MINISTERING UNTO OTHERS, Or, Evangelistic Work of the W. C. T. U.

"The Lord giveth food to the hungry." I once heard a stirring exposition of this verse from a famous crusader, who said, "We women were so hungry for this temperance work, that God gave it to us in his own good time." But the larger scope of the past age includes every form of service that we can render to those who are hungry in body or soul.

The Saxon word "Lady" means "Giver of bread." We must be much more. "Giver of the bread of life" should be a definition including the loaf in one hand and total abstinence pledge in the other.

"The Lord looseth the prisoners."
The great work for the reformation of drinking men and women comes in here. No society ever did more for the reformation of the drunkard than W. C. T. U. We have tried all means, we must ignore none; but let us exalt
"the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth," remembering Him who said: "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me."

The above is from the writings of that dear saint, Frances E. Willard, who spent her life in ministering to others, drawing many into the fold of Christ by her pure life and Christlike love to all. She spent her life to save the fallen, — an evangelist indeed!
There have been few like her in this world.

This is the work of the W. C. T. U., to save the fallen, to lead all into the bright light of the Gospel of Christ, away from all that defiles, to elevate men and women into a pure white life, to minister unto the needy, visit the sick and care for God's little ones.
Such is the work of our Union. May we do our best.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern which is not afraid to be generous. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of helpless cases.
Asthma, bronchitis, laryngitis and all throat, chest and lung diseases are successfully cured by it. Call at Crowell's Pharmacy, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

An Absent-Minded Man.

I will tell you while I can
Of an absent-minded man,
And an absent-minded man was he,
Who forgot an unkind word
Just as soon as it was heard,
Such an absent-minded man was he.

In political debate,
Now, I can most truly state,
Such an absent-minded man was he,
His opponent on the street
With a handshake he would greet,
Such an absent-minded man was he.

Once he left a goodly store
At a poor old widow's door,
Such an absent-minded man was he;
And, although 'twas all the same,
Quite forgot to leave his name,
Such an absent-minded man was he.

You see—
Such an absent-minded man was he:
—St. Nicholas.

"A young man of capacity, industry and integrity has a field for individual effort such as has never before existed in this country," writes Edward Bok of "The Times and the Young Man," in March Ladies' Home Journal. "And success is neither harder nor easier than it ever was. Success never yet came to the laggard, and it never will. Let a young man be capable: have enterprise, be willing to work, and carry himself like a man, and he goes where he will. His success depends on himself. The real trouble is that the average young man won't work. He has gotten the insane notion into his head that success comes by luck . . .
and he waits for luck or a chance to find him, instead of taking a sane view of conditions and seeing with a clear mind that as trade widens opportunities increase."

"In the purchase of meats," says a man who has studied the subject, and who does most of the family marketing,
"the bargain-counter plan should never be adopted. Buying meat is like buying gold, — you pay exactly for what you get. If one dealer's price is materially lower than that of others, one can be assured that the meat of the former is inferior, although this criticism will apply to pork only to a limited extent.
There are several grades of beef, — native, Texan, Colorado, and more.
Native steer beef is the highest grade,
the word 'native' indicating a grade purely, and not meaning that the animal is necessarily a native of any particular state. Any one familiar with the different grades of beef, or who will experiment with them, will soon learn that the only safe way is to buy the best beef from a dealer whose reputation matches it. To do otherwise is not only dangerous to health, but practices the very poorest kind of economy." — Phila. Inquirer.

The pension roll of the nation ought to be an Honor Roll. Every veteran whose name is honestly on the roll should be jealous to preserve it from abuse by pension sharks.

One class of claimants for pensions is particularly execrable to veterans, and that is those who were deserters during the war, and are now trying to procure pensions. Numerous applications to Congress by branded deserters are acted on by the pension committee in special bills, and not a few applications slip through.

The impudence of deserter applicants for rehabilitation and pension is illustrated in one case now before Congress.
Private John B., of Co. D, Third Maryland Infantry, deserted. He was arrested in Washington, suffering from a loathsome disease. Imprisoned as a deserter and blackmailer, he was later released, only to turn up again as a skulking coward, who mutilated himself to keep out of battle. Sentenced to be shot, he had the great good fortune to have his sentence mitigated to a dishonorable discharge and imprisonment for three years.

Nearly thirty-six years have elapsed since the war ended, and it is all that time a man unjustly condemned for desertion did not seek vindication, it was because he knew that he was really a deserter. If skulkers and runaways, and bounty-jumpers are to be rewarded with pensions, it might be better to abolish the law against desertion, and thus remove the disability altogether, instead of sneaking unjust pension bills through Congress.

