DID YOU EVER

Stop to think what a fine piece of mechanism your watch is? and that you are injuring it by letting it run too long without having it cleaned and oiled?

A watch is injured more in one month, when running dirty, than in a year's time when properly cleaned and oiled.

Why neglect to have it cleaned, when you can get it done, and guaranteed, for One Dollar?

ELVINS & ROBERTS.

Flour.

The Flour market has advanced from 15 to 25 cents per barrel, first hands; but having secured a large stock before the advance, we still hold our price at old figures, thereby giving our customers the advantage.

We quote from $4.50 for good Family to $5.50 for Best Blended—Spring and Winter Wheat mixed—under our special brand "Royal," and for all baking purposes is certainly well worthy its name.

Feed.

We have always a full stock of all kinds of Feed.

While the market price on some kinds has advanced considerably, yet at the prices we are now quoting you will find us very low,—if anything, a little under the wholesale prices now prevailing.

Fertilizers.

We strongly advise placing orders for Fertilizers EARLY, especially for Dried and ground Fish Guano, which is exceedingly scarce. We have secured all we can, and are prepared to take orders; but the supply being very limited, "the first come first served." Order what you will want, NOW.

Mapes' Complete Manures for all crops are still popular. Our orders are now in for these goods, and they will be ready for delivery about March 1st, when we will be pleased to quote prices.

Berry Baskets.

We are now prepared to take your order for Quart and Pint Berry Baskets, for which, in view of the recent action of Commission Merchants in several of our markets, we anticipate a unusual demand. Place your orders early, as later they may be hard to get.

Washington Letter.

From our regular Correspondent.

Washington, March 18, 1893.

One of the most difficult roles ever attempted by a public man is that of settling himself up as being better than his party. This the friends of Mr. Cleveland have persistently done for him ever since his entrance into National politics, and the claims of his worshippers about his having refused to make one single promise during the last campaign have been louder than ever since his last inauguration. Well, the idol has been shattered, and in view of the whole world. One of the most prominent nominations to office he has made—ex-Governor Gray, of Indiana, to be Minister to Mexico—was the result of a bargain made at the Chicago convention; not, it is true, by Mr. Cleveland in person, but by his personal representative at that convention, Hon. W. C. Whitney, of New York. The terms of this bargain were that Gov. Gray was to withdraw as a Presidential candidate and throw the Indiana delegation to Mr. Cleveland, and in return was either to have a place in the Cabinet or a first class foreign mission, if Mr. Cleveland was nominated and elected. That bargain has now been carried out by Mr. Cleveland, just as any other politician would have carried it out, and it is about time there was a cessation of the talk about his being better than his party.

Mr. Cleveland's ingenious method of knocking the army of office seekers out by sections, as it were, shows that he is a wiser man than when he was President before, and has furnished no end of amusement for those not after office, as well as for the office seekers not in the prescribed sections. First, he disposed of the section that were after the offices held under four year commissions, by telling them that no official would be removed until the expiration of his term, except for cause. Next he jumped on the section that held office under his first administration, nearly all of whom were here ready and willing, not to say anxious, to again affix their autographs to the official pay roll, by telling them that none of them would receive an appointment, unless it were in some exceptional case where special qualifications were demanded—that were not possessed by any new applicant. And his last knock-out was directed at the Democratic editors who are hankering after the official flesh-pots. His words on this subject are herewith quoted for the special benefit of the editors of your Democratic contemporaries, who might otherwise make the mistake of expecting an office. "I have been surprised," said Mr. Cleveland to a Congressman who called on him in the interest of a Democratic journalist, "to notice the very large number of newspaper men who have made application for office. I remember that during the recent campaign, and in fact during the whole of the last administration, the Democratic newspapers charged that in the appointments of Whitelaw Reid, and other journalists, Mr. Harrison was attempting to subsidize the press. Now, don't you see that I would be laying myself open to precisely the same charges if I were to honor the drafts made on me by newspaper men? I do not like the idea, either, which the editors of the little Democratic papers all over the country seem to have, that they are entitled to the office of postmaster in their town."

Those close to the administration say that the withdrawal of the Hawaiian annexation treaty from the Senate does not indicate that Mr. Cleveland is opposed to annexation. They say that he thinks a more satisfactory treaty can be negotiated, and they predict that the new treaty will be negotiated and sent to the Senate before the present session comes to a close. In other words, if these gentlemen be correct in their statements, the principal objection to the treaty was that it was negotiated by a Republican, instead of by a Democratic administration.

The Democrats may not be inclined to favor the makers of "moonshine" whiskey, but official figures show that

Mr. Cleveland's first administration collected $51,095,682.04 less from internal revenue than the administration of President Arthur did, and $115,385,521.73 less than was collected during President Harrison's administration. This was a little queer, wasn't it?

