Fiftieth Anniversaries.

It was a very pleasant gathering of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua B. Dudley, at their home on Middle Road, Hammonton, last Sunday, it being the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. All had a delightful time, and the kind wishes and many tokens from friends and family will ever be cherished in the hearts of the faithful father and mother, who have passed through fifty years of life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley were married Feb. 23-d, 1858, at Danville, Morris County, N. J. They made their home for a few years at East Orange, N. J., where the old homestead still stands, but spent the greater part of their married life in Newark, where Mr. Dudley was well known among shoe manufacturers. Some years ago they went to Wisconsin, but, getting homesick for Jersey, came about nine years ago to Hammonton.

They have seven children, one son, Wm. O., still in the shoe business in Newark, and a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Palmer, also of Newark. One son is now living in Rockton, Ill., the others all in Hammonton.

May they live to see their seventy-fifth.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Murphy were married at Winslow, N. J., Feb. 27th, 1858, and on Thursday evening relatives and friends assisted them in celebrating the event at their handsome home on Twelfth Street, Hammonton.

The house was beautifully decorated in colors and flowers, especially the banquet room and table. This was at the hands of their daughter, Mrs. Cora Hay, assisted by Mrs. Mary Hay Forman, Mrs. Bessie Hay Heath, and Mrs. Carrie Winchip.

Guests were present from Atlantic City, Camden, Philadelphia, Quinton, Millville, Bridgeton and Winslow, and a host of friends in Hammonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy received many valuable presents, denoting the esteem in which they are held, in Hammonton and elsewhere.

Four brothers of Mr. Murphy were present, all nearly the same age, making a quartette of remarkably well preserved men, three of whom have now celebrated their own golden anniversary.

We tender congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Murphy on this anniversary, and wish for them many more years together.

Beck's LAXATIVE Cough Syrup for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough grows to favor daily with young and old. Mothers should keep it on hand for children. It is prompt relief to croup. It is gently laxative, driving the poison and phlegm from the system. It is a simple remedy that gives immediate relief, guaranteed. Sold by City Pharmacy.

REBUILDING SA

Bank Brothers' Store

To meet the demands of our vast growing business, which is the result of our honest merchandising and strong advocacy of good quality, at low prices, we are erecting a new building, thus doubling the size of our store. Owing to the lack of room while the new building is being erected, we must make a quick disposal of all merchandise on hand, to make room for new Spring goods which are to arrive soon.

Prices have been marked amazingly low on many lots, less than the cost of manufacture, and at almost half regular retail prices. Items marked with * will not last long.

There was a Reason and a time when many people might hesitate to visit a dentist. What their friends told was sufficient to keep them away.

Progress in Dentistry has reduced pain to such a minimum that fear of pain is absolutely useless to think about. Lack of attention—your teeth need it—can lead to infection to many things which in later life are not to be feared.

About Hammononton Schools.

The school report, about to be issued, will contain much that is interesting to parents and tax-payers.
A few comparisons may be made,
which are suggestive. For example:
In 1904 the report accounted for about $10,000 expended; in 1907, these figures foot up, in round numbers, $38,000—just double.
Last year the value of school property had increased sixty six per cent over 1904, reaching $50,000.
Four years ago we employed twenty-three teachers; now we have thirty-six, besides the Superintendent.
The number of pupils enrolled has increased about thirty per cent since 1904.
With above facts in mind, it seems surprising that the Board ask us, this year, for $1400 less money to pay current expenses, than they did in 1904.
The Board will ask the meeting to appropriate, for all purposes, including payment of new bond and interest, $5888. Last year for same purpose we voted $10,000—a reduction of $3,015.
We think it speaks well for the State and local administration. Remember, we have fifty per cent more teachers, and pay them better salaries; have increased our property holdings in still greater proportions; have cared for thirty per cent more pupils—thus increasing the expenses about $19,000—yet are asked to raise less money than before.
The fact is, our State legislators are friendly to public schools, and believe in them; hence from every available source they pour money into the school fund, thereby providing for payment of all teachers' salaries and all other school expenses, and our home board is composed of people who take pride in making our schools what they should be, neither wasting nor sparing money to give us the best.
There will be no services in St.
Mark's Church to-morrow, or on Ash Wednesday. On Sunday following, Mar.
8th, the first Sunday in Lent, the Frank Lenden, accused of a betrayed crime by his step-daughter, had his second trial at May's Landing, this week, and the jury acquitted him after a short consideration. The old told a plausible story, but it was proved that her moral character was not of the best before Frank married her mother, and that she was prompted to make the charge by a relative, in spite, for some gratitude. Frank always appeared to be a gentleman, while here, and the verdict is approved.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

Neuralgia.—This disease so common in Colorado is difficult to cure. Try one drop of the fluid extract of aloe in a spoonful of water every half hour until relieved. Keep the feet and body warm.

