The Man with the Wheel Hoe

is not "a brother to the ox," nor does he carry "the burden of the world" or any other burden on his back. He simply does three days hoeing in one day, and has time to go fishing.

The Planet Jr. No. 17 Single Wheel Hoe, Cultivator, and Plow is one of the handiest and most efficient tools ever invented. You should examine this and other PLANET JR. tools at our store. The horse cultivators, like the wheel hoes, are the best in the world.

Price of wheel hoe shown in cut, with attachments, $4.75.

This and other up-to-date implements and supplies for the farm and garden for sale by Railroads, Drink, and Tobacco.

Many western railroads are passing strict rules in regard to the use of liquor and tobacco by their employees.

The Wabash Railroad has sent out the strictest seen yet. It forbids their employees even to enter a place where liquor is sold. The new rules of the Burlington, Alton, and Rock Island provide for the dismissal of any man who uses liquor or visits saloons.
These orders affect many thousands men. The Burlington also forbids the use of tobacco while "on duty." Rock Island recently forbid the use of cigarettes. Memphis soon followed with the same order; the big Santa Fe enforced the cigarette and drink orders and refused to employ men addicted to these habits.

The Nickel Plate Railroad requires its employees to abstain from both liquor and tobacco while on duty.

Experience warns the railroad companies that men who drink cannot be trusted.

Thus the toils are closing more and more tightly around the American saloon. There will no doubt be fewer great accidents on the railroads when these orders become universal all over the land.
PRESS SUPP.

The Luxury of a Solicitor.

As it has been repeatedly stated that before the election of Mr. Chandler as Town Solicitor the town paid dearly for legal advice, I wish to give the facts. Those who really know nothing of previous fees paid have been making statements without proper investigation.

I will go back as far as 1892, as I have no reports for previous years; but I am sure in asserting that the outlay was as low as for the years since.

We paid for legal advice as follows:
In 1892.....Nothing
1893.....Nothing
1894.....Nothing
1895, O. W. Payson.....$5 00
1896.....Nothing
1897, H. A. Drake.....30 00
Legal advice for Collector.....10 00
1898, H. A. Drake.....25 00
Stephany & Son.....105 00
H. A. Drake.....10 00
$185 00

The above is $185 in seven years, or a little over $26 a year, including the heavy bill of Stephany & Son, caused by a fierce contest in Council over the license question, in which several ordinances were drawn and rejected, and various opinions given. The bills of H. A. Drake were for searching the laws in relation to bicycles, the ordinances being liable to conflict with state laws recently enacted.

We have paid Mr. Chandler as follows:

1898, October, contract.....$25 00
Nov.....25 00
" prof. services.....10 00
1899, March, contract.....25 00
June, contract.....35 00
Sept., contract and prof. ser.....53 86
Dec., prof. services.....25 00
1900, March, prof. services.....40 00
June, contract.....8 33
August, contract.....25 00
" Bucher's case.....10 00
Dec., contract.....25 00
$300 19

During 1899 and 1900 the Town also paid for additional legal advice, as follows:

1899, Sept., Thompson & Co.....$15 00
July, J. W. Womack.....30 00
1900, April, R. T. Miller.....30 00
$75 00

Our last report, 1901, showed legal services as costing $128.33, from Feb.
24, 1900, to Jan. 23, 1901. We also paid
Mr. Bourgeois $50, but that was a separate matter, provided for in open town meeting.

Mr. Chandler began service in 1898.
For seven years previous to that time we paid, as shown above, less than $27 per year. Instead of the attorney fees being less now, they are much heavier.

If we have a Solicitor, it might as well be Mr. Chandler as any one else, but like the Town Marshalship, the office should be "fired," as it is a costly luxury.

Some one has, without knowing a thing of the matter, attempted to make it appear that we formerly paid large sums for legal advice, which is not correct; and such statements even get into the town meeting "campaign documents." P. H. JACOBS.

IF YOU WANT A FENCE

that is cheap, strong, neat, durable and recommends itself as the best for all uses, call on the N. J. Fence Co. and see their new and improved "Patent" fence. It is made of steel wire, and is the best and most durable fence yet invented. It will turn hay, stock, poultry, etc. It will not burn, rot, or decay. It is the only fence that can be pulled out and used as a board under it. Fences may be made 10 to 14 ft. apart.
Fences are from 5 to 10 cts. per ft. Fences made to order.

HUMOROUS SAYINGS AND DOINGS HERE AND THERE

Jokes and Jokelets that are supposed to have been recently born—Baptists and Deacons that are Old, and Deacons that are New.

"Polly, dear, suppose I were to shoot at a tree with five birds on it, and kill three, how many would there be left?" Polly (aged 8)—Three, please.

Teacher—No—two would be left. Polly—No—three would. The three shot would be left and the other two would be fled away.—T.H. Bits.

