Imported cheap labor is less dangerous and injurious to our home labor than imported cheap labor products, but both must be held in check by governmental protection in the form of immigration laws and McKinley laws, or our labor will be overwhelmed and degraded.

There is one thing that they all might as well make up their minds to down in the East—that they can't have wool free when it comes from the sheep's back and put a Tariff on it when it comes on our backs. They can't have wool come into their factories in New England free and come out of their factories with a Tariff to the American people.—Governor McKinley.

From Sorrow's Waves.

O, God, who gavest life and all life holds, Is there no slumberous land, No Lethe shore that life's last hour enfolds?
Oh, must we carry hence, beyond the tomb, These thoughts that burn, the shadow of our gloom,
The smiting by thy hand?

The days of life, what hold they good in store That passeth not away?
Day follows day, but, going swift before,
A formless shape its shadow leaves behind, Through which our feet the devious ways must wind,
In dust of ages gray.

O, Christ, our Lord, we cry aloud to thee

From sorrow's waves;
Longing to hear thy voice of Galilee Speak to our souls "Peace, peace; be still!"
And see the Dark, moved by thy loving will, Flee to its caverned graves!

But tho' we cry aloud, and moan, and weep, Thy voice we cannot hear Above the surging waves that 'round us sweep—Tempestuous passions,—whose wild surge assail

The citadel of life, until life falls And leth dead and sear.
But though thou dost not still the winds that rave,

Thou shiniest bright, afar, Through all the Dark, above the winds and wave;
And Hope, beside our graves, with beaming eye, Points upward, crying "See, far up the sky,
The bright, the Morning Star!"

W. H. HOPPING.

From a very interesting letter written by Dr. S. S. Nivison, and published in the Daily Journal of Ithaca, N. Y., we cull the following extracts:

My system of treatment is in no sense the result of chance or sudden discovery.
On the other hand I have been working on this medical problem, and with a fair measure of success, for an extended period. But not until recently have I felt warranted in announcing that I have at last, and unmistakably, solved this vexed problem, and "by a rule or law which gives the same results every time.

My system of treatment is strictly original, and bears not the slightest resemblance, therapeutically or in the manner of its administration, to any other mode of treatment for alcoholism, now, or heretofore before the public.
That I am able to grapple successfully, not only with the worst phase of the liquor habit, but that my remedies are harmless, entirely and absolutely so, both in their primary and secondary effects; furthermore that they are markedly aidful in restoring tone and invigoration to the blood and nervous system. I wish to still qualify by saying that my remedies contain not a drop of liquor or poisonous drug of any kind; not an atom of chloride of gold or any other mineral; that they are neither narcotic, sedative, anaesthetic, nor stimulant. They are tonic, specifically alterative and curative—nothing more, nothing less. After a few days' use of these specific remedies, all desire for stimulants has been overcome. It is desirable that the patient submit to a course of constitutional treatment, more or less extended, in keeping with the needs of his or her individual case.
The course of treatment strictly required, will, in ordinary cases, range from two to four weeks, and the more thoroughly the medical treatment is supported by well appointed hygienic and sanitary measures, the more satisfactory and complete will be the cure.

I shall henceforth spare neither labor nor pains to place as rapidly as possible, my remedies, along with the necessary instruction for their proper administration, in the hands of at least one good physician in each town, county and state of the entire country, confidently believing that so long as dram shops abound, and the legalized liquor traffic is steadily on the increase in every part of these United States, the least one can do, or afford to leave undone, is contending with the results, that is to say, giving freedom to the captives, enslaved by rum, thus practically "overcoming evil with good."

My own theory is that the liquor traffic is not only a curse but a crime, and should therefore be legally and straightway banished from the land; thus ending at a stroke the pauperism and misery which it entails. But I am not a maker of laws, alas, I may not even wield a vote, to endorse or annul a law, however righteous or corrupt.
I am not a temperance lecturer; least of all have I military power or prestige.
But as long as the war is on, and the enemy is at our very doors, invading our homes, dealing out death and destruction, sweeping down millions of our most gifted and cherished men and women throughout the land—be it the humble, heaven-commissioned service, of following with ambulance and tomb; to rescue the fallen, to administer the potent draught which shall succor and bring to life again, the otherwise dying victims.

