HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1915

No. 13.

E. A. Stanistreet entertained his mother over Sunday.

C. W. Staton and family have moved to Germantown.

Water Commissioners meet on Thursday evening next.

The Hammonton Loan Association meets next Thursday evening.

A substantial addition is to be made to Charles Sorden's house, on Maple Street.

A Progressive Euchre party at Raleigh-in-the-Pines on Thursday, April 8th, by ladies of St. Mark's Church.

The first game of ball will be played to-day, at Cape May. On Saturday next, on local grounds, the High School Club will play Atlantic City.

William P. Reid, formerly of Hammonton, was married, March 16th, to Marie Vernace Sievers, of Ravenna, Mich.

Both fire-bells rang at 8.55 last Wednesday evening,—a messenger having raced from Rosedale with the alarm. An Italian's barn, pig pen, and other outbuildings, near the hotel, were burned. The fire was said to have been caused by the 8.30 train. But little could be done except to prevent a spread of the fire to near-by houses. The crowd was treated to the odor of fresh roasted meat, a young porker having been hemmed in by the flames.

A heap of straw bedding in Ebinger's yard took fire in some way, yesterday forenoon, and caused a still alarm.

The date for "Town Improvement Night," by the Alumni Association, will be announced next week.

Jonathan S. Miller, well known here, died on Sunday last, at his home, Rosedale. Burial on Thursday, at Pleasant Mills.

An examination for teachers' licenses will be held in the Atlantic City High School building on the last three Saturdays of April.

Mr. Milliken has made very extensive improvements in the appearance of his grounds, at Egg Harbor Road and Cherry Street.

About one o'clock last Sunday morning, four men attacked Nick Molino with a sand-bag, downed him, and robbed him, on Egg Harbor Road above Thirteenth St. A near-by resident heard the racket and went out to the street, and through his testimony the men were all located and arrested by Constables Pinto and Farrar. On Thursday they had a hearing before Justice DeMarco, who committed them to jail, charged with highway robbery, an unobtainable offence. They gave their names as: Burtato, Comistrato, Arnello Pesquale, Pasquale Migersto, Tony Juelano. We are told that none of them were residents of Hammonton.

Good Friday comes next week.

The date for Dr. E. T. Hagerman's lecture has been definitely settled,—Monday evening, Apr. 5, in Bellevue Hall,—under the auspices of the Lyceum Association.

There was a rumor afloat, this week, that the Pleasant Mills paper mills would close down, as Mrs. Cresce, wife of the late proprietor, did not wish to continue same. Rumor also states that it is possible the business may change hands, and continue operation,—which many hope to be true.

Mrs. Edwin Jones died, at her home in Collingswood, Thursday evening, March 25th, after an illness of several months.

A Christian, a faithful wife and mother and friend, she will be sadly missed; but she longed to be at rest.

Eight children survive her,—Horton, Edwin, and Mrs. B. A. Peterson, of Woodstown; Mrs. W. O. Hoyt, of Hammonton; Mrs. J. B. MacDougall, of Atco; Misses Laura and Carrie Jones, Collingswood, and Raymond, of the U. S. S. South Carolina, now in Cuba.

Living in Hammonton until a few years ago, many friends here will remember her.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence, 650 Spring Ave., Collingswood, on Monday at ten o'clock; interment at Greenmount, Hammonton, at 12.30.

John H. Young has added a very serviceable Ford delivery car to his growing business.

Next Saturday afternoon, April 3rd, the Nescochague Camp Fire Girls will have a sale of home-made candy and Camp Fire Girl's cocoa in the Hammonton Gas Company's office.

Simons' bakery, buildings and oven are being razed to the ground,—to be replaced by new brick structures for the manufacture of bread and ice cream—so Dame Rumor says.

Rev. D. E. van Dright, of Englishtown, is to be pastor of Hammonton M. E. Church. He is a stranger here, but comes highly recommended. Rev. J. R. Reed was returned to his former charge, at the very urgent request of that Church. Mr. van D. will preach here to-morrow.

The formation of a Local Council for the Girl Pioneers of America has been under consideration for some time. Wednesday evening, April 7th, has been settled upon as the date for a meeting of parents and friends of the Band, at the residence of the Director, Miss Hoyt, for organization, and incidentally to consider a proposed encampment of the girls during the coming Summer. It is suggested that every parent mark this date on his home calendar, as a reminder.

One of the Town's charges, Nicholas Ciliberti, died at the Alms House, Smith's Landing, on Wednesday, March, 24th, aged 77 years.

Pansy plants for sale at the Civic Club Hall, Thursday, Friday and Saturday April 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Just the things for your Easter table.

