DR. JOHN BULL'S

FOR THE CURE OF

FEVER and ACUE Or CHILLS and FEVER,

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAPE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PER-MANENT ours of Agus and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long stand-ing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. CAUGHT BY AN OCTOPUS .- A diver who was trying to find pearls off the Alaska coast, found none, but found himself, all of a sudden, in the grasp of an ugly octupus with arms twenty-seven feet long. Such an experience is rare; but there are thousands of people who are caught by dyspepsia, which is quite as bad. An octopus hates to let go. So does dyspepsia. Brown's Iron Bitters settles dyspepsia, and makes it loose its cruel grip. Mrs. Schmidt and her daughter, of 136 Conway street, Baltimore, were both cured of dyspepsia by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

The ordinary cough or coid, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

Strong in the faith of woman I lift mine eyes to thine,

I feel thou art a true man To love as fond as mine, Fond as the flower that turneth

To where the sunbeams shine

What need of words revealing All thou dost know full well

True love hath no concealing, And eyes will secrets tell,

Love firm as rocks still braving

Within thy hand now laying My hand I place secure, Nor doubt nor fear hetraying;

My faith is fast and sure Fast as the twining ivy,

Nay, if my pulses flutter, 'Tis not the throb of fear

My lips no word could utter Of doubt while thou art near; So let my stay be ever

Yes-draw me to thee nearer.

Than chiming water's flow, Tell me the love thou feelest

Oh! thus upon thee leaning, As woman ever should,

Thine arm so strong and dear.

Thy heart may learn the meaning

As for Rupert, he had taken wonderfully to his new friends, and as his old nurse went with him, his childish sorrow was soon consoled by the novelty of the journey, and the change of scene.

There is a plain little red church in Albany in which the Quakers have worshipped for more than half a century. Formerly the edifice was filled every subath by a prim, quiet congregation, who gathered from the surrounding country. Of late years the membership has gradually decayed, until now there is no pastor, but at 11 o'clock on Sundays the deep is no pastor, but at 11 o'clock on Sundays the deep is no pastor, but at 12 o'clock on Sundays the deep in the pastor of the surrounding the seven or days the door is unlocked and seven or eight persons enter and take seats. No word is spoken usually, and after an hoar's quiet meditation the oldest one present will arise and stretch out his hand to the one sitting nearest him. Hands are shaken all around, and the congregation departs to do the same thing the next Sunday. If the spirit moves any one to pray or speak he does so. Four times a year a general meeting is held and then twenty or twenty-five persons gather, and once or twice a year a preacher attends. And this is the life

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "28 Colar St., Now York, Oct. 28, 1882. "Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about dive years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Yourstruly, W. M. PHILLIPS." Yourstruly,

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable ftching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever In ored. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The scree have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every remost.—being now able to do a good day's respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you. AYER'S SAESAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully, 21, 1882. HIRAM PHILLIPS."
