The Drink or the Job.

You young men, or middle-aged men, or old men, had best take note of the signs of the times, and make up your minds to the fact that in this day and generation it is your drink or your job. You may compromise with your conscience, or laugh at the oracular temperance orator, but you cannot fool the man with your job in his hand. Nor can you sign a truce with the growing ostracism that separates success from the man who habitually crooks his elbow.

—Atlanta Constitution.

S. T. Twomey has been suffering for about five weeks with a heavy cold and lagrippe—his first bad spell in forty years. He is improving nicely.

Next meeting of the Emergency League will be held at the home of Mrs. Dumfee, 217 Vine St., next Tuesday, two o'clock. All cordially invited.

Joe Clemente, well known here for many years, and long employed by Wm. L. Black, died Thursday morning, following a fall from his wagon on Tuesday, striking on his head on frozen ground. A wife and several children survive him.

Messrs John Walther, H. L. McIntyre, W. J. Vernier, Peter Tell, and Jos. Mart, went to Ocean Grove, Tuesday, to inspect the motor drawn chemical engine which was offered Hammonton. They found it no longer young, either in speed or mechanism.

Henry Poyer died on Thursday afternoon, March 23rd, after long illness, at his home on North Third Street, aged 72 years. Mr. Poyer has been a resident of Hammonton these many years—a good man in all relations of life, respected by all. He was a soldier in the Civil War, a faithful member of the Grand Army of the Republic. For a number of years he has been unable to work, but almost daily walked about town. Our sympathy is with the bereaved wife, and we too shall miss him. Funeral services will be held at his late residence on Tuesday afternoon, two o'clock, and at St. Mark's Church at 2.30.