SATURDAY, FEB. 23, 1901

Appropriations.

As we intimated last week, the appropriations for this year can be made considerably less than those for 1900, if the voters so desire. It is at the caucus that these matters are virtually decided,—the amounts there nominated are usually carried at the polls. Let us look over the list:

Last year we appropriated $2500 for highways, of which there remains $283 unexpended. As we must buy a gravel pit, we cannot reduce that; but there are $1650 of liquor money on hand, which can be ordered into the highway fund, making but $1500 necessary.

We cannot reduce the poor fund—may have to make it $400, as there is but $246.75 on hand—and we spent $582.48 this year.

For Town Purposes we paid out $1494.52, and have $218.84 on hand. We can vote $1300, and save $300 there.

Our town map is completed and paid for,—we will not be asked to appropriate $1835 for it.

Then there seems to be a strong sentiment in favor of dropping that item of $300 for Town Marshal,—believing that we can struggle along for a year without a paid police department.

You can add these various savings together, and see whether it is worth while to consider them. If so, attend the caucus and vote your convictions.

The Liquor Curse.

We have never made a secret of our conviction that intoxicating liquors are a curse to the world, to the country, to the state, to the town; that he who drinks these liquors loses manhood and all that makes life worth living; that he who sells rum has sold his soul to the evil one for the dollars gained in the business. There is no excuse for a liquor-seller that will not apply as well to a horse-thief. Both ply their respective occupations for gain, and neither confers one iota of benefit upon his neighbor or the community: the world would be better off without either.

In some States (Kansas is one) the liquor dealer is an outlaw,—the statutes forbid him to transact the business. That the law is not enforced does not make him any less a law-breaker. What, then, of his property, used in the transaction of this illegal business? Is it legally "property"? A counterfeiter's outfit is confiscated by the officers, and never restored to the owner. It is not "property" in the sense that the owner's right to it is protected by law. Why? Because by its use he is conducting an unlawful business. Is there any difference?

What, then, shall be done with Mrs. Carrie Nation, whose vigorous work in the destruction of bar-room stock and fixtures has created so much excitement all over the country? Can she be punished? Just now she is in jail, not for destroying property, but charged with causing a riotous disturbance, and she may be placed under legal restraint on that charge; but her actions have aroused public sympathy, and the liquor law of Kansas seems more likely to be enforced because of her courageous deeds.

We can hardly approve of Mrs. Nation's methods; but the conditions were peculiar, the people here becoming desperate. We sympathize with any movement to lessen the universal curse of intoxication. Had we power to prevent it, not one of the staff would be made after this date; and all the world would be the better for our action.

The annual finance report has been printed, and is now in the hands of the binders. They will be ready for distribution early next week.

Miss Ogden, a returned missionary from China, will speak in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening, Mar. 3rd. She will be dressed in the native costume.

Bellevue Avenue will need considerable attention as soon as weather will permit. Very little has been done to it for several years, particularly the southwest half of it.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 26th, at the home of Mrs. Roberts. Topic, "Scientific Temperance Instruction."

LAUNDRIES.—at C. M. Crowell's,—the "Dr. Rorie Air Condition Pad. Purely, a sure color preserver. Ask for it at the street."

The Annual Meeting of the Oak Grove Cemetery Association will be held in Oak Dale School house on Monday evening next, Feb. 25, 1901.

GEO. W. ELVINE, Sec'y.

Some of our stone cross-walks have settled badly, and are of little use to a muddy time. The one at County Road and Vine Street is partly out of place, and may cause some injury.

FOR SALE.—Lot on Third Street, 22 x 120 feet, with a small house, for sale by the heirs of J. A. Robinson, or J. B. Small, Hammonton.

Exercises appropriate to Washington's birthday were held in several rooms of the Central school-house, yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. N. Osborn addressed the pupils in the Assembly Room.

Council will probably decide, this evening, on the date and place for the town meeting. Not being a political move, there are no committees to take the initiative in the matter, hence it is usually regulated by Town Council.

PROPERTY for sale or rent. Ten roomed house, lot 75 x 200 feet. Particulars at this office.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist congregations will unite to-morrow evening, in the M. E. Church. The W. C. T. U. will have charge of the meeting, at which there will be several addresses, and music by the united choir.

The Boards of Registration will meet on Tuesday, March 6th, holding one session, from one to nine o'clock p.m., to revise and correct the registration lists. In the first precinct they meet in the Council Room; second precinct, in W. C. T. U. Hall.

LADIES. Clean your "old" gloves with LA. Little Olive Cleaner, for sale only by W. R. HICKLY, barbers' store, for 10 cents. It is a perfect and undressed. All the new shades.

