MR. EDITOR:—Much has been said and written of the Philadelphia Bourse; but all one reads and hears about it can not give an idea of the reality. One must see and examine its workings to have a perfect understanding of the immense business done there. Com-mercially, its benefits to the business men of that city are almost incalculable.
In produce, in provisions, in stocks, in all things, it is a great evener of business. A short visit made there a few days ago by the writer, our mind was greatly enlightened, and we learned that in every branch of business men are finding it a great trade promoter and convenience. In the time the Grocers' Exchange has been operating in the Bourse, the business has increased four hundred per cent., and so with other branches of trade. It will pay any one to visit the exchange room in hours of business. The building occupies the ground of the old Fifth Street Market, extending from Fourth to Fifth, below Market, and is one business men are and may be proud of. Business men, visit and see for yourselves. H. E. B.

And now that we are on the top ways of enthusiasm for bells, would it not be a good time to get a move-on us for a regular cathedral bell and town clock?
We have only to get at it, to do it. A new steam fire engine, water works and new street lighting will come in the near future. J. H. P.

MR. EDITOR:—I hear it rumored on the street that the 30th of May (Memorial Day) is to be made a wild-cat day for all sorts of games, including bicycle racing and what not. Our American element certainly would not so desecrate the day. And other elements must be taught not to do so. W.

PEAK BELL RINGERS.

They Entertained the Public Mass

Not many people are aware that in the houses at 354 South First street is living a bright, entertaining old man, who for forty years won popularity and fame among music-loving people in the United States and Canada as the head of the Peak family of Swiss bell ringers, says the Brooklyn Eagle. His eighty-eight years weigh lightly upon his shoulders, for in general health and activity he is the peer of many a man scarcely two score years his junior, and his touch on the keys of the piano and organ is delightfully graceful and true. Indeed, it may be said that William M. Peak is thoroughly enjoying his up through life, and which still seems to fill all his recollections of the past and thoughts of the present with the spirit of melody.

My father came to organize my family into a troupe of children in 1882. He was in the early fifties, and our children were able to perform well on the harp and other musical instruments, while my father had gained fame as a virtuoso on the piano and the violin. You see we were a thoroughly musical family, some of my children having appeared in public when they were only 3 or 4 years old. Well, Barnum was enthusiastic over Swiss bell-ringing, and when he saw that I came from Switzerland, and I saw that he heard them at his American museum in New York. From that moment I was enthusiastic over Swiss bell-ringing, and when he saw that I came from Switzerland, I organized the family troupe, which gained almost instantaneous popularity and distinction.

We had other musical features, of course, and I had a few child artists. Sometimes we had fifteen or seventeen persons in the troupe. My family consisted of seven—namely, my wife, myself, and my five children. William, my oldest son, was born in 1870. My wife and Lizette are dead. William is in the West in a company with his brother Edward. Julia is in Boston and Fanny is in Milwaukee. All my children are now professional musicians and successful musicians. My own work is done, except that I still play a little for my own entertainment, and once in a while for old friends.

My wife and I have been married thirty years ago and more, both at the city of the town and down by the city hall, and at the Athenaeum on Atlantic ave-

the old days it was a public hall, known first as the Odeon and afterwards as the Casino. When I returned to Vienna here over ten years ago I became greatly attached to the Rev. Dr. Anton Guernin, then the pastor of St. Salvator Universalist Church, and as a member of the choir. To-day, I am glad to let my friends know that I am not broken down or feeble."

MR. GUERNIN'S BEARD.

It resembles that of the Prince of Wales Too Closely to Be Popular.

It is said at the city hall that Assistant Corporation Counsel Guernin is the most popular man in the city for putting his beard and keeping his mustache in order. The idea was unconsciously given Mr. Guernin by Mr. Rubens. The latter visited Europe some years ago and saw a picture of a man with a lot of various things. "You may have noticed in Emperor William's pictures," remarked Mr. Rubens to a party of friends, Mr. Guernin-being of the party—"that he has a beard and a prepossessing of a more decided and pronounced character. The ends are like a bunch of wires. As his mustache becomes more characteristic William becomes more like a German. He has a schauarratt! like Bismarck's. Germany won't hold him."

"What does he do to stiffen his mustache?" inquired Mr. Guernin, in an astonished tone.

"Every morning he is visited by a barber who curls and combs it and anavizes it and massages and manifies it," replied Mr. Rubens. "There is no doubt that the Emperor's mustache, for he has a kind of Samlautische superstition about it. He feels that his reputation as a war-hard depends upon it."

He himself is training for ward, and is doing well, some of the safety of the world, as expressed, and even threatened, on the part of the Wuerfen Tone Club on account of Mr. Guerin's beard, which closely resembles that of the Prince of Wales in point of color and cut. In the interim, however, the prince has also grown gray, and Mr. Guerin, therefore, will adopt the Kaiser Wilhelm style of facial adornment, and here is a chance for a barber.—Chicago Post.