Inflamed Eyes.—A very good formula is composed of acetic acid twenty grains, sulphate of morphia thirty grains and glycerine one-half ounce. Shake well and place one drop in the eye night and morning.

Hives.—In urticaria, known often as nettle rash or hives, a dram of carbolic acid to a pint of water is said to give immediate relief to the itching. The addition of four drams of boracic acid and two ounces of alcohol give more positive results.

A Remedy for Chiggers.—A small dose of pulverized sulphur about twice the size of a pea, taken every two or three days will render one immune to attacks from chiggers. A person may go with impunity into the worst infested places after taking internally a small amount of sulphur.

Flatulency.—This almost universal stomach disorder among people of sedentary habits can be overcome by taking two or three grains of the sulphate of bismuth before each meal, and following thereafter with a fire-grain tablet of some of the peptonoids procurable at any drugstore.

Cure for Night Sweats.—This complaint may be cured by sponging the body with salt water and patients who are suffering from fevers may be made cool and comfortable by frequent sponging with soda water. In all cases of perspiration where a chill during the sponging one half of a small portion of the body should be sponged at a time and then covered up before the next part is touched.

To Open a Cold Painlessly with a Knife.—Take a piece of soft linen, smear it with vasoline or other unctuous substance on one side, pour chloroform on the other side and quickly apply over the cold or carbuncle. Place a bandage or compress over it. It will smart a little at first, followed soon by a pleasing cool sensation. Change the cloth often, applying the chloroform each time and in from two hours to a day the boil will be open and open no matter how hard it may be.

Nose Bleed.—A very simple and easy method for controlling nose bleed that may prove valuable to many persons living in the country where a physician is not procurable as easily as in the cities, is to take a piece of fat bacon two and one-half inches in length and of sufficient size, cut it the proper shape and as large as can be easily forced into the nostril. Press into the bleeding nostril and let it remain several hours. It controls the hemorrhage and is not uncomfortable.

LIGHTS FOR THE MARINER.

United States Have 9,000 Beach Signals on Coast and Waterways.

There are 9,000 burning lights and signals stretched along the American coast, forming a perfect line, so that the navigator never need be beyond sight of one of the beacons. One thousand of these are located on the Atlantic coast, 1,500 are scattered along the rivers and inland waterways, 500 on the great lakes and 200 on the Pacific coast.

Of the grand total, including light-houses of different classes, buoys, beacons and danger signals 3,000 are lighted, giving forth their warnings at night time. Of these there are 1,000 throw a beam of 100,000 candle power. To maintain the light house service a corps of over 4,000 men is constantly employed and a fleet of more than fifty vessels are active in the service.

The light house service in the world exceeds in completeness and efficiency that of the United States.

A modern American light house of the first class cost between $100,000 and $200,000, and of this amount about one-half is for the electric light and apparatus alone. Beside one of the Egyptian Canopus or Rhodas "perfect" light, with profuse brown, which rays streamed down the purple sea to Hesperus, would shine as tapers in the Mediterranean night, with a gleam among the seven wonders of the world and hardly worth nothing.

Notice is served on country women that when they come out with their milk rather go to the cellar for a drink of milk than to have it brought to them in the parlor.

SOME ART TREASURES.

By Elizabeth Arden.

When it was announced awhile ago that the set of Aeneas and Dido tapestries from the Barberini palace were sold for $100,000 to John R. McLean, of Washington, the statement was made that this was the record price in America for a set of tapestries.

There are two small textile pieces now in this city that are valued at $85,000. For their size they are probably the costliest in the world.

These tapestries are 6 by 9 feet in size and make a small bundle that, tied up in cotton cloth, weighs in a safe deposit vault, only to be brought out on rare occasions to the sight of a prospective buyer. The dealer who owns them admits there are not more than four men in America who are likely to buy them.

They were made in the Gobelin factory in Paris, and are after designs by Boucher, one representing a man attending a woman seated in a swing, the other a group of men and women lying in picturesque attitudes in a park-like landscape. The costumes are in the manner of Watteau and the coloring is exquisitely soft and lovely.

In the William C. Whitney house is probably the finest collection of tapestries in this city. If not in America, for just what they cost few persons know. Mr. Whitney always was averse to telling what he paid for his art objects, one of his favorite replies to inquiries being: "I'd be ashamed to tell you."

Col. Oliver H. Payne, Mr. Whitney's brother-in-law, has a Gobelin tapestry hanging in the drawing room of his Fifth avenue home that cost $65,000. It is behind glass, and represents the finest work of the looms of Arras, in Flanders.

Clarence H. Mackay has a set of six Italian tapestries that cost him more than $200,000, for a local dealer paid him $100,000 for them.

These tapestries are 6 by 9 feet in size and make a small bundle that, tied up in cotton cloth, weighs in a safe deposit vault, only to be brought out on rare occasions to the sight of a prospective buyer.

SOME Dainty LINGERIE.

By Elizabeth Arden.

