PERSONALS AND OTHERWISE.

Notice the Gas Company's offer, on page four.

Note the changes in Monfort's show windows.

Town Council meeting next Wednesday evening.

Miss Minnie B. Newcomb has returned to her field of labor, in Virginia.

Dr. Fisher and family are to go to Baltimore,—not Chester as we were told.

Born on Saturday, Feb. 28th, at Inland, Alabama, to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Woolbert, a daughter.

The Civic Club will give a black face minstrel show on the evening of April 11th and 12th, in Bellevue Hall.

Mrs. W. L. Shaw and daughter Leona, will leave on Monday, for a ten day visit in Atlantic Highlands.

Bulletin No. 241, from the N. J. Experiment Station, just issued, treats of commercial fertilizers and ground bone.

Rev. J. L. Dowson, of Brooklyn, Pa., will be the speaker at the Universalist Church, next Thursday evening at 7.30.

St. Mark's Church, Third Sunday—in Lent—Service at 10.30; Rev. C. R. Underhill, a former Rector, in charge.

At the Universalist Church tomorrow, services as usual,—preaching at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.—Sunday school at noon.

A good crowd of the Rod and Gun Club, and friends, partook of a sumptuous feast, at Cramer's, last Saturday night.

Geo. F. McIntyre's hens paid for their keep, during February. Mrs. M. gathered 400 eggs, from a flock of thirty hens. Who can beat it?

Those interested in hog raising will find Circular No. 1, issued by the New Jersey Live Stock Commission, at Trenton, quite interesting.

All parts in the coming minstrel show will be taken by members of the Civic Club. The proceeds will go towards beautifying our new School Park.

The Methodist Church was taxed to its capacity, everybody desiring to hear Mrs. Armor, who fully sustained her reputation as a temperance orator.

Mrs. Frank Albright will sell personal property at auction, next Saturday, at one o'clock, on the farm, at Elm. Household goods and farming implements.

Mrs. Robert Jerrell, who recently underwent a serious operation and suffered a relapse, having been very ill for the last few weeks, is now on the way to recovery.

Dr. Wilson, formerly of Rosedale, was buried in Hammonton on Sunday last. Details of his death we could not obtain. The deceased was known to many, a friend to all.

We have a letter intimating the death of Miss Ella A. Moore, formerly of Hammonton, but for twenty or more years residing at Springfield, Vt. No details were given.

A basket, containing the cutest little bit of humanity, a newly-born baby-girl, was left at Miss Emily Jones' about midnight last Friday, by a heavily-veiled woman. A good home will be secured for it.

Henry C. Aldrich, an aged man living alone at Holcom, was found dead, on Monday, by neighbors. Relatives at a distance were found, but being in poor circumstances, the authorities will look after his burial.

Mrs. Edward Bennett was taken quite ill last week Tuesday, with what appeared to be grippe, but later developments indicated more serious complications. At last report she was still confined to her bed, though brighter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Parkhurst and son have returned from a three weeks vacation, spent in Bermuda. Mr. P. says he realized a great change in weather, as last week he was enjoying a sea bath. They had a very pleasant trip.

The American Lady Corset

The secret of a well dressed woman is necessarily her Corset, because the corset is the foundation of her entire appearance. If the Corset is not right in every detail, and if it does not fit perfectly, one's gown cannot be right, and consequently one's appearance can't be correct.

Therefore it is imperative to have the right corset.

We are constantly studying the wants of our patrons, and realized the growth of our corset department. To keep up with this growth, we found it necessary to add another line of Corsets,—those giving a still wider range of models. We therefore secured the sole agency in Hammonton and vicinity for the AMERICAN LADY CORSET.

Every correctly gowned woman must look supple, easy, and generally graceful in her gown, not tightly corseted.

Illumination. Costs

Only 1 1/2 Cents for

3 Hours Burning

We have secured the exclusive right in our territory to the latest and best gas light designed for use in the home. It is known as the Welsbach Economical Home light and embodies the best ideas known to the largest manufacturers of incandescent gas lamps in the world.

We have determined to offer this light to all of our patrons because we know from actual tests that it is better than any similar light we have ever had on sale before—and we handle only the best. We sincerely hope that every one of our customers will give this lamp a trial. We know it will give satisfaction, and we want satisfied customers.

These lights will give you more illumination. They will burn only about one-half as much gas as the ordinary open-flame burner. This means you will get better service and save expense.

LIGHTS COST $2.25 EACH.

Payment can be made in three monthly installments of 75 cents each, with your gas bills, if desired. Our agents will call on you and show the new light, if you are interested. It is a wonder.

Put a Welsbach Economical Home Light in your home. It will make the evenings seem brighter.

Supreme Court Sustains Town Council.