Physicians' Circular, Chgo. X
SUNDAY, HAMMONTON, N. J., June 13, 1892.
One bottle of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured me entirely, after physicians had tried unsuccessfully for eight months to relieve most nervous debility.

Dr. J. H. Grant, June 14, 1891.
My wife has taken six bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and has had a return of the fits, and I think this remedy has had the desired effect. I cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering from that dreadful malady, "Epilepsy."

BROCKTON, Mass., June 17, 1890.
About a year ago I suffered from a bad continually shaking. I tried different medicines but they all had no effect. After using three or four bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic my hand ceased to shake and I found myself gaining every day. I think this medicine is one of the greatest remedies.

The Republican.

(Entered as second class matter.)

SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1892.

Short Tariff Sermons.

NO. XII.

There are three ways of levying duties:

1st. An ad valorem rate, or a certain per cent. of the declared value, as, for instance, the duty on swords is thirty-five per cent. of their value at the time imported; on boots and shoes twenty per cent. of their value.

2d. A specific rate, or so much per pound, yard, ton, gallon, bushel, &c., regardless of value; for instance, the duty on eggs is five cents per dozen, on steel rails six-cents of one cent per round, or $13.44 per long ton of 2240 pounds.

3d. An ad valorem and specific rate combined, as, for instance, the duty on Brussels carpets is 44 cents per square yard, or 44 per cent. of their value; on cologne water $2 per gallon and 50 per cent ad valorem.

In computing the rate per cent. a specific duty must be reduced to an equivalent ad valorem rate. For instance, the duty on hay is $4 per ton.

If hay were imported at a value of $10 per ton, the equivalent ad valorem rate would be 40 per cent. Of course, to find the actual ad valorem rate per cent.

we must divide actual duties collected from actual importations, which will give the real and true rate per cent. on dutiable imports.

Formerly the ad valorem rate prevailed, but this resulted in undervaluation to such a degree that the duties have been made more and more specific.

This is a great feature of the McKinley law. In nearly every case possible a specific duty is levied.

Most Free-Traders object to this method, claiming that a fall or rise in price makes the duty ineffectual. But if the people will elect a Protectionist Congress every two years, changes will be made in the future as in the past to meet all changes in value. Even Mr.

Manning, President Cleveland's Secretary of the Treasury, in an annual report, advocated and insisted on specific duties. So will every honest man desiring to prevent fraud in importations. — American Economist.

The Democrats were just as positive that the McKinley bill was unconstitutional as they were that it was ruinous and would utterly destroy the foreign trade of the country. The Supreme Court has explained how badly they were mistaken on the first point, and has shown that the law is constitutional and valid in every particular. The figures giving the imports and exports for the last year show a great growth instead of falling off in foreign trade, and conclusively dispose of the second objection of the Democrats made to the McKinley tariff.

Ask a lawyer if he would like all those engaged in other occupations or professions to become lawyers and compete with him, and he will quickly answer

No. Ask a merchant whether he would not be glad to see all the who are manufacturers or importers change their business and become merchants too, and he will speedily express his dis-approbation of any such scheme. Yet the Free-Traders want to make us a nation of agriculturists and they ask the farmer to quit with joy a system that would transform all those who are No manna is being prepared in

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs.

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, is a money to cure, or money will be paid back.

HE Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss your chance! The only remedy that restores vitality, and from last cause live in poverty and die in destitution! Harrowing despair is the lot of many, as they look back on their lost opportunities. Life is passing by! Reach out! Be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life, and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Lay aside every chance that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give at least a grand start in life. The golden opportunity is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and the money. When the money comes, even beginners are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well if you will work not too hard, but industri-ously; and you can increase your money every day. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how. Free. Future unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free, by return mail. Urge to delay. Address at once, H. H. Hallett & Co., Box 500, Portland, Maine.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the state and near at home news is covered with a routine carelessness and attention to detailing, even attempted by any other paper.
The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroad experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.
The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high as our lights of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.
In politics, The Press knows no other master than the people, and the past year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issues, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. It page knows no distinction, and the rights of one class over another are not recognized nor supported.