We haven't published those gas and water ordinances yet. The Town Clerk, in obedience to instructions, is waiting for the companies to deposit cash enough to pay the printer. There is a growing belief that the promoter is only a speculator, and is endeavoring to sell the franchise.

Volunteer Fire Company had a special drill, Thursday evening, to demonstrate to members of Council the need of new hose. Several lengths of the old hose's rotten from age and use, leak badly, and are in danger of bursting sometime when in actual use. They will ask the town to buy seven hundred feet of new hose.

To accommodate those desiring to visit Washington on the occasion of the inauguration of the President-elect, Wm. McKinley, the Philad. and Reading R. R. has arranged to sell excursion tickets from all ticket stations at the rate of single fare for the round trip. These tickets will be sold, going March 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, and good to return until March 8th, 1901, inclusive, on all trains in each direction except the "Royal Limited." For time of trains, rates of fare, and other information, consult ticket agents, or address Edison J. Weeks, Gen. Pass'g. Agt., Phila.

It is much harder to get a dollar into one's pocket than to take it out.

The Lyceum.

The regular meeting of the Lyceum will be held next Monday evening, Feb. 26th, and the following programme has been arranged:

Invocation.—Missy Milton Waas

Solo.—Mr. R. J. Drake

Recitation.—Miss Garton

Singing.—Miss Garton

The subject for debate will be:

Resolved, That the newspapers should publish accounts of crime.

The disputants on the affirmative are Mr. Colwell and Mrs. Bassett; on the negative, Mr. Adams and Mrs. Alcorn.

Councilmen whose term of office expires, and whose successors are to be elected on Wednesday, March 13th: Messrs. E. W. Batchelor, Wayland De-Par, and George G. Harley, the last named having been chosen to succeed the late Alex. H. Sutton. Edward Colburn's three year term as assessor also expires.

The ladies' missionary society of the Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. F. A. Lohman, on Wednesday evening. Business completed, the company were invited to the dining room for refreshments. The entertainment concluded with a "Dutch wedding," one of the older ladies taking the part of minister.

Prof. Smith, of the State Board of Agriculture, was in Hammonton this week, by request of the Town Council. Last year, some parties to whom the Council sent notices to remove basket and tent worms which were infesting their premises, entirely ignored the matter. Mr. L. Monfort has now been appointed agent of the State Board, and will see that the law is enforced.

A musical will be given in the M. E. Church, on Friday evening, March 1st, under the direction of the young ladies in Mrs. Eliza Mortimer's Sunday School class. An excellent program is being prepared, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc. Admission free. A silver offering will be taken for the support of destitute orphan children in India. All are invited.

On Tuesday evening, the Baptist choir and a few of their friends gave their chorister and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hoyt, a house warming. It being a complete surprise to them. The host and hostess thoroughly enjoyed the occasion, and the company evidently did too, playing crokinols, carroms, etc. After refreshments were served, a handsome ingrain art-square was presented by Pastor Loomis in the name of the choir.

The handsome cottage owned by Capt. S. S. Hudson, at May's Landing, and occupied by real estate agent D. B. Frazier and family, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night, with part of its contents. Hope Fire Company, assisted by citizens in forming a bucket brigade, succeeded in confining the flames to the one building. Mr. Frazier and family saved all their belongings with the exception of their summer clothing and some things stored away in the attic. A defective fuse is supposed to have caused the fire.

Spread Like Wildfire.
When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by Crowell, Druggist."

EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH

Better than a Piano, Organ, or Music Box, for it sings and talks as well as plays, and don't cost as much. It reproduces the music of any instrument—band or orchestra—tells stories and sings—the old familiar hymns as well as the popular songs—it is always ready. See that Mr. Edison's signature is on every machine. Catalogues of all dealers, or NATIONAL PHONOGRAPH CO., 135 Fifth Ave., New York.

DR. E. H. JONES,

Originator of the celebrated Home-treatment for the cure of all Chronic, Nervous and Wasting Diseases.

I challenge all forms of disease, acute or chronic.

I treat on scientific principles, with selected medicines.

A LASTING CURE.

The above statement is open and frank, without fear of contradiction.

I treat all forms of chronic diseases successfully that have baffled skilled professors. No so-called "cure-alls," but remedies prepared for each individual case. A full statement of your case sent me by mail will receive prompt and careful consideration and advice sent gratis on receipt of stamp. Office advice FREE.

Hundreds of testimonials bear evidence of the good results obtained from our method of treating all forms of chronic diseases.

All correspondence is strictly private and confidential. No matter the disease or how long standing, consult Philadelphia's Eminent Specialist.