Professional Courtesy.
The casual visitor of the bland disfigurement leaned over the shoulder of the regular humorist.
"So you're the man who sees the funny side of everything?" he chorused.
"Yes," the police reporter hastened to say. "To even see the funny side of his own jokes."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

[Entered as second class matter.]

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1896.

Murray Mackenzie, of Philadelphia, formerly of Baltimore, died early on Wednesday morning at the residence of Mrs. C. S. Brett, Central Avenue, Hamonton, aged 17 years. The young man was brought here by his parents about five weeks ago, then almost hopelessly ill with consumption. Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church on Friday afternoon, conducted by Pastor Killian.

Friday, May 16th, will be the last day of school in Hamonton. It has also been selected as Commencement Day, when the first class to graduate under our own course of study will hold their public exercises. We understand there will probably be eleven graduates and all take part. It is planned to have a trained chorus of one hundred voices selected from the pupils, an orchestra of six or more instruments, and an address.

A very interesting meeting of the H. A. A. was held on Monday evening. Committee reported that the Base Ball Club had decided not to join the Association. Committees were appointed to regulate the several sports, as follows: Base Ball, H. M. Phillips, Geo. A. Elvins, and D. Cottrell. Bicycle, Robt. Steel, E. A. Cordary, and D. Cottrell. Tennis, M. S. Whittier, Mark A. Pressy, and D. Cottrell. Cricket, H. M. Phillips, Albert L. Jackson, D. Cottrell.

Ladies' Interest.—A. K. Bernhouse, A. V. W. Setley, and D. Cottrell. Five names were proposed for membership, and the three proposed at last meeting were elected.

During the temporary absence of Mrs. M. DePuy, Tuesday afternoon, the rear door of her residence, corner of Main and Middle Roads, was forced open, and the house invaded. Evidently the burglar was interrupted in some way, for the only articles missed were a pair of shoes belonging to Elmer DePuy, a silk muffler and a linen handkerchief. The matter being reported to night-police Joseph H. Garton, he that evening put parties on the watch, and later found the goods at Swanik's oyster bar, where they had been left by a tramp. Garton got a description of the man, and in a short time had him in the lock-up. Thursday morning he was brought before Justice Atkinson, gave his name as Charles Anderson, of Boston, was identified by Mr. Swanik, the goods identified by Mr. DePuy, and the prisoner committed to jail in default of two hundred dollars bail. Quick work, and good.

The following preamble and resolution were passed by Fidelity Lodge of Odd Fellows, Linwood:

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove our beloved brother, Sherman DeMille, M. D., a member of this Lodge; and
Whereas, We desire to put on record our testimony of respect to his many many qualities; and also to extend to his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of affliction; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the charter of this Lodge be draped for thirty days; that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Lodge; and that they be printed in the Pleasantville and Hamonton papers.

List of uncollected letters in the Hamonton Post-Office, on Saturday, March 23, 1896:

Mrs. Hedwig.
Ardemeghe Pietro.
Persons calling for any of the above letters will please state that it has been advertised.

JOHN T. FRENCH, P. M.

While New Jersey has been spending millions in the last thirty-odd years, it has been accumulating assets. It owns the two magnificent insane hospitals at Morris Plains and Trenton; a new State House, an enlarged remodeled State Prison, the Soldiers' Home at Kearney; Jamesburg Reformatory School, several new armories, the camp ground at Sea Girt, and various institutions erected, besides battle monuments in New Jersey and at Gettysburg. The State is tolerably rich in other assets also, but not acquired in this way, such as its riparian domain, its school fund investments and the property held by the Sinking Fund.

The New York World, in its Tuesday issue, as a reason why Governor Morton should not have signed the Rains liquor bill, published over one hundred and fifty names of rum dealers who will be thrown out of "business" in New York City alone by reason of it. Not one of the names was apparently American, or of English origin. This carries its own commentary.

The public debt of the State of New Jersey, including bonded debts of Counties, cities and townships and all villages and boroughs, is $50,000,000. The assessed valuation of property in the State, excepting railroad property, is over $830,000,000. Thus the debt of the State is about 6 per cent of the valuation, not counting railroad property.

Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Dimondale, Mich.: "I have no hesitation in recommending Doctor King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction, she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding a gripe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Doctor King's New Discovery. It was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in its results." Trial bottles free at Croft's Pharmacy. Regular size 50 c. and $1.

What is more becoming to a bed room than a nice oak suit? or to a dining room than a highly finished oak extension table, with a fine semi-porcelain or china dinner set to decorate it with? There was a time when you may have had an excuse for not having one; but the time has come when you all can have them, and the reason is because we sell them away down in price.