The TRIBUNE for 1892.
Roswell G. Horr on the Tariff.
The Republican party, triumphant in 1891, where-ever national issues were at stake, renews, aggressively and bravely, the fight for 1892. The New York TRIBUNE, the ablest, most reliable, and best of all Republican papers, leads the way.
During 1892, Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, the witty orator, will continue in the Tribune his remarkable articles on the Tariff, Reciprocity, Colnago, and the Currency. These topics are all understandable; the Republican policy with regard to all of them is right, patriotic, and irrefragable; but dust has been thrown in the people's eyes, and the air has been filled with fog, by lying and tricky Tariff Reformers.
The Tribune prints, round one to five exceedingly entertaining articles every week, explaining these questions.
Mr. Horr begins at the beginning of every subject, and makes it so clear that every one can understand and no one can answer him. Ask any neighbor what he thinks of Mr. Horr's writings. He will tell you that they are genial, clear, entertaining, and perfectly unanswerable. A specialty is made of answering all questions, asked in good faith, on the Tariff, on the Tariff, Reciprocity, Colnago, the Currency, and the prospects of the Farmer's Alliance. The Tribune is the best national Republican paper to supplement your local paper during 1892.

How to Succeed in Life.
The Tribune will also continue the series of articles to Young Men and Women, penned by men who, beginning life themselves as boys, advancing, have evertheless succeeded honorably and brilliantly. It will also reply to questions as to what young men and women should do to succeed in life, under the particular circumstances in which their lot in life is cast.
The replies will be written under the direction of Mr.
Horr, whose familiarity with American life and opportunities, and whose deep and cordial sympathy with all who are struggling under adverse circumstances, promise to make the replies practical and satisfactory.
Vital Topics of the Day.
Many special contributions will be printed, from men and women of distinguished reputation. Among the topics are: Silver Colnago, the latest views; Proter Function of the Minority in Legislation; to include one paper each from a Democrat and a Republican, prominent in public life; Harmful Tendencies of Trusts; Arid Lands of the United States; Millionaires of the United States; Better Pay for Fourth Class Postmasters; Importance of the Nicaragua Canal; Village Improvement; Our German Fellow-Citizen in America;—and many others.

Agriculture.
In addition to the regular two pages a week of how to run a farm and make it pay, there will be, during 1892, special papers on: Hot House Lamb; Model Farm; Tobacco Raising; Sugar Beets; Fancy High Priced Butter Making; Care of Bees; Market Gardening; Live Stock; and a variety of other equally important branches of American farming.

For Old Soldiers.
For veterans of the war, there will be a page a week of war stories, answers to questions, news and gossip.
Mrs. Annie Wittenmyer will supply an interesting column of news of the W. B. C. The Tribune's War Stories of the past year have never been surpassed for thrilling interest.

For Families.
Families will value the pages devoted to—Questions and Answers; Household Decoration; Home Interests; Cooking; Entertaining and Crochet; Young Folks, and the Fashions.

A great editorial page will be printed, and action, feature letters, book reviews, travel, checkers and chess and fun abundantly supplied.

turns are not yet in showing the total capital invested in manufacturing, but it cannot be far from $4,000,000,000.
In other words, almost one-half of the Prospectus for 1892.

It has not been our custom to issue a prospectus. A NEWSPAPER can never tell beforehand just what subjects will be discussed. We hold ourselves in readiness, however, with our well trained editorial force, and our large staff of special contributors, to treat any subject which may present itself during the year. Our plans for 1892 contemplate an enlargement of our news department, a perfecting of the other departments, and the bringing up of the entire paper to a still higher standard of efficiency.
PREMIUMS.
The National Baptist is offering a line of most attractive premiums. For example, communion services, organs and hymn-books, valuable books of reference and general information, four tin pens. One of its most attractive offers is the one offering to the new subscriber and to the person securing the new name, each a volume of Prof. Drummond's famous addresses, attractively bound in white and gold.
AGENTS
Are wanted in every Church to canvass for new names. Liberal commissions are offered.
Past experience has shown that a goodly number of new names can be quickly gathered by a good agent.
THE PRICE
Is $2 per year, in advance. Send for sample copies, which will be cheerfully sent. Address all communications to serial and short stories and a Fuzzler's Realism: it supplies review articles, book notices, literary, scientific and art chat, sermons, Sunday School lessons and educational information, has home farm and garden departments, market reports, a regular Washington letter,—in short, takes into a whole ribbing family every week something
