EASTERTIDE

BY EMILY J. BRYANT.

The first faint purple paints the east,
The vale is hushed, the ambient air
Trembles with melody
As the lone bird trills out his notes,
And matins burst from hundred throats;
The tremulous rays now upward ride
While roses in contentment bide
In perfumed secrecy.
It is day-break.

Down by the stream, with dewdrop wet,
On slender stem hangs the violet,—
Gone are December snows.
Spring hath passed and touched the frozen rime,
And Nature's heart proclaims the time
For April's sowing, for June's bright dress
Of bloom, of beauty, and of loveliness,—
The lily and the rose,
Nature awakes to life and beauty.

Storms, and grief, and pain, and terror
Are chased away, with every error,
By the glorious sun,
Who proclaims the morn ascending,
While the angelic choirs, bending,
Sing "Hallelujah! Christ is King!"
Glory, honor, and praises sing
As endless ages run.
Easter-tide brings peace and hope.

Everything good to eat. Where?
at the salad supper to-night, in Jackson's Hall.

Union Hall is at last being repainted, and looks as though ill with the jaundice.

Wanted,—to rent,—houses by the score. The spring demand has begun in earnest.

FAMILY WASHING. I will again take family washings, and ladies' dresses and shirt waists. SUSAN, Second St., rear of drug store.

An effort is being made in town to organize a branch of the Daughters of the Revolution.

The M. E. Sunday School at Elm will have special Easter exercises on Sunday evening.

Born, on Friday, March 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fitting, in upper Hammonton, a son.

Salad supper to-night in Jackson's Hall. Supper from five to eight o'clock. Adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. Benefit of the Band.

Miss Kate McFarland died on Thursday, March 24th, 1904, at her residence in Atlantic City. Funeral on Saturday; interment in Hammonton.

Some boys are too strenuous in opening the Post-Office door. Several persons have been hurt by the letter-box striking them,—at least one quite badly.

At the door,
Once more, my friends,
With sun-showers
And sweet flowers
In her hands,
But cold lights
Frosty blights,
And days cool,
She may bring,
And then sing—
"April fool!"

Help wanted. 200 people wanted to help eat the salad supper in Jackson's Hall, to-night. Any one can have a place for the small payment of 15 and 25 cents.

The Trustees of the Greenmount Cemetery Corporation will meet in the REPUBLICAN office, on Monday even'g, April 18th, at 8 o'clock. Important business.

Rev. G. R. Middleton was given a rousing reception on Wednesday evening, at the M. E. parsonage. We told with his people to bidding him welcome to Hammonton.

The young people's union social, last Friday evening, was a very pleasant affair. Nearly one hundred and fifty were present. The program consisted of recitations, music, an auction, and a supper.

Lucien Fairchild, for forty years well known in Hammonton, died on Wednesday, in Philadelphia. His body will be brought here for burial to-day, probably. As Lucien was a soldier, all comrades are invited to the funeral.

To improve the sanitary condition of our business centre, the Board of Health on Thursday evening passed second reading an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of cows or pigs between Peach and Pleasant Streets, and from the Reading Railroad to Third St. It will probably be adopted at the next meeting.

A Wonderful Saving.

The largest Methodist Church in Georgia, calculated to use over one hundred gallons of the usual kind of mixed paint in painting their church.

They used only 33 gallons of the Longman & Martineau Paint mixed with 24 gallons of linseed oil. Actual cost of paint made was less than $1.30 per gallon.

Saved over eighty ($80) dollars in paint, and got a big donation besides.

EVERY CHURCH will be given a liberal quantity whenever they paint.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of linseed oil mixed therewith.

Wears and covers like gold.
These Celebrated Paints are sold by H. McD. Little.

A Solicitor Wanted.

Were the writer a member of Town Council this year, there would be one vote against abolishing the office of Town Solicitor—the action of the Town Meeting to the contrary notwithstanding.

We believe that our Councilmen are better qualified to judge in this matter than were the majority of those who passed the resolution referred to, on March 9th.

We do not question the statement that $100 per year is a larger amount than was paid out for legal advice for many years in the past; but we know that certain acts of the Council in those economical years would have caused less trouble, and excited less ridicule, had legal assistance been secured, and good advice been followed.

It is not so much what a matter costs, as whether it is a necessity. We remember when attempts were made to enforce certain ordinances, and failed, because of their illegality or defective form. We remember when an attorney was paid five dollars for advising Council (after the offender had been arrested) "You can't enforce that—it's not correct." No corporation of any size attempts to conduct its governmental affairs without a legal adviser; and if Hammon ton can secure satisfactory service for the small salary paid during the past three years, we should, had we the right, vote to elect a Solicitor—not necessarily the late incumbent (who has served us well, without making one error), but some man to whom the numerous questions of law could be referred.

About that Lawsuit.

People are asking what about that suit that is billed for trial next week.

Three years ago, Matthew Jefferson, of Camden, was elected Town Solicitor. Council discovered, later, that they had no authority to make such election; and remedied the difficulty by passing an ordinance creating the office, providing therein that the attorney elected must qualify within ten days. Mr. J. did not so qualify; then Council declared the seat vacant and elected Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Jefferson began suit for a year's salary, $100. This has been hanging fire ever since, and time was set at least twice before for trial, but went over. Our late Solicitor has been ready and anxious to have the matter ended—stating that the plaintiff "had no case."

We now have no Solicitor, and will pay an attorney fifty dollars to try this one case. Is that economy?

Council's Committees.

The following committees were announced by President Bernhouse on Tuesday evening:

Highways, Manly Austin, Laton M. Parkhurst, H. Kirk Spear.
