A farewell reception was given at the Grand Army hall last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sutton, who departed on the midnight train for their new home in New Jersey. On behalf of the W. R. C. Mrs. Harwood thanked Mrs. Sutton for her work in behalf of the poor, and Mrs. Sutton responded with many expressions of regret at having to leave the city, and the many warm friendships that she had formed here. There were short talks made by a number of different persons expressing their regret of the parting with Mr. and Mrs. Sutton and family. Mr. Sutton was called for and made a neat speech in which he expressed his regret at leaving the city. There was no set program, but at the close of the impromptu speaking Mrs. Emma Miller came forward and presented Mrs. Sutton with a beautiful bouquet of red roses in behalf of the W. R. C. Several selections were sung by Mrs. Harwood, Al. Lindamood, Mrs. F. P. Howard and William Boettger. A sumptuous feast was spread in the banquet hall. Mr. Sutton and family left last night at one o'clock for Chicago. From there they will go on to their new home in Hammonton, New Jersey. There Mr. Sutton will go into the fruit farming business. — Decatur, Illinois, Morning Herald-Despatch.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to all persons similarly afflicted. For sale by druggists.

The Weather:

Special Forecast for New Jersey.

Lower temperature, heavy frosts, and high thin winds, are predicted for South Jersey, especially in the vicinity of Hammonton. [Entered as second class matter.]
SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 1895.

Mr. Peter S. Tilton died at his residence, in Hammonton, on Thursday, March 28th, aged 71 years, after an illness of but a few days with catarrh of the stomach. Mr. Tilton was born in Bakerstown, this county, came here in 1864, bought the store ever since known by his name, admitted his son Wilbur H. to partnership when he attained his majority, since admitted Mr. J. C. Johnson. Mr. Tilton's entire life was—as all admit—as near perfection in all respects as men ever live, a pattern fit to model after. His word was received without question by every one; his business was conducted in accordance with the Golden Rule. Hammonton mourns as a community seldom mourns. His departure is a loss that we all feel. Funeral services in the M. E. Church on Monday morning at 10:30, conducted by Pastor Wagg.

The Spiritualists of Hammonton will celebrate the 47th anniversary of modern manifestations of personal spirit presence and force, at their Hall, on Sunday and Monday next. A sociable of the society on Monday at 3 p. m. and supper at 6 o'clock. Public services will be held at 8 and 7:30 p. m. Sunday, and at 7:30 p. m. on Monday. Admission on Monday evening 10 cents, all other public services free. A good medium from Philadelphia is engaged to assist at all public services.

A. J. KING, Sec'y.

An effort is being made to organize a "Band of Mercy" among the young folks of Hammonton. Of it Dr. Angell says:

"The moral force and value of the Band of Mercy lies in the influence of the simple promise made by the children, and given in the words, 'I will try to be kind to all living creatures.' When one thinks of it, what is it, really, for them to 'try to be kind to living creatures?' The only things under the power of children are living creatures. Younger brothers and sisters and playmates, a dog, a cat, a bird, a moth or grasshopper; these are the subjects of their childish power, and if they learn in their earliest days to use this power mercifully and gently, they have gained that greatest of life's lessons—self government. The boy that beats his hand unharmed, or out of kindness, refrains from touching a bird, has made that conquest of himself which lays the foundation of all virtues and abhors the force of the back of the hand. Will a man who has learned this secret of self-control in boyhood, and gained this power of self-control, be easily tempted to crime in manhood? Here lies the supreme value of the early teaching of habitual kindness to inferior creatures. It gives strength to the kindly heart and mind to resist the passionate and brutal instincts inherent in humanity, and, as small gymnastic feats, daily practiced, will develop, at last, the qualities of an athlete, so a child surrounded by the influence of humane education, accustomed daily to repress these lower instincts and to use active benevolence toward living creatures, gains moral muscle, day by day."

The Governor has appointed Prof. S. H. Morse, Curator of the new Geological Museum created by the Legislature last week, with a salary of $1500.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York come from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing, and so common, that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic coast, yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in the neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have got one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold, but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions, and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

A CARD.—To the kind friends who gathered around us during our late bereavement, when we felt we were struggling through the greatest misfortune which could befall us, we would say, their deeds of friendship and sympathy came to our grief-stricken souls like oil upon the troubled waters of a raging sea; like the rising of the bright and glorious sun to the storm-beaten mariner. May our kind friends who look upon this our humble effort to express our gratitude, feel that they helped to brighten our darkest hour.

J. M. LEAR AND FAMILY.

Our young men and women bicyclers should be careful that they do not ride to exhaustion. Physicians agree that hundreds of thousands of dangerous troubles to the system have developed during the past few years, and owing to the pressure upon the heart, kidneys and lungs engendered by long distance rides. Many of our young men have ridden over fifty miles in one day. Don't do it. Proper exercise on the wheel is, like all other exercise, all right, when not overdone.

A poor old horse, standing not far from the post-office, on Tuesday, bore a card containing the legend, "Oats wanted."

body knows how troublesome it is to pick coins off a smooth counter. A way to get over this suggested itself to a thoughtful person, who promptly devised a rubber mat, with rubber bristles standing up all over it. From this the coins can be picked up as easily as if they stood on edge. Henceforth this thoughtful person will not be compelled to toil for his livelihood. Few inventions pay better than anything that will keep the air away from the fruit will do. Store the packages in a dark, dry, cool place; there will be no trouble keeping the fruit until Christmas.—New England Housestead doesn't like what can tell the "why" of the peculiar relation of the letters "q" and "u," or why the former was given its curious name. Some argue that the tail name was applied because of the "tail" or cue at the bottom of the letter, but the original "q" when sounded just as it is today, was made without the cue, its character a much resembling the English sign for pounds.—Boston Transcript.

The smallest legislative body in America, I perhaps is the Legislature of the State of Delaware, nine Senators and twenty one representatives.

A CHURCH REPLY? "Do you call this poetry?" asked the editor, impressed.

"Yes, sir," replied the long haired man confidently, "I do."

"Why, it isn't even mechanically correct. Your foot are all wrong."

"I know," he said, "but I am no poetry phenomenon. I don't want to poetry with my feet." — Washington Star.

THE REV. MR. SILLWELL, a man minister of North D. Durham, N. C., a few days ago said that he had been in the vicinity to which he can bring his flock to the land of the living. Mr. EDISON:—Mrs. Parker, of Vermont, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Frank Wilson.

This is a small statement in itself, but as a prompter at my elbow truly says in regard to this lady:—"Were this any other town than Hammonton, she would be met by a town committee, and be made a guest of the town." But I must explain myself. Mrs. Parker was years ago the "widow Moore." She built the Andrus place on Central Avenue. It was she and she alone, who gave Hammonton its first good name—and fame. She raised upon one acre of land—strawberries which sold for $2000
for one season's crop! Think of it.
The New York Tribune and the American Agriculturist of that day heralded
the fact throughout the United States, and it was taken up by the press in general.

Chas. K. Landis took up the matter in his Hammonton Farmer. All in all, this gave Hammonton its first boom in fruit culture, and people flocked here from the Pacific slopes on the west, to Cape Cod on the East, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico.

Let Hammonton's four thousand people give her a cordial welcome.
