There are more reasons why you should come here for your Clothes than because we have got 'em for sale.

Not everybody is a judge of fabric, and a very few can tell all wool from part cotton, and know at the time you buy clothes whether they are tailored well enough to stay in shape after months of wear.

Everybody can tell which color they like, what style they want, and whether it fits or not. Now, what you ought to do for things you can't tell is, to take somebody's word for it. And here is where we come to your aid with a line of

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Clothes we assembled here. They are all made of strictly all wool fabric, and guaranteed to be right in every detail, even those little details that can't be seen when buying.

Will give a new suit for any one that fails to wear to your satisfaction

If your price for a suit is from $7.50 to $16.50, we do wish that you come in and give us a chance to show you clothes that we just received, for Spring and Summer wear.

They really are superior in quality and workmanship to anything ever shown before.

Our many years of practical experience was applied in selecting them, and you have our word for it that for each and every price we will fit you out better than you will be able to get anywhere else, even if you should pay a few dollars more.

perly and happily. The day and hour of his happiness had been determined when the hope of little Jim came to him, and how his tiny member was soothed, and how he looked upon his wife and child and thanked God for having spared them. His thoughts travelled rapidly on to the future, and how he would hold their money and felled, and when dark days closed in upon them. And through it all he saw again the happy face of his wife, and heard again her sweet voice.

He would know his letter, examining the notes, was returned and on the envelope was written "Come away. Left no address." For weeks my husband left no stone unturned and had him, but he could not find him. It was not until nearly three months later that he received my information. It was shortly after that he

SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1912

A Normal School Here.

South Jersey is entitled to a State Normal School. South Jersey students have to travel as far as Trenton to enter a State School. And yet there seems to be no great hurry on the part of the Legislature to provide the institution.

Speaking of this matter, the Camden "Post-Telegram" observes that Hudson County wants a State Normal School, and a bill providing for such an institution, to cost $300,000, has passed the House. But there is a bill providing for a State Normal School in South Jersey which has precedence over the Hudson measure, and which should become a law, with the necessary appropriation granted this year.

There is a more pressing need in this section of the State for Normal School facilities than there is in Hudson County, the residents of that County being provided for by the State School in the adjoining County, Essex.

There is no town in New Jersey more favorably located for a Normal School than is Hammonton; and its surroundings, drainage, and general healthiness, are such as to make it the ideal spot for the proposed institution.

Opportunities for Hammonton.

Hammonton can have several factories if it is half willing. Land is needed, where plenty of good water can be had, in a healthy locality, and that's right here. The following is one of the bona fide letters received by one of our citizens:

"Wanted,—25 acres of land. Railroad advantages. Must have ample quantity of water. Will employ large number of men and girls. Geo. E. Stump, Court House, Camden, N. J."

If you have anything that will answer this description, and you have the town's interests at heart, you will not ask a mint for it. Write Mr. Stump at once. Other towns will jump at it.

Bellevue Avenue has been very muddy the past few weeks, but not nearly so deep as 'twas before they applied the "juice." Throughout the County, and up toward Camden, the roads were in even a worse condition,—teams being "stuck" in several localities.

No walks or curbs can be laid without a permit; and all such must comply with specifications adopted by Town Council, and be inspected by their sidewalk committee, Messrs. Nicolai, Piez, and Turner.

That "storm sewerage" question is still being talked about. Unless the Town does something, the Board of Health may give them a hint.

Hammonton people like Rev. W. L. Shaw; and it is hoped that he will be returned to us.

The "Republican" has the circulation,— that's why so many advertise in it.

That hoary-headed piece of superstitious nonsense entitled "An Ancient Prayer," has again made its appearance in the mail. Sent out without signature, the document threatens the recipient with disaster unless its terms are complied with, and promises deliverance from all calamities, and granting of dearest wish, to him who makes and circulates copies of the same. The prayer itself is one which any of us might well use: "Oh, Lord Jesus, I implore thee to bless all mankind; keep us from all evil by thy precious blood, and take us to dwell with thee in eternity." But don't count on anything which the unknown writer can bring upon you for disobeying his unwarranted commands. 1911 nickels are now worth nearly one hundred dollars. Add 'em up, and see.

Another snow storm on Monday night—about two inches falling; but this turned to rain on Tuesday, and how it did rain that night! There was no snow on Wednesday—not a trace. The precipitation was one and sixty-two hundredths of an inch in twenty-four hours.