Representative Henderson, of Iowa, predicts that the Fifty-second Congress will go down to posterity as "the know-nothing and do-nothing Congress," and indications are plenty that the Fifty-third Congress, which will be controlled by Democrats in both branches, will rival if not surpass it in knowing nothing and doing nothing.

There has been a red-hot, although not a public fight, over the re-organization of the Senate. It is not entirely over yet, but it has gone far enough to show that Mr. Cleveland has been defeated in his attempt to have the committee on finance made up in the interest of his own financial ideas and against silver. Senator Vorhees, a pronounced silver man, will be chairman, and a majority of its members will be silver men.

Daily, Sunday, Weekly.

A FAMILY PAPER

WHICH IS

Clean, Unsensational,
and Just the Paper
FOR THE American Home!

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware, and a near-at-home news is correct with a routine carelessness and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.

The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroad experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.

The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in our lists of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press. In politics, the Press knows no master other than the people, and the past year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political affiliations to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issues, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinction, and the rights of one class over another are not recognized nor supported.

Advertisements of Help Wanted, may be inserted in the Press for One Cent a Word. Advertisements of Situations Wanted, 1/2 Cent a Word. Special days for advertisements, Sunday, Wednesday, Saturday.

PAINT! PAINT!
—THE—
HAMMONTON.
When you buy the Hammonton Paint, you do not buy eveneighths of a gallon for a gallon,
or three pints for a half gallon;
nor do you get one of those packages that weigh 12 to 14 pounds, and containing so much alkali that it appears to be so thick that it is impossible to use it without thinning; but in buying the Hammonton you get a full standard gallon of paint, weighing 14 to 16 pounds to the gallon, made from the best materials known to the trade, and costs the consumer from $1
to $1.50 per gallon for honest paint.
If the purchaser doesn't want honest paint, and wants to be honest to himself, then he sure
to buy the Hammonton Paint, and the manufacturer will give a receipt with every gallon sold telling you how to make two gallons of paint out of one of the Hammonton. It will cost 33 cents for the extra gallon.
One Dollar.
And then here comes Commercial Paint, in 30 shades, the best wearing paint ever put on the market for so low a price as $1 per gallon, and guaranteed to be a first-class wearing paint. If any one should not want to pay so high a price for a good exterior paint, then work
the 33 cent racket, and get two gallons for $1.33. Manufactured at Hammonton Paint Works.

"I defy the man conversant with the history, in any degree acquainted with the annals of this country, from 1787 to 1789, when the Constitution was adopted, to say the protection of American labor and industry was not a leading,
I might almost say the leading, motive.
South as well as North, for the formation of the new Government. Without that provision the Constitution never could have been adopted."—Daniel Webster, 1844, Albany, N. Y.

This is a bad time to turn over the Government to the South. If we had waited until they had discovered more minerals and more largely built up their manufacturing establishments, they would have been more capable of appreciating the functions of a protective tariff, and the impending shock to our industrial system would have been avoided.

that the venerable Mr. Taylor is slowly sinking,—his death being only a question of hours.
St. Mark's Church, Fifth Sunday
in Lent. 7:30 A. M. Holy Communion.
10:30. Morning Prayer and Sermon.
5:00 P. M. Sunday School. No evening service.
A. H. Van Dusen and wife were in town on Thursday, looking for a house to rent; but found none large enough. They lived here ten or twelve years ago, and desire to return.
The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs.
Butherford's, on Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock. Subject of the meeting,
"Our Literature." Ladies not members are cordially invited to be present.
We are told that there is more building in contemplation, the coming summer, than ever before in our town's history. The demand for cottages for rent cannot be supplied. Sure signs of prosperity.
Lost,—on Thursday afternoon, on Railroad Avenue, between Union store
and Hammonton station, a lady's shoe and a pair of boy's boots. Finder will please leave at Murdoch's store, for Mrs. Minnie Wells, or at Jason St.
John's.

The Fate of "Miss Booth's Tea-Caddy"

BY CHARLES BATTIE LOMBS.

"Are there any letters, Miss Parfitt?" asked the lady sitting-room, who sat at the head of the table. "No, no letters," answered the lady sitting-room, who sat at the head of the table. "No, no letters," answered the lady sitting-room, who sat at the head of the table.

There are gardens of every kind, and in every place, but the ideal garden is a thing of beauty, and a thing of beauty is a thing of beauty. The ideal garden is a thing of beauty, and a thing of beauty is a thing of beauty.

THE VENUE OF THE EAST.

Who has not heard of the Vale of Cashmere? Yet of the many thousands of people who have seen it, not more than a few have seen it in its true beauty. The Vale of Cashmere is a thing of beauty, and a thing of beauty is a thing of beauty.
