License in Hammonton.

The people of Hammonton should not forget that the men who are advocating license have something to gain by it, and are making it appear that the town will be benefitted. They are the town in that case, and any dollars and cents flowing around here will get into their pockets.

It is said that certain parties have bought property in order that such property could be used for rum selling. To speculate on this property they fear that "Hammonton" may not get any of the anticipated rum receipts. They are Hammonton.

In order that this programme may be carried out, it is proposed to split the town vote on election day (so I am told) by putting up a Democratic ticket, — not that they expect it to be elected, but to drive the Republicans into a caucus, and then it don't matter which party wins, provided they have men on the tickets favorable to rum.

Are the Democrats in Hammonton Americans? or are they to be sold like so many sheep?

Are the Republican citizens willing to be led up to the polls under such a miserable subterfuge as is proposed?

There will be a caucus of all voters in Union Hall next Tuesday evening; let the citizens turn out and attend, and be their own "bosses" in town affairs. If the caucus of citizens cannot select good men, party caucuses cannot.

This business has been neglected for years, but now there seems to be "millions in it" for the speculators, and their pocket-books are yawning for shekels that are to fall. Of course it is all for Hammonton — of course!

This town has increased under "no license" more rapidly than any rum town in the state, gaining 125 per cent in population from 1880 to 1890, a record unexcelled even by the large cities. It is the town of homes, of beautiful hedges, with a salubrious climate, and freedom from temptation at the doors.

While a bar-room may bring a few thousand dollars into one man's purse, the business men and citizens will lose much more by the removal from town of those who bring money here from the city, and who have done so for years. But now one man wants bicycle riders' money for Hammonton, — he being Hammonton.

Going "up the road" does not help the matter. The drunken rider goes both ways, and he will have but little regard for your wishes. We have a few drunken husbands, and women who support them, and half starved children now, without adding drunken riders. If they will have rum, let them get it where they can, elsewhere, so as to not least wash our hands of it, though we cannot prevent it outside of our town limits.

But the speculators say Hammonton wants it, and they are Hammonton.

— OBSERVER.

DON'T WANT IT.

EDITOR: Less than a year ago, a man who is comparatively a newcomer in the town, was heard to remark: "Hammonton is a slow town, and it will never be anything until there is a licensed hotel here; then you'll see it boom."

Now this Bombastus Knowlton is mentioned as good timber for a Councilman; but it appears to me there is too much wood alcohol (the most dangerous kind) in this specimen, and the man who would recommend such is a poor judge of material to be used in the ground floor of a town's prosperity.

Let the people of Hammonton nominate for Councilmen men who will come out flat-footed for the "no license" side of the question, and distrust those who are eternally crawling around after an office.

There is another resident of this town who "is willing" (as Barkis said), in fact, more than willing to serve the town as Councilman. This one, though a very exemplary member of society, tried, at a recent election, to bribe at least two men to vote his ticket. And the bribe? Whiskey! in each case. Too much wood alcohol in that fellow for an honest man. If a man will offer such an insult to another, as to attempt to buy him with a pint of whiskey, what will prevent him from taking a bribe, if offered, to aid in bringing about this license, that so many think necessary for the town's welfare?

There has arisen a wail among those who are to be found in the front ranks of the free lunch army, asking why not have a licensed hotel here and keep the money in town? How will they be benefitted? By simply hanging around and responding when some fellow "sets 'em up" for the crowd. That is their hoped-for heaven.

Others claim if a respectable (?) man runs a licensed hotel, everything will be serene. Yes, this hotel keeper may be respectable as any who sell liquor; yes, he may attend church and contribute liberally of the dollars that he has taken from somebody's sons, brothers, and husbands in exchange for the tarantula juice he has passed out to them over his bar. But if there is any creature that crawls on the face of the earth more to be despised by all decent people than the slimy reptile who peddles out rum, and the two-legged hyena who sells tobacco to children, I have yet to discover it.

Tour to Old Point Comfort, Richmond, and Washington.

A delightful personally-conducted tour allowing two days at Old Point Comfort, one at Richmond, and two at Washington, will leave New York and Philadelphia Feb. 20th, via the Pennsylvania Railroad. This tour covers a peculiarly interesting territory, the quiet beauty of Old Point, the historic monuments of Richmond, and the ever-increasing departments and institutions of the National Capital.

Tickets, including transportation, meals en route in both directions, transfers of passengers and baggage, hotel accommodations at Old Point Comfort, Richmond and Washington, and carriage ride about Richmond — in fact every necessary expense for a period of six days — will be sold at: $35 from New York, Brooklyn, and Newark; $34 from Trenton, $33 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other stations.