When it was announced awhile ago that the set of Aeneas and Dido tapestries from the Barberini palace were sold for $100,000 to John R. McLean, of Washington, the statement was made that this was the record price in America for a set of tapestries.

There are two small textile pieces now in this city that are valued at $85,000. For their size they are probably the costliest in the world.

These tapestries are 6 by 9 feet in size and make a small bundle that, tied up in cotton cloth, weighs in a safe deposit vault, only to be brought out on rare occasions to the sight of a prospective buyer.

They were made in the Gobelin factory in Paris, and are after designs by Boucher, one representing a man attending a woman seated in a swing, the other a group of men and women lying in picturesque attitudes in a park-like landscape. The costumes are in the manner of Watteau and the coloring is exquisitely soft and lovely.

In the William C. Whitney house is probably the finest collection of tapestries in this city. If not in America, for just what they cost few persons know. Mr. Whitney always was averse to telling what he paid for his art objects, one of his favorite replies to inquiries being: "I'd be ashamed to tell you."

Col. Oliver H. Payne, Mr. Whitney's brother-in-law, has a Gobelin tapestry hanging in the drawing room of his Fifth avenue home that cost $65,000. It is behind glass, and represents the finest work of the looms of Arras, in Flanders.

A NEW SOCIAL CLUB.

We live in a day in which the Social movement is in a state of ebullition. Many are the forms which this activity presents. Some demand, on the part of their members, strenuous exertion of mind, and some expenditure of physical labor; some, again, are limited to social intercourse and neighborly and friendly recreation.

Of the latter is the new "500" club of Hammonton. That our town has long enjoyed the distinction of a "400" circle is perhaps not generally known. There is no rivalry with this circle, however, on the part of the 500 club. Neither is the membership so aspiring as to fix its maximum at half a thousand. The club was organized on Saturday week, at the home of Mrs. John Donovan, with that lady as president, Mrs. R. J. Byrnes as vice-president and (as a joke perhaps) Mr. J. A. Burgas as secretary. The members admitted to the club included Mrs. J. May, Mrs. A. J. King, Miss A. Brewster, Mrs. J. A. Burgas, Mrs. Wm. French, Mrs. H. Roney, Mrs. G. E. Chalfant, Miss Daisy Burgas, Messrs H. M. Salinas, C. K. Nelson, A. J. King, R. J. Byrnes, G. E. Chalfant, Wm. A. French, and J. Donovan.

The club adopted some original and very ingenious systems for voting on propositions, which we understand are secrets for members only. The recreation in chief of this club is the game of 500, from which circumstance it takes its name, a secret which has leaked out.

Music and a delicate collation added to the delightful intercourse of the evening. The second meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. J. Byrnes, on Thursday of this week.

Pl. for: For sale of mortgaged premises.
Returnable February term 1908.
Charles D. Thompson, Solicitor.

By virtue of the above stated writ to me directed and delivered, I shall sell at public vendue at Kuchel's Hotel, at South Carolina and Atlantic Avenues, Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, the thirtieth day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all the following described lands and premises with the appurtenances, being the same premises described in said writ, that is to say:

All and singular, the corporate property, real, personal and mixed, assets, ornaments, household interests, patents, franchises, rights and privileges, to the New Auditorium Pier Company now belonging or that may by it be hereafter acquired, including two certain household interests in certain premises at Atlantic City, New Jersey, held by certain leases or agreements, as follows:

(1) Lease made by Mary A. Riddle Co. and Joseph A. Brady to Thomas U. Barker, dated January 2nd, 1900.

(2) Lease made by Mary A. Riddle Co. and Joseph A. Brady to "Auditorium Pier Company," a corporation of the State of New Jersey, dated January 2nd, 1900.

Which said leases have been duly assigned to the New Auditorium Pier Company, together with the pier and buildings thereon erected, and also the personal property now on the pier and now auditorium of the New Auditorium Pier Company, including chairs, benches, scenery, etc., and pier now exists.

Together with the appurtenances, and all the estate, right, title and interest of the New Auditorium Pier Company of, in and to the same, and every part and parcel thereof, and all and singular, the tenants, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the revenues, royalties, tolls, profits, and all other rights, claims and demands of every kind and description of the Company at Atlantic City, New Jersey, or elsewhere, including whereforever the same may be situated; all choses in action, and all property and effects belonging to or in anywise appertaining to the company whereforever the same may be situated. And also all the property and property rights of every kind and description, real, personal or mixed, now owned or which may hereafter be acquired by the company, its successors and assigns, during the life of the mortgage described in the complainant's bill.

The particular description of real and personal property herein contained shall not be construed to exclude any other property of any other kind, name, or nature, which now appertains to or which may hereafter be acquired by the company, or which the said company is now or may hereafter be or be deemed to be entitled to.

Together with all and singular, the rights, privileges, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the revenues, royalties, tolls, profits and all other rights, claims and demands of the said defendants, of, in, to and out of the same. PINER P. COOK,
Special Master in Chancery of New Jersey.
