Many who witnessed the production of "Wonderland" have secured tickets for to-night's entertainment. The program will be the same, and each reserved seat holder is entitled to five free votes for his favorite number. Other votes may be purchased for one cent apiece. This is probably the best performance seen in town for a long time. It needs no recommendation to those who were there two weeks ago, and others need only to ask someone who was there to know whether they should or should not attend.

What a Parent Thinks.

One wholesome result of a calamity like that in Ohio is that it impels school boards and those in charge of public buildings elsewhere to look more closely to the safety of their own charges.

While in most respects our schools seem safe, the new Central Primary building has a dangerous fire-trap in its stairways. In the descent from the second floor, two parallel flights of steps lead to a landing half-way down, below which is a single flight, little, if any, wider than each of the upper ones. What the result would be in case of panic may be judged by the fact that even when the children march down in good order, there is a tendency to jam and jostle each other on the landing. This is a serious fault, and should be remedied, even if it is necessary to entirely rebuild the stairways.

The school-room doors are locked, we are told, during opening exercises. We are also told that there have been few, if any fire drills in this building since it was opened.

And, by the way, while an ordinary fire drill is valuable training, an experienced fire chief remarked that the children are only trained to march out through the usual exits, and that when some emergency blocks that way, a panic is likely to result.

Fire escapes should be installed on school buildings two stories or more high, and the children taught to go down that way, as well as by the staircase. It is suggested that in fire drills one or all of the stairways might be closed by some light obstruction, — a strip of red cloth tied across at the bottom would answer, — and pupils taught that when they come upon it unexpectedly they must instantly seek some other way out. A PARENT.

REBUILDING SALE!

AT

Bank Brothers' Store.

To meet the demands of our vast growing business, which is the result of our honest merchandising and strong advocacy of good quality, at low prices, we are erecting a new building, thus doubling the size of our store. Owing to the lack of room while the new building is being erected, we must make a quick disposal of all merchandise on hand, to make room for new Spring goods which are to arrive soon.

Prices have been marked amazingly low on many lots, less than the cost of manufacture, and at almost half regular retail prices. Items marked with * will not last long.

Mrs. Thomas H. Coggy died very suddenly on Friday, Feb. 28, in Vineland. During the family residence in Hammononton, Mrs. Coggy was a semi-invalid, and with her husband went to Florida for a year or two, where she appeared to regain health, and they took up their residence in Vineland. On Thursday she seemed better than usual, but awoke her husband by calling, early Friday morning, was found to be unconscious, did not rally, and died in about two hours. Her remains were taken to New York for burial, on Tuesday. Mr. Coggy and sons have universal sympathy.

TO SUBSCRIBERS:

The first of this week, we mailed bills for subscription arrears to three classes of people, namely: a number who had overlooked it; others, who did not have the ready money; and still others, who evidently never intended to pay for what they had ordered for value received. The first and second classes are responding promptly, and we wish to thank them for assisting us in complying with Uncle Sam's demands; but there are a few who pay no attention to "duns." These will soon be dropped from our list—into the hands of a newspaper bill collector.

FOR & SON, Publishers.

Antonio Schiavo, who is accused of killing Giuseppe Mercurio, near Atlantic, last October, and fled, has been arrested in a little town in the Province of Palermo, Italy. He will probably be brought back for trial. Word of his capture was sent to Prosecutor Albion, of Mount Holly, by the Italian Consul at Trenton, who is active in the matter.

Ohio's Fatality.

Another fire horror occurred on Wednesday of this week, near Cleveland, Ohio, the scene being the public school house. Over one hundred and sixty bodies of small children from six to fourteen years of age, have been recovered, badly burned and bruised, piled high in the narrow hall and against the closed rear door. How the fire occurred is yet to be determined; but according to appearances, it started in the basement.

The halls were too narrow, and the doors swung in, and to make it worse, the rear door was locked. All Hammononton sympathizes.

None of these "traps" occur in our schools, and with monthly or fortnightly fire drills, there need be no fear from a like fatal conflagration.

The second story "bridge" connecting the two brick buildings, is worth many times its cost.

A man used six tons of coal during the winter to heat his house. One winter he thought he would save $6.75, by burning only five tons of coal.

He tried it, and after during that winter was his house comfortable. The only cheer that he got was that he was saving $6.75. Did he really save it? or did he waste $33.75? He could have kept cold for nothing, without burning five tons of coal.

Dear this in mind when marketing,—that a few cents more paid for QUALITY may be the little bit that saves the whole dinner.

Esperanto Notes.

Monsieur Edmond Privat's lecture on "Esperanto," which he delivered on the 28 ult to a large and enthusiastic audience, in the Universalist Church, made many new converts to the international language.

A Hamonton Esperanto Association had already been organized, and had been studying several weeks. It was through their influence that Monsieur Privat's interesting lecture and visit was secured for Hamonton.

Esperanto, while an invented language, is many years old in Europe, and has gained wide recognition there. It is only about two years old in the United States; however, this being one of the last countries to recognize its importance.

