situated; all choses in action, assets and property and effects belonging to or in anywise appertaining to the company whatsoever the same may be situated. And also, all the property and property rights of every kind and description, real, personal or mixed, now owned or which may be hereafter acquired by the company, its successors and assigns, during the life of the mortgage described in the complainant's bill.

The particular description of real and personal property herein contained shall not be construed to exclude any other property of any other kind, name, or nature, which now appertains to or which may hereafter be acquired by the company, or which the said company, is now or may hereafter be or has become hereafter entitled to.

Together with all and singular, the rights, privileges, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion, remainder, rents, issues and profits thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, use, property claim, and demand of the said defendants, of, in, to and out of the same. PURCHASE F. OOK.

Special Master in Chancery of New Jersey.
1 Kuchner's Place, Jersey City, N. J.
Dated February 6, 1908.