The Board of Education.

The first meeting of the new Board was held on Tuesday evening. Called to order by J. L. O'Donnell.

C. F. Osgood was unanimously re-elected President. D. S. Cunningham received five votes for District Clerk; J. L. O'Donnell, two.

Bills ordered paid:

Six applications for appointment as teacher the coming year were read,— three being from Hammontonians, the others from prospective graduates of the State Normal School. All were received and filed.

The subject of charging tuition for pupils whose parents or guardians are not residents of the town, was talked around, but no action taken.

The question of Clerk's salary caused considerable discussion. A motion to pay him $150 this year was voted down, and the present salary of $75 voted continued.

Dr. Edw. North having forwarded to the County Superintendent his resignation as member of the Board, the town was canvassed, mentally and verbally, for a satisfactory person to recommend to Mr. Hoffman, who will fill vacancy; but no decision was reached; and the matter was postponed until the next meeting.

The following rules were adopted to govern the Board this year:

1. The Board shall meet regularly on the second Tuesday of each month, at 7:30 p. m.
2. Special meetings may be called by the President, by the District Clerk, or the President when requested to do so in writing by any two members of the Board.

3. The following committees shall be appointed: Finance; Committee on Property; Committee on Books; Committee on Schools.
4. The Committee on Property shall estimate the repairs necessary for the school houses during vacation; receive, open, and declare all bids for fuel or supplies; and perform any other duties assigned to it by the Board.

5. The Committee on Books shall examine and select all books desired for the school, and report to the Board, also examine, as far as possible, the condition of books, and report any changes or rules necessary for their preservation, as well as perform any other duties assigned them by the Board.

6. The Committee on Schools shall consist of one member of the Board for each school (excepting Central, which may consist of one or more members), who shall visit the schools if possible, at least once during each month.
The committee thus appointed shall report at each regular meeting of the Board the condition of the schools and also any recommendation necessary for their improvement.
Changes may be made in these committees at any time when deemed proper by the Board to do so.

7. All committees shall be appointed by the President, who shall be ex-officio member of all committees. The District Clerk shall be ex-officio member of the Committee on Property.

8. In the month of February, or sooner if necessary, the President shall appoint a Committee on Finance, which shall audit the accounts and vouchers of the District Clerk.

9. The Principal of the schools or any of the teachers shall have the privilege of attending the meetings of the Board and speaking on any subject pertaining to the studies or government pursued in the school.

10. Citizens not members of the Board shall have the privilege of attending the meetings and present any matters in which they are interested, and may remain at the meeting if no objections are made by any member.

11. All teachers shall be elected by ballot.

12. Regulations for the discussion of questions by the Board.

President Osgood appointed the following Standing Committees:

Finance, Messrs. Jacobs, O'Donnell, and the new appointee.

Property, Messrs. Adams, Jacobs, and O'Donnell.

Text-Books, etc., Mrs. Beverage, Miss Pressey, Miss Seely.

The visiting committees will be appointed at a subsequent meeting.

The subject of teachers was then introduced; and as this is very properly discussed in the presence of members of the Board only, our representative retired as gracefully as possible.

The Cleveland conception of "civil service reform" was to grab every office in sight and keep federal patronage out of the reach of Republicans.

tration on the subject of getting the flects every object. It is unbreakable, for hard work.

pend upon it time will improve you.

and if we observe we shall find that all human virtues increase and strengthen themselves by the practice and experience of them.

A Delightful and Interesting Trip to Washington.

To visit Washington at any time—to behold its fine avenues and its grand buildings—is a delight; but to visit it in the early Springtime, when the soft Southern sun is recalling the daffodils and crocuses from their Winter beds and filling the air with a life-giving warmth, is an exquisite pleasure. Such a visit is afforded by the three-day tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad which leaves New York and Philadelphia April 1st, under personal escort. This tour of the city covers all the principal points of interest, including the new Congressional Library, which, with its grand marble stairways, its magnificent pillars, its exquisite statues and beautiful frescoes, has been pronounced the handsomest building at the Capital. Congress will no doubt be in extra session.

Round-trip rate, including accommo-

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters will improve the appetite, aid digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50 cts. or $1 per bottle at Croft's.

The H. A. A. played their first out-door game of basketball last Saturday, on the football field. It was not altogether a success, but the boys could not claim that it was too hot to play. The score was, married men 9; single men 2. Goals from field—Austin 3, Westcott 1, Watt 1. Goal from foul, Cordery 1.