Tickets will also be sold to Old Point Comfort and return direct by regular trains within six days, including transportation, lunch on going trip, and one and three fourths days' board at Old Point, at rate of $16 from New York, Brooklyn, and Newark, $15 from Trenton, $14 from Philadelphia, and proportionate rates from other stations.

Apply to ticket agencies, Tourist Agt., 1190 Broadway, New York, or Gen. W. Boyd, Asst. Gen. Passenger Agt., Broad St. Station, Phila.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant, of Bedford, Arizona, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for colds, coughs, and consumption. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, colds and coughs is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to-day stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Croft's Pharmacy.

A N ORDINANCE dividing the Town of Hammonton into two Election Districts, and establishing the boundary lines thereof.

Introduced December 20th, 1896.
Passed February 6th, 1897.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Town of Hammonton, that hereafter all that portion of the Town of Hammonton lying south westerly from a line commencing at a point being the intersection of the middle line of a road commonly called the "Back Road" and the north-westerly boundary line of the Town of Hammonton, and extending thence along the middle line of the said Back Road southerly to its intersection with the middle line of Third Street; thence along the middle line of Third Street to the intersection of said Third Street with Maple Street; thence along the middle of Maple Street southerly to its intersection with the County Road; thence along the middle of said County Road to the south easterly boundary line of the Town of Hammonton, shall be known and designated as the First Election Precinct of the Town of Hammonton. And all that portion of the Town of Hammonton lying northeasterly from the aforesaid line shall be known and designated as the Second Election Precinct of the Town of Hammonton.

Sec. 2. And be it ordained, That all ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this ordinance shall take effect immediately.

In our last issue, "Honesty" stated that "one of the female members of the committee of the Masquerade Party" announced that the party was over, and that if any wished to dance they might. It is but fair to our correspondent to state that he was so informed by three persons who were present. But we are glad to be able to contradict their statement. The lady in question said nothing about dancing, and did not favor it. The committee surrendered possession of the hall; then members of the H. A. A. announced and managed the dance.

The music given by the T. Z. R. at Mrs. Laura Davidson's last week Friday evening, was a decided success, as all the guests will acknowledge. The vocal and instrumental music was duly appreciated. After this the company adjourned to another room, which was nicely decorated with pine boughs and mosses, and lighted with Japanese lanterns. Here they had games, refreshments, and a good time generally. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Whitmore, Misses Carrie Moore, Mary and Helen Winchup, Laura Davison, Cora Crowell, Messrs. Harry Rutherford, Howard Monfort, Morton Crowell, John Hoyt, and Harry Davidson.

The Italian Evangelical Church is doing a quiet but excellent work under the care of their excellent pastor, Rev. Thomas Fragale. The membership numbers thirty-one, with eleven others under instruction in preparation for membership. Four were received at the last communion service, Feb. 7th, and two in November. The Sunday School membership is sixty-three. The pastor and people are united and deeply in earnest in the work committed to them, and making steady progress in spite of opposition and misrepresentation. Services are held as follows: worship and preaching Sunday morning at 9:30; Sunday School at 2:30 p. m.; Prayer meeting and Bible study on Saturday, at 2:30 p. m.

Sponsor or later every great thought will make its way around the world.

A Tour to Washington at Exceedingly Low Rates.

Washington is to-day the handsomest city in America, and undoubtedly one of the most beautiful capitals in the world. That grand monumental building, the Capitol, has no counterpart. The new Congressional Library, with its statues, its law courts, and its marble halls, is a veritable palace. The great monument, five hundred and fifty-five feet high, is the loftiest memorial shaft in the world, and the National Museum has the reputation of being the most perfect in design for the purpose of any in existence. In point of interest, it is second only to the famous British Museum in London. The three-day tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are arranged to cover all these points of interest, and many more. The tour of the city is made under the personal escort of an experienced tourist agent, and every facility is afforded for a complete visit.

The next tour of the present series will leave New York and Philadelphia March 11. Round trip tickets, including hotel accommodations and every necessary expense, will be sold at a rate of $14.50 from New York, $11.50 from Philadelphia, and at proportionate rates from other stations.

The music given by the T. Z. R. at Mrs. Laura Davidson's last week Friday evening, was a decided success, as all the guests will acknowledge. The vocal and instrumental music was duly appreciated. After this the company adjourned to another room, which was nicely decorated with pine boughs and mosses, and lighted with Japanese lanterns. Here they had games, refreshments, and a good time generally. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Whitmore, Misses Carrie Moore, Mary and Helen Winchup, Laura Davison, Cora Crowell, Messrs. Harry Rutherford, Howard Monfort, Morton Crowell, John Hoyt, and Harry Davidson.

