

PERSONALS AND OTHERWISE.

Town Council meeting on next Wednesday evening.

George A. Blake is spending his Easter holidays with his family.

Mrs. Frank Erwin is here for Easter week. Mr. E. is expected to-morrow.

Mr. Perna and family moved into the T. C. Elvins house, on upper Bellevue.

Heavy storms last week loosened portions of the local telephone cable from its wire supports.

Persico, High School's catcher, was stung by a fly, Tuesday,—thrown by pitcher Piez,—losing a finger-nail.

The High School Sophomores are to have a cake sale in the Gas Company's office this afternoon, commencing at 2.30.

Gov. Wilson signed the automobile reciprocity bill on Tuesday. This allows non-residents free use of the roads, but increases the fee for residents, as follows: Cars of 10-h.p. or less, $4.50; 11 to 29 h.p. $7.50; 30-h.p. or over, $15.

Applications are no doubt pouring into Monfort's store for clippings from their shoe-tree,—infant shoes apparently growing on a pretty shrub—azalia—raised by Bassett & Weller. Might be a good stunt for a poor but numerous family.

F. C. Dudley is riding a new motorcycle.

Charles Bertolina is the new garbage collector.

Mr. King, of the newsroom, was missed part of this week,—on the sick-list.

G. N. Lyman is entertaining his niece, Mrs. Foster, and two little daughters.

G. Herbert Rogers and family, from Haddon Heights, are spending Easter with relatives.

The Baptists have purchased an organ for the main audience room, removed the old one to the chapel, and the one from there to primary room.

We recorded that March "came in like a lamb, but brought its overcoat along." We can now state—that it made its exit quite lamb-like—on Sunday.

The Lecture Association has signed a contract with Brockway Bureau for Dr. Edward Amherst Ott to appear in Bellevue Hall on Saturday, May 4th. This will be an additional number, free to all season ticket holders.

The Mahoney jurors from Hammonton were discharged at eleven o'clock, Thursday, minus four of their number who were "stuck" on the case. Those on the Murland case, in which "non vult" was plead, got off at noon, and at least four of them reached home in time for dinner.

Arbutus is attracting children to the woods.

C. Bud Cramer, of Haddonfield, was in town on Monday.

Reserved seat tickets are now on sale for the Civic Club Minstrels.

The public drinking fountain received a coat of red paint, this week.

"Folly Farm," located on the Pleasant Mills Road, is getting busy with Spring work.

A. P. Simpson and wife will move to the "Home School" property, on Central Avenue.

Miss Kirby, sister of County Clerk Samuel Kirby, is reported seriously ill, at the sanitarium at Ancora.

Miss Mary Little is spending a two weeks vacation at home, accompanied by her college friend, Miss Rockefeller.

Mr. Turner, of the Chautauqua Association, is to be here on Wednesday evening, 10th, to address a meeting of citizens at the residence of Dr. Burt.

Paul Cressman, nine year old son of our County Superintendent of Schools, was drowned on Monday, in a pond near which he was playing, at Egg Harbor City.

Andrew Nelson is in the employ of his son, an automobile man in Detroit, Mich., having resigned his position as engineer of our water plant, and has moved west. Geo. W. Dodd now has the post.

H. O. Packard's horse died this week.

Next Thursday and Friday eves,—the Civic Club Minstrel Show. A novelty.

Hiram C. Presséy and family came down in their car to spend Easter with relatives.

We had eight and nine one-hundredths inches of rain in March. That made six and three-eighths tons of water per acre.

Tuesday's base-ball game between our High School nine and Collingswood, resulted in a score of 7 to 4 in our favor. It was an interesting and, at times, an exciting game. The boys would like to see larger crowds inside the enclosure, and have season tickets on sale.

We have it on good authority that Hammonton is to be raided to-night,—not speak-easies nor gambling joints, but Red Men's Hall. State Chiefs, and warriors from Berlin, will instruct some of our city chaps in the "haymaking" craft. As there will be a heap big feed, every brave is expected to be on hand.

The Peoples Bank of Hammonton opened for business April 11th, 1887. Its twenty-fifth anniversary will be observed next Thursday, April 11, 1912, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. The public generally is invited to call. Careful management has made this a prosperous and popular institution.

St. Mark's Church—Easter Day. Holy Communion at 7 a.m. Second celebration and sermon at 10.30. Rev. M. Zara, of Philadelphia, will have charge of the services. Annual Parish meeting will be held in the Parish House on next Tuesday evening, April 9th, at eight o'clock.

Special Easter music at the M. E. Church. A large chorus choir will render special music at both services,—an Easter anthem in the morning; in the evening, under direction of Mr. Tilton and Miss Monfort, a cantata entitled "The Day of Resurrection." Mrs. A. L. Jackson will preside at the organ. Love Feast at 9.30. Preaching at 10.30 by Rev. S. M. Nichols, Ph. D., Presiding Elder. Jr. League at 3; Epworth League at 6.45. A brief address by Pastor Shaw at 7.30. There is a seat for you, and you are welcome.