Word was received from H. F. Stockwell, Town Solicitor, that the supreme court of the state had rendered a decision sustaining the Town of Hammon'tn in its action in regard to improved sidewalks and curbs. It will be remembered that last year's Council passed an ordinance requiring the laying of concrete walks and curbs on certain streets, basing its action upon a state law which gave Council authority to do so without a previous petition from property owners. This was done very carefully, the solicitor approving each move.

Quite a number of our citizens opposed this action, claiming that the town charter provided an entirely different mode of procedure. Their protest was not heeded, and they brought the matter before the supreme court. Their view of the case was presented by Eli H. Chandler, Esq., and Council was defended by our solicitor.

Much of the work ordered by the ordinance has been completed, and doubtless more walks and curbs will be built as soon as weather permits. Everybody approves the walks, which demonstrated their value during the winter.

This decision means more than appears on the surface. It has been a cause of much contention, whether our town is governed by its charter, or by state laws; whether a general law, passed subsequently, repealed portions of the special law which constitutes our charter. This question has now been decided by the court, and our venerable charter is liable to be disintegrated, item by item, year after year, by the State Legislature. It will be more necessary than ever to consult a competent solicitor before taking any important step in local government, lest we run afoul of something new which may prohibit the contemplated action.

It is high time that Hammon'tn adopted something more modern than its present charter,—that will not cause doubt and uncertainty as to what is right or wrong. We congratulate Mr. Stockwell upon this court decision. We believe that he was right, but his victory was gained only by careful study of the situation, and despite the efforts of an able counselor on the opposite side. Born and brought up in Hammon'tn, our people take pride in the excellent record being made by the young man in his profession.

It is now up to Council to see that the good work of improvement goes on. We are told, further, that a law passed last year, gives Council power to improve streets, as well as walks, without initiating action by owners of property. Below, we give the decision in full, which was rendered by Justice Bergen:

The statute of 1909, P. L. 197, applies to the Town of Hammon'tn and repeals so much of its charter as is inconsistent therewith, and as the statute confers upon the governing body of any municipality the power to institute proceedings for improvements named therein without the application of the owners of the lands affected thereby, it grants an additional power inconsistent with the charter, which must give way to subsequent legislation; and the proviso that nothing therein contained shall prevent any governing body from exercising powers now conferred relates to powers not repealed either expressly or by implication.

The writ of certiorari in this case was allowed for the purpose of reviewing an ordinance adopted by the Town Council of Hammon'tn, providing for the improvement of portions of certain streets in the Town of Hammon'tn with sidewalks and curbing. The Town of Hammon'tn was incorporated under a special charter approved March 5, 1866, and subsequently amended in 1867, under which the common council was empowered to "lay side and cross walks," upon the application in writing "by some of the owners of the land over which such improvement shall pass." The charter further provides for the appointment of commissioners to ascertain the cost of the improvement and make assessments for benefits, and when such commissioners have made their report to it, the common council shall proceed to execute the improvement unless a remonstrance be filed by the owners of two-thirds of the land assessed, P. L. 1876, pp. 188-89. As the ordinance under review undertakes to provide for the putting down of sidewalks without the application of any of the property owners over whose land the improvement is to be made, it is clear that unless by subsequent legislation a method different from that provided for in the charter has been established, the common council have exceeded their power in adopting the ordinance complained of.

The respondent admits that it has not observed the terms of the charter, but relying upon an act of the legislature passed in 1909, P. L. 197, has initiated the proceedings under the later act without the application of any of the landowners affected thereby. The act of 1909 makes it "lawful for the governing body of any municipality in this state to improve any road, street, parkway, or other public highway therein with suitable curbing, gutters and sidewalks," with the proviso that "nothing herein contained shall prevent any board or governing body from exercising any powers which are now conferred on it by law, but this act shall confer additional authority for carrying out the improvements herein specified."

The question is therefore raised, does the act of 1909 empower the common council of the Town of Hammon'tn to improve the streets of the town with sidewalks and curbing on its own motion, without the application of some of the owners of the land over which the improvement passes? We are of opinion that the effect of the act of 1909 is to confer upon the common council of all municipalities the power to improve streets by curbing and laying sidewalks without the application required in the special charter of the Town of Hammon'tn, and if this act is applicable to that town would repeal all contrary provisions contained in its charter. That the Legislature has the power to authorize the initiation of improvements by the common council of a municipality without being incited thereto, or authorized by the written application of landholders affected, is not disputed by the prosecutor, but he insists that because the act of 1909 provides that nothing contained therein shall prevent any governing body from exercising powers now conferred, the additional powers conferred by this statute cannot be exercised, and therefore all street improvements made in Hammon'tn must follow the procedure prescribed by its charter.