The Italian Evangelical Church is doing a quiet but excellent work under the care of their excellent pastor, Rev. Thomas Fragale. The membership numbers thirty-one, with eleven others under instruction in preparation for membership. Four were received at the last communion service, Feb. 7th, and two in November. The Sunday School membership is sixty-three. The pastor and people are united and deeply in earnest in the work committed to them, and making steady progress in spite of opposition and misrepresentation. Services are held as follows: worship and preaching Sunday morning at 9:30; Sunday School at 2:30 p. m.; Prayer meeting and Bible study on Saturday, at 2:30 p. m.

A Tour to Washington at Exceedingly Low Rates.

Washington is to-day the handsomest city in America, and undoubtedly one of the most beautiful capitals in the world. That grand monumental building, the Capitol, has no counterpart. The new Congressional Library, with its statues, its law courts, and its marble halls, is a veritable palace. The great monument, five hundred and fifty-five feet high, is the loftiest memorial shaft in the world, and the National Museum has the reputation of being the most perfect in design for the purpose of any in existence. In point of interest, it is second only to the famous British Museum in London. The three-day tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are arranged to cover all these points of interest, and many more. The tour of the city is made under the personal escort of an experienced tourist agent, and every facility is afforded for a complete visit.

The next tour of the present series will leave New York and Philadelphia March 11. Round trip tickets, including hotel accommodations and every necessary expense, will be sold at a rate of $14.50 from New York, $11.50 from Philadelphia, and at proportionate rates from other stations.

Apply to ticket agents: tourist agent, 1198 Broadway, N. Y.; or G. W. Boyd, Asst. Gen. Passenger Agt., Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Electric Bitters

Is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps most generally needed when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish, and the most beautiful capital in the world. SATURDAY, FEB. 27, 1897.

In our last issue, "Honesty" stated that "one of the female members of the committee of the Masquerade Party" announced that the party was over, and that if any wished to dance they might. It is but fair to our correspondent to state that he was so informed by three persons who were present. But we are glad to be able to contradict their statement. The lady in question said nothing about dancing, and did not favor it. The committee surrendered possession of the hall; then members of the H. A. A. announced and managed the dance.

REPAIRING, cleaning and dyeing done at my residence, the brick house on upper Bellevue Ave. Clothing made to order—good stock of goods on hand.

FIEDLER'S.

Before Subscribing for a Magazine, SEE THE BEST, DEMOREST'S. An Unparalleled Offer.

Demorest's Cut Paper Patterns are the most practical on the market. They are of any size that any member of a household could require. In each copy of the Magazine is printed a coupon entitling the subscriber or purchaser to pattern (worth and regularly sold for 35 cts.) or any number of patterns for 4 cents each to cover package and postage. When the value of the patterns is considered, the subscriber actually gets Demorest's Magazine Free.

And what a magazine it is! For 1897 it will be more brilliant than ever before. New management, new methods, new ideas. Each copy contains an exquisite reproduction in colors of some celebrated picture by a famous artist, worthy to adorn the walls of the most refined home. It is affirmed that Demorest's is the only complete Family Magazine published combining all the most excellent points of its contemporaries; besides having inimitable features of its own. It is actually a dozen magazines in one.

It is a Digest of Current Events and Ideas for the busy man or woman, a Review and a Storehouse of Interest for all. Mothers, sisters, wives and daughters can find exactly what they need to amuse and instruct them, also practical helps in every department of domestic and social life, including furnishing and ornamenting the home, embroidery, bric-a-brac, artistic and fancy work of all kinds, etc., etc., and suggestions and advice regarding the well being and dressing of their own persons.

The scope of the articles for '96 and '97 will cover the whole country and its varied interests, and the articles will be profusely illustrated with the finest engravings, and in addition, it will publish the best and purest fiction. It treats at length of our sports, home amusements and entertainments. It gives a great deal of attention to the Children's Department and "Our Girls," and has a Monthly Symposium by Colored People, in which are discussed important questions of the hour of interest to the older readers.

Let us have your subscription at once. You get more value for your money than it is possible to secure in any other magazine. The Mag. one year for $2.00. Or six months for $1.00. [Over 250 different garments are shown each year, patterns of all of which are obtainable by subscribers at 4 cents each.] Sample copy [with pattern coupon] sent for 10 cts. Demorest Publishing Co., 110 Fifth Ave., New York. Only $2.00 for Republican and Demorest. Send your order to this office.