Aprons and Kimono sale at the Civic Club Hall, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 1, 2 and 3rd. Sale opens Thursday evening and continues Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings.

Chester S. Brown is traveling with the "Hammerstein High Jinks Co.," and was in San Francisco last week, for a fortnight's engagement. They will also visit other cities on the Pacific Coast, from Vancouver to San Diego. Chester improved the opportunity to visit the great exposition.

Four young men—but little more than boys—appeared in town on Tuesday, on bicycles, which they were trying to sell. One was sold for two dollars; then the officers became suspicious, rounded up two of them, but the others escaped. Chairman Godfrey notified City Hall, Philadelphia, and he was told to hold the boys. Wednesday afternoon, detectives came down and took the two, also the four wheels, back to the city with them, where they bear a bad record, it is said.

One of the colored gentlemen, working on the new Buena Vista road, imbibed too much of the New Jersey Manufacturer Association's product, on Sunday, and disturbed people along the road; also tried to find a place in private houses to sleep off the dope. Officer Adams was notified, and the offender was taxed for his sport, and sent out of town, with a word of warning.

The Reward Still Stands.

The Poultry Raisers Association of Hammonton renews its reward of $25.00 for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons found guilty of stealing chickens in the town. It is the determination of the Association to continue this work until all such are punished.

The Town Council's offer of $25.00, in addition, also stands good, we are informed by several members of that body.

The Association suggests that all poultry raisers make it a rule to have a lock on every hen coop. While it is true these locks can be forced open, it is equally true that for a chicken thief to break a lock, thus making forcible entry, the act is considered burglary, and the punishment is greater. If the citizens will heed this warning, and also keep on the lookout for these desperadoes, it will be only a question of time before the guilty ones will be brought before the bar of justice.

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1915

It is thought that the alertness of Philadelphia police force is driving out thugs and thieves to the smaller towns; and for that reason Hammonton is suffering. On Sunday evening, attempts were made to break into two business houses; but were halted by the barking of John W. Roller's dog. Then the fiends laid out food for the dog, containing a dose of broken glass. The poor animal died the next day, after terrible suffering. Shooting is too good for such wretches.

The nation-wide money shortage has reached Hammonton. Business appears to be fair, but it's a case of wait-for-your-money. If every one will share up, and do their trading here in town, we will probably pull through until berry money comes in. Some lay the blame to the European situation, while many people are of the opinion that the administration is at fault. If the latter be the case, the sooner a change is made the better.

If Hammonton is to have base-ball, those who like the sport must pay for it. Eight games guaranteed, and one dollar pays for a season ticket. These can be purchased from the players. Unfortunately, there is no fence to keep out those who are too stingy to pay a dime for admission; consequently, single admission cards will be sold, and hung by purchasers to their button-holes. Help them along.

The Commissioners appointed to assess benefits conferred by the sewer system and the house connections, have completed their work. By order of the Court, those who desire to appeal will have an opportunity to present their case at May's Landing, May 1st. We will probably have a more detailed notice later.

Painters are improving the looks of N. F. Bowker's residence.

Mrs. Lottie E. Huntman, widow of Geo. W. Huntman, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Fleusser, in New York City, on March 24th, 1915. She was quite well known, being residents of Pleasant Mills for many years.

Cotton—Before and After.

Soft, fluffy, downy cotton, lying like snow in the baskets of the pickers, surely as peaceful a product of the fields as anything else could imagine.

But behind every poor infantryman that stumbles and falls, and then lies motionless on a stricken field, behind every whirling shell that sails through the air to wreck homes and carry ruin into cities, lies our harmless cotton.

It drives the bullets from the muzzles of the German Mousers and the British Lee-Enfields and the Russian Nagants. It lifts the huge shells from the short barrels of the squatty mortars, and it causes in the steel sides of our unsundering battleships.

Steep a bank of our pretty white cotton in a mixture of nitric and sulphuric acid; and instead of cotton—although it still looks the same—there is an explosive of most frightful power. Bury it for years, soak it in water, do anything you like with it but set it off to its fire or give it a heavy jar, and still it holds its frightful energy.

The stronger the nitric acid, the more uncontrollable the resulting gun-cotton, and the more rending and wrecking its explosion. Make the acid weak, and the resulting cotton is a useful commercial product—celluloid or perhaps cellulose—Scientific American.

that throat and made his voice as husky and hoarse as his. "Now," he said, "I am a happy. I won't lose either of my eyes. I promise you that." The big woman, Dick Wentworth, the Spanish-American war veteran, who was in the waiting line, the longest and the line of girls known to Minnie as anti-traffic, said to him: "You don't think women do you as men in politics?" Mr. Hobson. "Emphatically do not," replied Bronson. "Let us tell you. We want to hear more of that." "For one thing, women are more emotional than men." "Certainly." "Can it be possible?" "Nobody should know that there is in view of your party directly after the Spanish-American War."