The Ring of a Thief. Mistress—Honor, didn't I see Mr. Skyles kiss you this morning? Maid—Yes, mistress, Mr. Skyles, that was about a thing; Mr. Skyles of all men! Why, you know he never kisses even you.—Boston Transcript.

A Good Hunt. Edith—How was the season at Bas?

Mabel—Just lovely! I got eight engagements and only three had to be returned.

He Put Me to Sleep.

"My brother, the prize fighter, had put a dozen men to sleep."

"That's nothing. My brother, the preacher, puts the whole congregation to sleep."

Cold. He—I have been longing for this moment, Miss Flossie, when I can lay my burning heart at your feet.

Flossie—Oh, it's very good of you; your feet are so cold.—Ally Sloper.

The Point of View. Parson—Will you bab for better or worse?

Isaac—Well, say, I dunno. My folks say it's woss and her folks say it's bettah.

Accounting for Their Activity. Mr. Hayseed—These young men are just themselves to death. Why on earth do they kill themselves that way?

Mrs. Hayseed—Land sakes they're got to. Think of the rents they pay.—New York Weekly.

A Regular Thing. "Daughter," said Mr. Giddings, "is that young Mr. Dismore a man of regular habits?"

"Oh, yes, papa," replied Miss Giddings. "He proposes regularly every Thursday night."—Detroit Free Press.

SERMON

BY Rev. Dr. Talmage.

Subject: Revivals a Benefit—Lesson: Drawn From Famous Religious Awakenings—The Most Wonderful Christian Revival—Are Those Converted Really in Life?

WILMINGTON, D. C.—This discourse of Dr. Talmage is most interesting at this time, when a widespread effort for religious awakening is being made; text, Luke 9. "They increased a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake." Simon and his comrades had expected to catch a few fish, but when they went out with their net, they found it full of fish, and the net brake. Christ steps on board the fishing smacks and tells the sailors to pull away from the beach and drive their smacks into the net. Sure enough, very soon the net is full of fish, and the sailors begin to haul in. So large a school of fishes was taken that the hardy men began to look red in the face as they pulled and hauled, having begun to rejoice at their success when a great school of fishes came upon them and the net brake.

Aguinaldo Captured.

The Filipino leader is a prisoner in the hands of the American forces at Manila.

General Funston planned the capture, and carried out his plan. With four U. S. officers and about eighty native scouts, he made his way to the place where he knew Aguinaldo was awaiting reinforcements. When they were introduced to the chief, the Americans were apparently prisoners of the expected reinforcements. But the scene quickly changed, and after a brisk little fight, Aguinaldo and two of his staff were hurried off to the coast, where a steamer was awaiting them, and the whole party were soon safe in Manila. The expedition occupied about three weeks. What will Uncle Sam do for General Funston?

The Pulpits in Town.

A trio of gospel expositors of remarkable ability now grace the pulpits of our prominent churches. — McKinney, of the Presbyterian, Leominster, of the Baptist, and Jewett, recently sent to the M. E. Church by the Conference. Each is a faithful, bracing advocate of advanced religious thought. It is a matter of congratulation that these three talented young men are found among us, pointing and, we believe, leading the way to a true Christian life. Their teaching and example is to be highly commended. Young and full of enthusiasm for the cause they have espoused, may they go on from glory to glory, and give us such seasons of wisdom, love, and Christian charity, until others, seeing their devotion to the true spirit of Christianity, may go and do likewise.

Those who failed to hear the sermon of Rev. Mr. Jewett, last Sunday evening, to young men, missed a rare treat. — A. H. BAKER.

The parlor social of the W. O. T. U. held at the house of Mrs. Chas. A. Smith, on Tuesday evening last, in commemoration of the birthday of Neal Dow, was a perfect success. The house was filled with white ribbons and friends of temperance. The program was both instructive and pleasing, the vocal and instrumental music fine. After supper by the new M. E. Pastor, the entertainment began with a reading by Miss Burroughs of a brief life sketch of Neal Dow, and a poem dedicated to him. Next was a vocal solo by Miss Hall; remarks by Rev. H. F. Loomis on the life of Neal Dow and the work of the W. O. T. U. Vocal solo by Miss Mathis; a humorous recitation by Miss Olio DePuy, entitled "The dinner party," which was greatly enjoyed; piano and vocal duet, by Mr. and Mrs. Trafford; poem read by Miss Ethel Jacobs. "It is beautiful to be with God," solo by Miss Nettie Monfort; instrumental trio, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Jackson and Ernest Jackson; singing by the male quartette, Messrs. Tilton, Myron, Joslyn, and Trafford. Rev. F. L. Jewett then made a few remarks, greeting the W. O. T. U. in a most cordial manner, and told them he was with them in the temperance work, and ready to do anything he could to aid them in the cause in this town. Refreshments came next in order, then a social chat for an hour or two, and the company separated, feeling that they had spent a very pleasant evening. —

Bassett & Son have illustrated an effective way to protect young trees. In setting tulip trees for the town, they planted three about 6 foot posts around each, fastened them together with strips of wood, and surrounded all this with chicken wire.