An International Congress is held each year. At the last one, which was held in Cambridge, England, last summer, the attendance was nearly 6000 people—these being delegates from Esperanto groups in 35 different speaking nations. Esperanto was used throughout the proceedings, and there was not the slightest trouble in understanding each other.

Esperanto societies are springing up all over the United States, and Monsieur Privat's visit to America is doing much to encourage its rapid spread.

An Esperanto Institute has been established by Monsieur Privat in his native city, Geneva, Switzerland, and we understand that a branch of that institution is to be established in Philadelphia, with headquarters in the Hale Building, Juniper and Chestnut Street.

Hamonton Esperantists feel that the time will come, and that before long, when they will be proud to say that they were among the first in this country to take up the study of Esperanto.

A little leaflet, telling a great deal about Esperanto—its reasons for existence, its origin, what recognition it has had, etc., can be obtained free of charge from the secretary, Miss Seguin, or at Henson's news rooms.

Those who desire to purchase Esperanto text-books are advised that the same are now on sale at Henson's news rooms. The books being used by the Hamonton Esperanto Association include "Bullen's Lessons in Esperanto," 25 cents; and a small vocabulary, 10 cents.

Parties who wish to study Esperanto, (in either a class of their own choosing or organization, or in another class which may be about to begin) and who desire to be considered a member of the Hamonton Esperanto Association, are requested to notify the Secretary before Tuesday evening next.

It is the purpose of the Hamonton Esperanto Association to encourage as much as possible the study of the international language in Hamonton, and to assist in the organization of new study groups wherever such assistance is needed and requested.

It has been concluded that divisions into small groups of from six to eight congenial people each, is the most advisable plan of procedure. One large group would be more unwieldy, and would really require a teacher; whereas, groups of a few such can work together with little or no confusion, and without any special instructor.

Mr. Ward Nichols, of the Atlantic City Esperanto Association, and the President of the Philadelphia Esperanto Association, have offered to come to Hamonton some time in the near future and spend an evening with the Hamonton Esperantists. Their visit is looked forward to with pleasure by the members of the local association. It was through Mr. Nichols' efforts that the local group was organized, and they are indebted to him for considerable assistance.

Miss Emma Hooper attended the meeting of the Philadelphia Esperanto Association last Friday evening, which was held in the basement auditorium of the Carnegie Library. The program was mostly English, but a short play, a recitation, and one or two addresses, were delivered in Esperanto. Monsieur Privat, who had been giving a course of instructions in Philadelphia, during the month of February, delivered his farewell address to his friends and students in Esperanto, and during the evening diplomas were awarded to those who had reached a certain proficiency with the language.

Special Master's Sale.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

Between WILLIAM H. BREAHER, Trustee, Complainant, and the NEW AUDITORIUM PIER COMPANY and the ATLANTIC AMUSEMENT COMPANY, Defendants.

Pl. fa. For sale of mortgaged premises.

Returnable February term 1908.

Charles D. Thompson, Solicitor.

By virtue of the above stated writ to me directed and delivered, I shall sell at public vendue at Kohn's Hotel, at South Carolina and Atlantic Avenues, Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, the thirteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all the following described lands and premises with the appurtenances, being the same premises described in said writ, that is to say:

All and singular, the corporate property, real, personal and mixed, assets, accretions, leasehold interests, patents, franchises, rights and privileges, to the New Auditorium Pier Company now belonging or that may by it be hereafter acquired, including two certain leasehold interests in certain premises at Atlantic City, New Jersey, held by certain leases or agreements, as follows:

(1) Lease made by Mary A. Riddle Co. and Joseph A. Brady to Thomas U. Barker, dated January 2nd, 1899.

(2) Lease made by Mary A. Riddle Co. and Joseph A. Brady to the Auditorium Pier Company, a corporation of the State of New Jersey, dated January 2nd, 1900.

Which said leases have been duly assigned to the New Auditorium Pier Company, together with the pier and buildings thereon erected, and also the personal property now on the pier and new auditorium of the New Auditorium Pier Company, including chairs, benches, scenery, etc., as said pier now exists.

Together with the appurtenances, and all the estate, right, title and interest of the New Auditorium Pier Company of, in and to the same, and every part and parcel thereof; and also, all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto in anywise appertaining, and the reversion or reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof; and also all the plant, machinery, fixtures, merchandise, and stock in trade and supplies and effects, and all other assets of every kind and description of the Company at Atlantic City, New Jersey, or elsewhere, including whatever the same may be situated; all shares in action, assets and property and effects belonging to it in anywise appertaining to the company whose name the same may be situated. And also, all the property and property rights of every kind and description, real, personal or mixed, now owned or which may be hereafter acquired by the company, its successors and assigns, during the life of the mortgage described in the complaintant's bill.

The particular description of real and personal property herein contained shall not be construed to exclude any other property of any other kind, name, or nature, which may appertain to or which may hereafter be acquired by the company, or which the said company is now or may hereafter be or become hereafter entitled to.

Together with all and singular, the rights, privileges, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the reversions, remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, use, property claim and demand of the said defendants, of, in, to and out of the same. FINEULE MEDICINE CO., Special Master in Chancery of New Jersey.