Next Thursday, the 21st, will be the first day of spring, according to the books. It is sincerely hoped that the thermometer will obey the calendar, and give us weather that will demand less coal and permit outdoor work.

Joseph Eckhardt died last Thursday, 7th inst., at his home in Folsom, aged 86 years. Mr. Eckhardt has lived right there in our neighborhood for many, many years, was well known in Hammonton. He had been sick for a long time, and his death was not unexpected. He was an industrious, hard-working man, highly respected by those who knew him best. Services were held Sunday afternoon, the attendance being very large.

Died, on Friday, March 8, 1912, Mrs. Cynthia E., wife of Mr. E. C. Lobell, in her seventy-third year. She was a resident of Hammonton for about forty-seven years. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, and one son. Interment was in Oakdale Cemetery, the Rev. H. A. Abbott officiating. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. L. Black, A. H. Whitmore, Edw. Cathcart, and Frank Ransom.

Have you a Church home? The Presbyterian Church invites you to worship at 10.30 a.m., to-morrow. Theme, "At Peace." Sabbath School at noon. A Business Men's League, or association, is being organized for the purpose of mutual protection, and through such action to advance Hammonton's best interests. A meeting will be held in the Gas Co's office next Monday evening at eight o'clock, to which every business man is invited. It is intended to perfect the organization at that time.

Communications.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—The recent Supreme Court decision sustaining the right of Council to order the laying of sidewalks, is a source of congratulation among all progressive citizens, although it seems to prove, as far as our town charter is concerned, that the hole is more valuable than the doughnut.

Council at present is following up this success with a laudable attempt at solving the dog nuisance, in which they should have the support of all intelligent citizens.

Should the Town Solicitor find that our precious charter does not confer the necessary power on Council, it may be that the necessary remedial measures can be applied through the police powers of our Board of Health. Below article from the editorial page of the New York Sun of March 8th last is of interest in this connection.

"Reports of deaths from rabies are brought from every direction, so that it is difficult to collate them. A rabid dog in Long Island caused a number of fine horses to be killed and several persons were bitten by this dog or by one infected by him. From New Jersey come stories of anxiety in many households, and a recent report of the California State laboratory records 240 examinations for rabies, of which eighty were positive. Sixty-eight human beings were bitten by rabid animals and five died from hydrophobia. The report states that there is every indication that the disease will continue to spread until it is curbed by the thorough muzzling of all dogs at large. Rabies can be more easily eradicated than any other important epidemic disease. The boards of health are either helpless or negligent in this matter. It is difficult to overcome the prejudices of a dog lover by suasion; therefore the police powers of the boards of health should be exercised without regard to personal feelings, just as they are enforced in the isolation of smallpox cases, no matter how cruel that may be for the patient or his friends. There may be no comfortable muzzles, but there are some that may be worn even by a pet of the household without pain or distress. Fido must be muzzled when he is at large; there should be no compunction about it."

March 12, 1912.

All over the country there is a movement to supply more ample playgrounds for the school children.

"Give them a chance for innocent sport. Give them a chance for fun—better a playground plot than a court. And put when the farm is done! Give them a chance. If you don't then now, give them a chance. If you don't then now, give them a chance. If you don't then now, give them a chance to play."

The school park will be an improvement and a benefit to the town but it is not a playground. The land adjoining the Central Buildings should be purchased for that purpose before it is cut up into building lots. Will its discussion at the coming school meeting be in order?

TAXPAYER.

MR. EDITOR: My grove of 2500 Catalpa species is growing nicely. I intend to end in another order, soon, and if anyone else wants any (from 30 upward) it will pay to touch the order. I get no commission. The trees are guaranteed. Nearly every farmer has room for a number of these trees. It is a paying investment. I can furnish prices. DR. C. CUNNINGHAM.

Lucas Tinted Gloss Paint

Quality Paint Like Pure Gold is Standard

Don't delude yourself or let others fool and humbug you with cheap paint. The material and labor that goes to make up a really good paint has as much a standard of value as gold. When anyone gets below that standard, something's wrong. You are just as likely to get good paint at the so called low and cheap prices as you are to get real five dollar gold pieces at 50c each.

When you pay a brass price you can't expect to get gold.

Lucas TINTED GLOSS PAINT

ONCE USED-ALWAYS PREFERRED

is not cheap in the sense that the price is below standard. It costs enough to make possible the use of the very best materials and expert workmanship in its manufacture. It is good paint and covers so much more surface per gallon, lasts so much longer and is so very much more satisfactory in every respect that it's actually much cheaper than cheap paint.
