The second foot-race—winner to receive a silver cup,—will be held next Thursday, 30th, starting at four o'clock. Also a mile race for boys under 15, to start at three; and a hundred yards dash for boys of 16 and over, to start at 3.30. A prize will be given if the time record in the triangle race, 25.06, is broken.

DUTCH Cakes To-day, -10 c, ones for 8 c, 5 c ones for 4 cents. Home Bakery.

The Board of Trade met Tuesday evening, there being a fair attendance. They decided to get out a booklet,—it being in the hands of the Committee.—Other matters were discussed, some quite vital. The old officers will hold over. Next meeting, April 11th.

Rev. Walter E. Shaw, formerly of Atlantic Highlands, succeeds Rev. James E. Shaw as pastor of the Hammonton M. E. Church. He comes highly recommended. Give him the glad hand. The late pastor goes to the Second Church, Millville.