Stands in oak from 60 cents up to $6.50, and anything that you may want in the furniture line.

Also, new Spring Carpet samples.

Have you bought that Bike?

If not, do not fail to look over our line. We want to call your attention especially to our $75 wheel,—the Eldredge,—made by the National Sewing Machine Co. They have striven in every way possible to place on the market a wheel that would suit the public in every way and not cost you $100,—which they have accomplished to a large degree for $85. Therefore, as we wished to place the three grades of $50, $75, and $100 wheels on the market, we have placed the Eldredge at $75,—and for the money we feel that this wheel stands at the head, furnished in either lady's or gent's.

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1896.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Ab, March! we know then art kind-hearted, spite of ugly looks and threats. And, out of sight, art nursing April's violets.

Easter, April 5th.

Council meeting next Monday evening.

Miss Lillian Curran is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. J. King.

Harry Mack, of Philadelphia, visited friends in town, last week.

The State Legislature adjourned at six o'clock on Thursday evening.

A lot of old newspapers for sale at this office,—10 cents per hundred.

Levi G. Horn, of Elm, has sold one of his team horses to A. K. Dean.

Miss Mae Walworth will to-day return to her home, in Rosehay, N. J.

Flowers, ribbons, straw and wire shoes, trimmed with ribbons, at FRUIT GROWERS' UNION.

Walter H. Andrews will probably build the Odd Fellows' and Red Men's new hall.

Chas. Killian came home from the South Jersey Institute, Bridgeton, on Saturday.

The Odd Fellows' Lodge will meet at eight o'clock, Wednesday evening, hereafter.

Tramps are abundant. Three of the fraternity slept in the lock-up on Saturday night.

Miss Bertha Miller came home from Philadelphia, and spent last Saturday and Sunday.

Sons of Veterans will meet next Wednesday evening, at 7:30, in Junior Mechanics' Hall.

Samuel Irons is at school this week, after being laid up for a month with a wounded foot.

Did you see that Decatur (Ill.) sleigh?—Two sticks of stove wood, and a fruit crate for a seat.

John W. Pilgrim is entertaining his brother, Heber Pilgrim, from Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.

March is about ended, and no one regrets it. The month has brought us little but blow and bluster.

In giving us the prizes drawn, the Fair Committee omitted the handsome vase won by Dr. J. A. Waas.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Taylor, of Philadelphia, were welcome guests of Hamonton friends, part of this week.

SEVEN ROOM HOUSE for rent, corner of Orchard and Washington Streets. Inquire of MRS. M. C. FAIRCHILD.

George A. Elvins returned on Monday from a business trip to Elmira, N. Y. He reports snow from two feet deep upwards.

Atlantic County's thirty-five insane patients are pleasantly and comfortably settled in our own asylum, at Smith's Landing.

The firemen's building started on its homeward way, Thursday, after a week's delay on account of unfavorable wind and weather.

Universalist Church to-morrow. Subject of morning sermon: "Possessions and Life." Evening: "Why I am a Universalist."

On and after Monday next, Geo. A. Elvins will display bicycles and sundries in the second story of the old post office building.

If the average business man was as hard to discourage as a bicycle agent, the per centage of failures would be much less than it is now.

TOWN LOT FOR SALE, 22 x 100 feet. Good location. Very reasonable. Address "H," Hamonton Office.

Mrs. Frank Goodrich, only sister of Mr. B. J. Woolley, died on Thursday, 23rd inst., at Hamilton, N. Y., of heart disease and la grippe.

A large force of workmen are erecting a huge canning factory at Bonha Vista, to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

Mrs. Oakleigh is enjoying the company of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Wood, and also her sister, Mrs. Kemp, and little son, from Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Waas, and daughter Clara, returned to Philadelphia last week after a short visit with their brother, our popular dentist.

The Glee Club decided, at their meeting last Tuesday evening, to give a ballad concert about May 1st. These entertainments are always popular.

All Fools' Day, next Wednesday.

A change in the Reading time table affects Hamonton only by discontinuing the stop of the down express at three o'clock; and our people don't like that.

SEVEN ROOM HOUSE for rent, on Egg Harbor Road. Inquire at this office.

An extra freight on the Jersey Southern, going north, collided with a hand-car, Wednesday, near Elm. The section men jumped in time to save themselves.

A change on the Camden & Atlantic takes the afternoon up mail at 3:30, just seven minutes earlier than before; the down mail at 5:47, instead of 5:33. This takes effect to-day.

There will be three services at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow, conducted by the Blind Evangelist,—10:30 a. m., 3:00 p. m., 7:00 p. m. The afternoon meeting will be for men only. CARPET, I am still weaving carpets at the old stand, Pleasant Street, above Third, samples at Black's store.