This construction of the statute is, we think, unsound, for the institution of improvements of this character by the common council without the interference or application of the land owners is an additional power given inconsistent with that contained in the charter, and if so the charter must give way to the later legislation, for it cannot be assumed that the legislature intended municipalities to have the option of two different methods in the commencement of improvement proceedings. Oakes vs. Glen, 41 Vt. 170, Smith vs. Hightstown, 42 Vt. 616.

The powers, the exercise of which are not prevented, must be those which are not repealed either expressly or by implication, and as the act of 1909 does not provide the method of ascertaining and assessing the cost of the improvement, each municipality may proceed to exercise the power conferred upon it to accomplish that necessary result.

We think the law of 1909 applies to the Town of Hammon'tn, and that under it proceedings of the character complained of may be instituted by the common council without the application of land owners as required by its special charter, and that therefore the proceedings under review are not erroneous in the particular complained of. The result is that the proceedings under review should be affirmed.

Now that the Supreme Court has rendered its decision, we hope that Council will amend the ordinance, cut off the upper third of Bellevue Avenue, and add portions of Egg Harbor Road, Second, Horton and Third Streets; also Vine and Orchard Streets to their limit. This would greatly improve this section of the town.

Mrs. Sarah M. Braman, who has been spending the winter with her son, Wm. J. Braman, returned to her home, in Cobleskill, N. Y., on Tuesday.

That groundhog proved a true prophet, this year. Since his venture into open air, when his shadow was visible, we have already had five weeks of weather when his burrow was the most comfortable place for a well-bred critter of his size.

Capt. and Mrs. Fred Small, Capt. and Mrs. Montgomery and Miss Teresa Montgomery unite in thanking neighbors and friends whose kindness of heart was manifested to them in their time of sorrow—the death of their mother and grandmother.

Mrs. John Kelley was taken to Jefferson Hospital on Monday morning, suffering from appendicitis. The operation was performed on Wednesday, from which she is reported as rallying in a very satisfactory manner.

Mrs. Mary F. Montgomery, aged 84 years, died on Saturday last, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. Fred Small, in Hammononton. Funeral services were held at the house on Tuesday evening, and the remains taken to Warren, Maine, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bakley gave a supper, Wednesday night, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Treat, on their return from Jamaica. Many of their old friends were present. After refreshments, they had music and a pleasant social time.

The Presbyterian Church invites you to morning worship at 10.30. Theme, "Betrothed to the Lord." Bible School at noon. At 6.45, the C. E. Society, led by Prayer meeting committee, will consider "Christian testimony that counts." Evening worship at 7.30; theme, "How God forgives."

Mr. Hugo Kind has peaches in bloom. This might seem incredible, were it not for the explanation that he had taken branches into his greenhouse, to prove that they had not been winter killed. We have one of the branches in this office, containing four blossoms and a number of swelling buds.

The January petit juryman have been recalled, to appear at May's Landing next Wednesday at ten o'clock. It is said that a manslaughter case will come up, that of Samuel Clark, who is accused of causing the death of Robert Peacock, in an Atlantic City bar-room.

Brush, the magician, drew a large crowd both afternoon and evening, Wednesday, and delighted and mystified all who witnessed his wonderful performance. This was one of the best numbers of the course, the last two (including this one) being by vote pronounced the most popular.

At the annual meeting of Civic Club, held on Tuesday, the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. H. K. Spear.
V.-P., Mrs. W. W. Mayberry.
Rec. Sec., Mrs. Thos. Creamer.
Cor. Sec., Miss C. R. Bassett.
Treas., Mrs. H. L. Monfort.
Sec. Sprinkler, Mrs. A. J. Rider.
Trustees, Mrs. E. F. Fry, Mrs. J. R. Imhoff, Mrs. A. E. Holman, Mrs. C. W. Smith, and Mrs. A. L. Jackson.

The New Jersey Annual Conference convenes at Asbury Park on Wednesday next. The opening sermon will be preached on Tuesday evening, by Rev. H. M. Blake, of Freehold. Acting upon the advice of his physician, Rev. C. S. Lawrence, of Burlington, former pastor of the local M. E. Church, will ask to be released from active work for one year. Mr. Lawrence has been ill since early summer.

Dr. J. C. Bitter, of Hammononton, and Miss Alice C. Andrews were married on Thursday, March 7, 1912, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Nazareth, Penna., Rev. John Greenwood officiating. It was a quiet wedding, only a few relatives and intimates being present. The doctor and his bride sailed from New York, for Bermuda, on Thursday afternoon. Congratulations and good wishes await them on their return to Hammononton.

Baptist Church, H. P. Hoskins, pastor. Services at 10.30 and 7.30. Bible School, 11.45. Junior C. E. at 3 o'clock; C. E. at 6.30. Pastor's morning sermon, "The Hidden Repast," text John iv. 37. Evening sermon, "Choosing a Man," text Matt. vi. 24. Our new primary and beginner's department in the basement is open to all little boys and girls without S. S. homes. The evangelistic services will be continued until Friday night, at 7.45 nightly.