The new time-card on the A. C. R. R. makes important changes. Up trains leave Hammoncton at 5:10, 8:30, 9:00, 9:35 a. m.; 2:10, 6:32, 7:45 p. m. The popular down express, reaching here at 2:49 p. m. now runs without stop, as does the 5:49. Patrons will not approve this arrangement.

JOHN T. FRENCH, P. M.

At the annual meeting of the Greenmount Cemetery Association last Saturday evening, Messrs E. J. Woolley, Alex. Aitken, W. L. Black, G. W. Pressey, J. B. Small, and Chas. F. Crowell were elected Trustees. At a meeting held later, the Trustees elected the following:

President, E. J. Woolley.
Vice-Pres., Alex. Aitken.
Secretary, W. L. Black.
Treasurer, G. W. Pressey.

Wild garlic has long proved a nuisance to this locality,—springing up among the grass on lawns and in pastures. It spoils the flavor of milk and meat; in wheat or rye fields, the garlic taints the grain in flavor, and spoils it for milling. From the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture we have a recommendation to use carbolic acid,—the cheaper quality, worth 39 to 40 cents per gallon. Don't dilute it. On a lawn, squirt a teaspoonful from an ordinary machine oil can so as to strike most of the shoots, and the root will die. On larger patches, use a watering-pot with a small rose. This method killed a vigorous growth of the pest on the eight acres about the White House.

Tour to California via Penna. R. R. In Southern California is found the realization of a dream of the ancients. Here are the "Golden Apples of the Hesperides," ripening beneath a sky more beautiful than that of Rome, and in a climate more perfect than that of Athens.

New in the wildest flights of his imagination did either Homer or Hesiod ever conceive of a garden richer in verdant beauty, more productive of luscious fruits, or set amid more picturesque and lovely surroundings. Here the rose entwines the orange, and the snow-mantled peaks of the Sierra reflect the golden glow of the evening twilight.

The last of the Penna. R. R. tour to California will leave New York and Philadelphia March 27, stopping at Chicago, Omaha, Denver, Colorado Springs, and the "Garden of the Gods," and at Salt Lake City.

C. C. COMBES AND FAMILY.

Mr. John Ballard, Sr., died at the residence of his son, on Tuesday morning, aged 71 years. He has been a resident of Hammoncton for many years, a hard-working man. Ever since we have known him he has been crippled by rheumatism, and for several years he was rendered unable to work, latterly almost entirely helpless, suffering as was seldom compelled to suffer. A sincere Christian, he looked forward to death as a relief from pain and an entrance-way into peace and happiness. Funeral service at the house on Thursday, conducted by Pastor Killian.

Published by request.

THE MESSIAH.

Mary, daughter of A. J. and Lizzie McKee, died at Hammoncton, N. J., Feb. 26th, 1897, aged 17 years. Funeral services were held in St. Joseph's R. C. Church on the 28th inst. at Greenmount Cemetery. It is a familiar saying that the good die young, and this was true of her whose departure we here record. In the bloom of life, when the star of hope shined brightest and the joys of the world are most alluring, she was called away, but to her last summons brought neither terror nor regret. She willingly gave up these ambitious hopes so dear to the heart of youth for the assurance of a blessed immortality; and while the friends around her were hoping against hope, or waiting in anxious suspense, she alone was calm and resigned, and looking away from the fleeting scenes of time toward the spiritual vision of the glories of the better world. Our sympathy is with the bereaved family in their hour of sorrow. Deeply as they feel the breaking of nature's tie, they are still cheered by fond memories of the loved one, whose life was an example of Christian virtue, whose death was a triumph of Christian faith, and who now rests in "the house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

O, muse of sorrow, wake thy low breathed numbers. And let thy mournful measure softly flow. Hither from below, dearer, dearer, dearer, another young head lays its dark locks low.

With firm brave heart, and words of hope she smiled to friends' devoted care. O, wake the dark stream, its waters all un-fearful. But not alone, for God was with her there. Mary is gone; but who shall tell the greeting of her glad spirit in the realm of light? What but an angel pen describe the meeting of her soul with God's glorious light?

Oh, mourning parents, young companions, grieving, cheered by the thought, let your hearts expand. For the tears and nature's pain relieving, As faith beholds her in the brighter land.

A. J. KING, Sec'y.