It is commonly understood that Hamontonians will soon have a chance to ride across the Delaware, over the new bridge, into Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, via the Camden & Atlantic Railroad.

About three inches of snow fell on Monday; a few sleighs were out the next morning (the first of the season); but it was too late. Moderating temperature destroyed the white blanket in thirty-six hours.

At the Italian Evangelical Church. Service to-morrow morning at nine o'clock. Pastor Fragale's topic: "What does Church mean? Which is the true Christian Church?" 1 Tim. iii. 15. All are invited.

The Kenilworth Wheelmen, of Philadelphia, have arranged for a run to Hamonton, to-morrow. They will be met by a number of the members of the H. A. A., and entertained at the expense of the Association.

NOTICE.—I hereby warn all parties from rent or making use of the six room house on Egg Harbor Road, until my business matters with my husband are legally settled. MRS. E. M. FAIRCHILD.

At the Baptist Church to-morrow morning, the Sunday School will observe "Chapel Day," having a specially prepared programme of music, recitations, etc. A collection will be taken for home missions. Pastor Killian will preach in the evening.

You can easily tell a Presbyterian as you meet him, now-a-days. They own a new church, and have reason to be proud of it. The Baptists come next, and the Presbyterians will help them along, no doubt. This is as it should be.

A Leap Year Ball will be given in the H. A. Hall, on Monday eve., April 6. The young ladies are expected to take full advantage of the privileges accorded them by leap year, and since there are no more leap years until 1904, the ball will probably be well patronized.

STENCIL MARKING PLATES of all descriptions. Rubber stamps and stamp supplies at the shortest notice. A. L. PATTER, At Robert Smith's Jewelry Store.

That bell for the M. E. Church has been ordered, and is expected to arrive almost any day. Then the school authorities may ring their old bell when they please,—we don't care,—we'll go to church when the church bell rings. That school bell isn't much of a bell anyway, don't you see!

The Hamonton Hotel has been leased by Mr. Aitken to Frank K. Bookie, late of the St. Clair, Atlantic City, who will take possession April 15th. Mr. B. is a second edition of Mr. A., and having experience in the hotel business, will doubtless make this a popular house for its patrons.

A certain young man drove his best girl home from a party one night, tied his horse, and after an affectionate leave-taking, was so full of thoughts of love that he walked home, never thinking about the horse until the livery man asked him the next morning if he had lost, sold or pawned it.

FOR RENT. A four room house. Address "H," or call upon MRS. E. M. FAIRCHILD.

A convention of the Hamonton and Mullica Township Sunday School Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church of this place on Friday evening, April 3rd, at 7:30 o'clock. Addresses by H. C. Krebs and Miss Annie S. Harlow. Miss Harlow is one of the leading primary teachers and instructors in normal work, and now has charge of the primary work in Bethany Sunday School, Philadelphia. She is also the writer of the primary notes in the Sunday School Times. Music under the direction of A. J. Smith. A good time is anticipated, and all are invited to be present.

Insure with A. H. Phillips & Co., 1235 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City.

Bread, Cakes and Pies

Our own make, and the best.

Confectionery--

A good variety always on hand.

Just from Tennessee---

The drove of cattle that ECKHARDT is selling from his Meat Market.

They are as fine as ever came into Hamonton.

We guarantee the prices to be as low as the lowest.

Give us a trial.

Butter a specialty.

Our Hams are known to be the best.

In a recent circular issued by one of the largest potato dealers of Philadelphia, the following advice is given:

"A season of low prices is usually followed by a season of high prices. This is the year that you want to plant Potatoes. First, because a large number of growers are discouraged on account of the unusual low prices received for their product of 1895, and the acreage devoted to growing potatoes will probably be not more than half what it was last year. Second, climatic conditions are not likely to be as favorable for such a large yield per acre over so much territory as in 1895."

This seems to us good advice. We quote: York State Hebrons, Early Rose, and Rose Seedlings at 60 cents per bushel.

We also have the following varieties of Landreth's selected Seed Potatoes: Garfield, Maine Early Rose, Early Vermont, and Beauty of Hebron.

BLACK'S GENERAL STORE

Call early

if you want to get some of Jackson's Home-made Sausage. This will be the last lot of the season.

If you want Buckwheat Cakes with it, we can sell you the prepared buckwheat flour,—the Martha Washington or Hecker's. Both are good.

The Name of The Next President of the United States

WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN

The NEW YORK Weekly TRIBUNE

Of Nov. 4th, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the United States.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.
Also, general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest.
The New York Weekly Tribune is an ideal family paper, with circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.

A special contract enables us to offer this splendid journal and the South Jersey Republican—both