We copy from "Gazette-News," of Asheville, N. C., of Feb. 22nd, 1912: "A very pretty home wedding occurred near Farm School, at 4.30 yesterday afternoon, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Rogers, when Miss Amy Joslyn and Stuart Whiffen were united in marriage by Rev. E. W. Childs, of Milwaukee. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreen, and the young couple stood before a great bank of ferns and palms as they took the vows. The ceremony was witnessed only by intimate friends of the family and a few of the faculty from the Normal and Collegiate Institute and the Home Industrial School. After the ceremony, delicious refreshments were served, and Mr. and Mrs. Whiffen left on the northbound train amid sincere congratulations and best wishes of their friends. Mrs. Whiffen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Joslyn, members of the corps of teachers and workers at the Farm School. She had greatly endeared herself to the people of the community. Mr. W. was formerly connected with the Y. M. C. A. work in Pennsylvania, but is now engaged in railroad work in Phila. They will reside in Hammononton, where both have friends and well-wishers unnumbered.

John Edwards, a stranger, was employed by Burt Simons to drive a bakery wagon. He was an attractive young man, dressed well, and made himself very agreeable to some of the fair sex. Last Tuesday he went to the city, to return at midnight, but he didn't. It develops that he had a wife in Camden, and another in Glassboro, who discovered each other. Consequently, Detective Cherry came down Tuesday, but missed his man. "Be sure your sin will find you out."

The annual school meeting will be held in Central Building on Wednesday, March 19th, at 3 p.m. Three members of the Board of Education are to be elected in place of Edwin Adams, F. C. Burt, and Mrs. H. K. Spear, whose terms expire. The Board ask that $9750 be raised by tax this year, for all sorts of incidental expenses, including a shower bath in Central. This latter is an innovation, the necessity for which we do not understand.

A novel sight was witnessed in the heavens last Sunday afternoon, from four to five o'clock. It was a distinct rainbow, almost in the zenith—a little west—bright and distinct, with a smaller one nearer the west. There had been no storm, few clouds, the sun bright. Many people saw the bow, and wondered,—declaring they never saw one before without clouds—and then much nearer the horizon.

We have a photograph of the great new building recently completed by the "Ellis Motor Co.," in Newark. This building has a frontage of 70 feet on Central Avenue, 238 feet on Second Street and 62 feet on New Street. The floors, roof, girders and columns are of reinforced concrete, while the side walls are brick. Floor area is about 25,000 square feet, and is said to be the most completely equipped automobile service plant in the state. We congratulate Walter upon his very evident prosperity.

Miss Helen Ludlam, elocutionist, daughter of Prof. Ludlam, of the Ludlam School of Dramatic Art, is booked for the concert in Bellevue Hall, March 20th. With an excellent lady quartette, and a violinist of note, the program will be one of the best ever rendered in Hammononton. To hear Miss Ludlam will alone be worth the price of a ticket. Tickets for sale at King's newsroom. Price, 25 and 35 cents.

M. E. Church, Pastor W. L. Shaw closes one year's pastorate at this church on Sunday next. In the morning he will preach on "Pure Religion," and in the evening on "Judah." Class meeting at 9.30; Bible School at noon; Junior League at 3; Epworth League at 6.45, in charge of H. C. Boughty. A cordial welcome to all.

Un-Claimed Letters.

The following letters remained unclaimed for in the Hammononton Post Office on Wednesday, Mar. 6, 1912:

Mrs. Philip Connolly Henry Meener
Mrs. Wm. Parker Miss Milla Hino
Mrs. Little Hino Katie Anderson
Mr. Thos. Bradley Miss Janet Hassell
Miss Albia Hensling Mrs. Ella Morron
Mrs. W. D. Hethered Mrs. Almonio Pinto
Antonio Pacano

Persons calling for any of the above will please state that it was advertised. THOS. C. ELVINS, Postmaster.

The ground has been well covered, this week,—snow falling on Monday, Tuesday, and nearly all day Wednesday. This turned to rain, Wednesday night, but too cold to uncover the earth.

Quality Paint Like Pure Gold is Standard

Don't delude yourself or let others fool and humbug you with cheap paint. The material and labor that goes to make up a really good paint has as much a standard of value as gold. When anyone gets below that standard, something's wrong. You are just as likely to get good paint at the so called low and cheap prices as you are to get real five dollar gold pieces at 50c each.

When you pay a brass price you can't expect to get gold.

Lucas TINTED GLOSS PAINT

ONCE USED—ALWAYS PREFERRED

is not cheap in the sense that the price is below standard. It costs enough to make possible the use of the very best materials and expert workmanship in its manufacture. It is good paint and covers so much more surface per gallon, lasts so much longer and is so very much more satisfactory in every respect that it's actually much cheaper than cheap paint.