Millions Given Away. It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one person who is not afraid to be generous. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, cough and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hay fever and all throat, chest and lung diseases are cured by it. Call at Dr. King's Pharmacy and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c, and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Collector Davis asked that Justice Woodruff be authorized to issue all future tax warrants. Justice Pressley has done this work, but having left town, the law made action by Council necessary.

Petition received, signed by thirteen citizens, asking that Robt. McMiller be appointed Night Marshal.

Petition received, signed by twenty-one citizens, asking that Robert(?) Warrington be appointed Night Marshal in case there should be a vacancy.

Men. Foglietta's petition for a license to sell liquor in the former F. G. U. building, read and referred.

George Bernhouse and Charles O. Combe, constables, presented bonds, which were accepted.

Property Committee were instructed to remove bag-worms from the hedges, etc., at the Park.

Highway Committee directed to remove the cane and other rubbish from Beach Street, near the railroad.

Charles Woodruff designated Town Justice for one year.

El H. Chaudler was unanimously re-elected Town Solicitor for one year, the vote being by ballot.

L. McMiller, H. Warrington, and Joseph H. Garton were nominated for night marshal. Mr. Garton declined, saying that business would call him away, and he could not serve. Ballot was taken, Miller receiving 4 votes, and Warrington 2; Miller declared elected for one year, at $4 per week.

The Solicitor stated that the P. & A. H. Co. have agreed to maintain safety gates at Twelfth and Orchard Street crossings, and propose to build an iron bridge over their tracks at Eleventh St., provided the Town will fill in the approaches thereto. Referred to Committee of the Whole.

Voted, to hold regular meetings of Council on the last Saturday evening of each month, at 8:30.

Licenses Committee will meet at Mr. Boyer's on Tuesday evening, April 3th. Adjourned.

Henry H. Andrews has bought these lots near Central School, which the District should own for a playground. Now the land is plowed, and "keep-off" notices posted.

Doris Lodge defeated the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday by a score of 30 to 0; and on Wednesday, score 24 to 7. They will meet again this evening.

FOR SALE. Lot on Third Street, 62 x 150 feet, with unfurnished house. Price, $400. Inquire of J. A. Robinson or J. H. Small, Hammonston.

Robert Steel, our efficient jeweler and optician, will soon display a diploma from the Pennsylvania Optical Society, showing that he has successfully passed the required examination of that society. Mr. Steel has been meeting with phenomenal success as an optician.

WORK WANTED. I will mow the lawn, trim your hedges, clean up your yard, and make up the garden, early in the spring, or do any work about your place. With guaranteed satisfaction. Price, 10 cents an hour. Send me a postal card and I will call.

JOS. GUAFFILLO, Hammonston.

The Board of Education met on Tuesday evening, and organized by re-electing C. F. Osgood President, and D. S. Cunningham Dist. Clerk. Several hours were spent in discussing the subject of teachers and their assignment for next year. It is rumored that there will be a number of changes.

There is to be a series of basket ball games between Doris Lodge, Y. M. C. A., and the "Twentieth Century" team, the prize to be of cut glass, now being prepared by Stinson & Son, and to be exhibited in Steel's window.

We are informed by one who knows, that active work will soon be begun upon the "Twentieth Century" and gas plants, which will be run in connection with the electric light plant, all under substantially the same management.

Last Monday night, Mr. Capt. Moore heard some one endeavoring to force an entrance into her residence. She opened a window and fired three shots from a revolver, as a signal for help. Several neighbors heard the shots but could not locate them, hence did not respond. Evidently the would-be burglar heard them also, and took the hint to leave.

EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH

Better than a Piano, Organ, or Music Box, for it sings and talks as well as plays, and don't cost as much. It reproduces the music of any instrument—band or orchestra—tells stories and sings—the old familiar hymns as well as the popular songs—it is always ready. See that Mr. Edison's signature is on every machine. Catalogues of all dealers, or NATIONAL PHONOGRAPH CO., 135 Fifth Ave., New York.

DR. E. H. JONES,

Originator of the celebrated Home-treatment for the cure of all Chronic, Nervous and Wasting Diseases.

I challenge all forms of disease, acute or chronic.

I treat on scientific principles, with selected medicines.

A LASTING CURE.

The above statement is open and frank, without fear of contradiction.

I treat all forms of chronic diseases successfully that have baffled skilled professors. No so-called "cure-alls," but remedies prepared for each individual case. A full statement of your case sent me by mail will receive prompt and careful consideration and advice sent gratis on receipt of stamp. Office advice FREE.

Hundreds of testimonials bear evidence of the good results obtained from our method of treating all forms of chronic disease.

All correspondence is strictly private and confidential. No matter the disease or how long standing, consult Philadelphia's Eminent Specialist.

DR. E. H. JONES.
