The ladies have taken this space by the year, and are responsible for all that it may contain.

In Newark, more than one-half of the saloons are owned by the brewers, and in other large cities the proportion is about the same.

There is a constant effort on the part of these brewers to establish more drinking places, and the competition of the breweries in this direction is strenuous. Agents of the different brewers make a practice of canvassing for men who can be secured to open new places; and when found, they are established in business and supported so long as they confine their beer sales to the products of their backers. Under these conditions, the growth of the saloon traffic has been such as to alarm even thinking men who are not temperance enthusiasts.

In Passaic the crisis has already been reached, and in Newark the signs indicate that it is approaching rapidly.

A Valuable Medicine for Coughs and Colds in Children

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watchmaker of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine, and I have repeatedly used it and have always been benefited. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children, and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of bronchitis. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by J. B. Rogers.

ELWOOD NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. David Harkinson have returned to Elwood on a short visit.

Mrs. Charles K. Hill, formerly Miss Mamie Russell, and her two children, are visiting friends here.

Rev. Mr. Fialor and family left here on Thursday morning, for their new home, accompanied by Miss Laura Bozarth.

Mrs. Chas. Towns, of Atlantic City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. L. Johnson.

Last Saturday night, David Measley's horse freed himself from his fastenings and devoured a large quantity of grain. He did not seem any the worse on Sunday morning, but as a preventive, Mr. M. thought he would exercise him, so drove with his family over to Batsto. While there, the horse was taken sick and died in a few hours.

Mrs. E. Bryan Kyle, of Philadelphia, visited friends here, this week.

Mr. C. W. Maurer had an encounter with a colored tramp, Thursday morning. He found the negro in his woodshed, and ordered him to get out, but he refused to go. Mr. Maurer threatened to have him arrested, and this not having the desired effect, pointed a revolver at the intruder, at which the negro left the place, with terrible oaths, and went down the county road.

The evangelistic meetings held in the Presbyterian Church have increased in interest to such a degree as to warrant their continuance. The Evangelist, Frank B. Earl, an earnest and interesting speaker, will assist the pastor next week. Evenings at 7:30; Bible study daily at 3 p.m.

The Anti-Profanity meeting held last week Friday evening, was not well advertised, and the attendance was very small. However, those who were present were enthusiastic, and formed a League, with the following officers:

President, P. H. Jacobs.
First V.-P., J. L. O'Donnell.
Second V.-P., E. L. Cauffman.
Secretary, Eugene Cogsway.

A second meeting will be held this (Saturday) evening, at eight o'clock, in the Council Room. Every man and boy in this town and vicinity is invited to be present.

SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1902.

GREAT FIRE AT ATLANTIC.

About nine o'clock Thursday morning, a fire broke out in the Tarlton Hotel, in Atlantic City. Just what started it, nobody knows. Some say that a pet dog upset a lamp, and fire caught on a lace curtain; others, that electric wires caused it; still others, that it was incendiary.

A brisk wind drove the flames along rapidly, and soon all the fire fighting force of the city realized that they had met their match. Philadelphia was appealed to, and sent three steam fire engines and their men; Camden sent two engines and men; all were taken down by special trains on the West Jersey. With their experienced help, the fire was under control about three o'clock in the afternoon.

The loss includes several of the fine hotels—the Lundy, Berkly, Stratford, Bryn Mawr, Mervine, a portion of the Windsor, the Academy of Music, the centre of Young's Pier, stores of all kinds, several cottages, two squares of the board walk. The loss is estimated at from $700,000 to $800,000, and the insurance at $175,000.

It was an exciting fire. Visitors from all along the line listened to the sea, including quite a number from—Hampton. They say they never witnessed such a scene, and are eloquent in praise of the city firemen, who appeared to know no fear.

Of course, the estimated loss does not cover the valuables and clothing of guests in the hotels, which amounts to a large sum. As usual, thieves were active, but few persons were injured,—none seriously.

Edward Bernhouse, George G. Harley, John Naylor, A. G. Nispling, were among the jaymen selected, last Tuesday, to try Bonifiglio on the charge of murder,—the first named being foreman. The balance of the December juryman were discharged. On Thursday after exports had examined accused as to insanity, the Court declared him mentally unbalanced, and will commit him to the asylum. The jury was then discharged.

Good for Rheumatism. Last Fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after three more bottles was completely cured.—SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J. For sale by J. H. Rogers.

The Great Dismal Swamp Of Virginia is a breeding ground of malarial germs. So in low, wet, or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous malarial. But Electric Bitters are given to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malarial and stomach and liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Hayesville, Ohio, "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them,—only 50 c. a bottle, the druggist, guarantees satisfaction.

That ordinance to regulate the speed of automobiles while passing through town, is not worth much unless it is enforced. We hear of several recent cases where those noisy machines were run at high speed, frightening horses and causing them to run away. In one case the horse owner had a set of harness badly damaged; but the tourists passed on, paying no attention to the mischief done. Some of them claim to have paid a license fee which permits them to travel all Jersey roads on any day.