LASTING CURE.

A well known professor at our universities was often among the Italians playing a street or a game of cards. He had some money, he told her that he ever heard an organ sell to go out and pay the owners to play. He said that he had been, instead of coming once a week, once a day.

One time the sound of the organ was heard in the street. He had a certain lecture. This so and that that he rushed out and said to the men away, telling them that they were not to come over to the police. They refused unless he gave them more money. He said that he had been, instead of coming once a week, once a day.

Just as he turned the corner, he met a man, a sergeant, and some constables to their benefit. He was speaking, he turned and alongside the procession, where he was playing at an old-fashioned game of the street. The cure was for the professor declared that he has since been held enough to go on before the house.

DULY CHARGED.

"I shall refuse to pay for an," said the frail tourist who was playing at an old-fashioned game of the street, and who had just sent with his bill. "Why, then, in the rooms are a perfect dream. I have been charged for something I wanted to have to fetch I must have spent some hours of at those bell pulls."

"I thought we had been charged," said the smiling pair, "but, see, we have charged nothing for your physical!"

"Physical culture course!" cried the tourist, in surprise. "I know," said the man, "I thought I was charged for something."

"The daily of our dumb was the cool rest."

HE KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Two physicians were recently engaged in Hyde Park, and of them lifted his hat to a lady there.

"My patient," answered the doctor, "I treated her for a small difficulty."

"Oh, in a way," asked the doctor, "I treated her for a small difficulty."

"A wart on the face."

"And what did you prescribe?" ordered her to refrain about the wart, she had been charged for something."

The other doctor was astonished. "You don't leave off the plan for a wart on the face?"

"If you know the circumstances, you will know the reason. She occupies the flat just above mine."

ONE FOR THE RUNNER.

A man left his umbrella in a car, and he later with a card containing the following inscription at to it:

"My umbrella belongs to the man who can deal a blow of 250 pounds weight. I shall be back in ten minutes."

On returning to seek his car he found in the place a card which he scribbled:

"My card was left here by a man who can run twelve miles a mile and shall not be back!"

Early Spring Lawn Treatment.

It is now time to give attention to the lawn if a good healthy, thick and even growth is desired during the coming summer. If you spread manure on the lawn last fall, and it has been allowed to stay on the ground all winter, rake off the coarse material as soon as the grass begins to grow. The lawn should then be rolled thoroughly with a heavy roller, and about a week thereafter, apply broadcast from 500 to 1000 pounds of hydrated or other well slaked lime per acre. The lime will soon get in its work by neutralizing the acids and stimulating to active work the different plant foods in the soil. The same practice can be applied to lawns treated with stable manure in the early Spring or Winter, but care should be exercised not to apply the lime sooner than a week or ten days after raking off the manure, else you will lose some of the valuable ammonia which you have stored up by manuring. It is to be understood that sour soils will not grow a good lawn, and many lawns become sour through excessive fertilizing and bad drainage.

It is interesting to observe, in connection with the above advice on the maintenance of a good lawn, that the liming of the lawns of the Agricultural Department at Washington is being done at the present time. Visitors to Washington will probably recall what beautiful grass is grown each year in front and to each side of the main buildings of the Agricultural Department. Good results can be obtained in lawn cultivation by giving a little time each Spring in the proper care of your grass plots, and it's well worth the outlay of time and money expended for the pleasure that follows in having a "pretty front yard."

Women of New Jersey and Pennsylvania

Imagination balks at the magnitude of $2,000,000. Only when it is translated into terms of purchasing power does it become comprehensible.

Two million dollars, for example, will support more than 2000 families of moderate income for a year.

Two million dollars will buy more than 200,000 barrels of flour, more than 50,000 sewing machines or 80,000 suits. It will give work for an entire year to 2000 men and women engaged in various productive industries and other occupations that add to the common welfare of the people in all walks of life.

It is $2,000,000 a year that the Full Crew—"excess man crew"—Laws compel the railroads of your States to pay in unearned wages. These laws deprive you of improvements for safety and comfort in travel that this money, now used unproductively, would provide.

How much longer in these times when economy is a universal necessity are you willing to endure this tremendous waste? In the end the cost bears upon you, either in increased rates or decreased service.

Will you use your influence in urging that the people's elected Representatives at Trenton and Harrisburg work and vote for repeal of the Full Crew Laws and place control of the proper manning of trains in the hands of the Public Service Commissioners?