Evening, an Easter service; sermon, "The casting-aside process," John xii. 24. Midweek service Thursday, 7.45. If you have no regular church home, we invite you to share ours; we call it "the homelike Church."

Mrs. Lillie Floyd, of Los Angeles, Calif., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Russell Moore.

Forty-five tramps were lodged in our town lock-up in March,—eight in one night. They are not fed.

There will be an Easter service at the Universalist Church to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, followed by communion. At 7.30, Easter exercises by members of the Sunday School and choir.

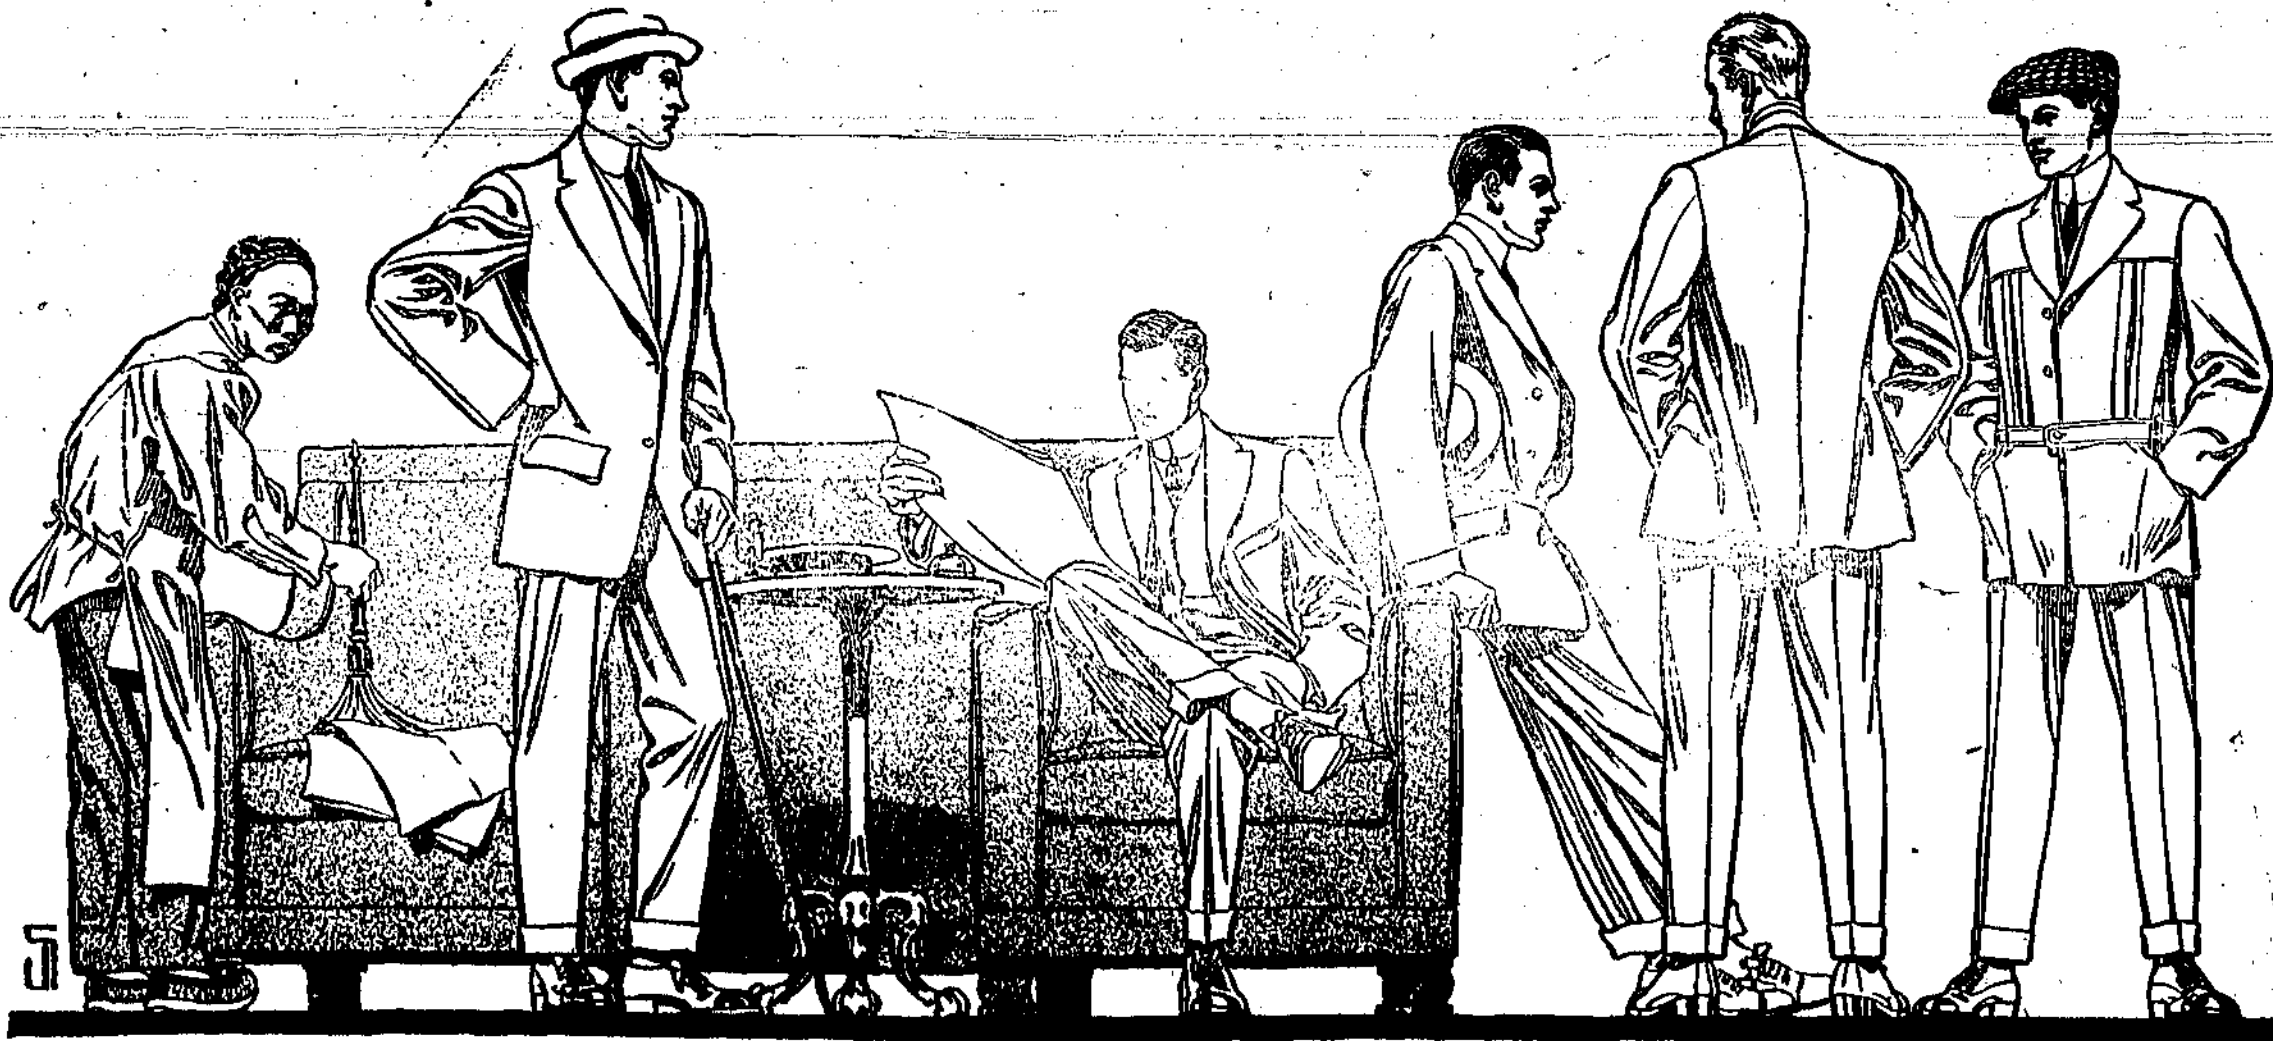

The ever-welcome martens were here this week—the advance agents of the home-coming colony. They remain a few days, usually, evidently choosing a location, then return to winter quarters and soon re-appear with their fellows. They are noisy birds,—but favorites every where.

The will of the late Mrs. B. Warrington has been set aside by Judge Higbee, through the efforts of Attorney Greis in a suit brought by Miss Edith Warrington, adopted daughter of the deceased. The will was made before the adoption, and gave everything to the husband. Edith will now receive her legal proportion of the estate.

The Ushers' Union of the M. E. Church held their semi-annual election of officers on Monday evening, in the Sunday School room. They re-elected all officers. A start was made toward organizing a base-ball team, by electing Casper Piez as Captain; A. L. Jackson, Business Manager; H. C. Doughty, Field Manager. A short entertainment followed; then a few games, and tasty refreshments.

BANK BROTHERS

As long as you are going to have a new suit this Spring, you may as well have it for Easter Parade. Our CLOTHING DEPARTMENT is filled with the kind of Clothing you ought to wear.

You will see new Clothes on every side, and the young men will be blossoming forth in the smart new grays, browns, blues, handsome mixed goods, and fancy tweeds. The new models for young men are two and three button Coats, with medium or long roll lapels, English coats with snug fitting shoulders. Men who like style along conservative lines will find us well prepared with styles and weaves that will appear to conservator dressers.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes are here in a bigger variety than ever, and the exclusive new weaves are the handsomest ever shown. Of course they are made of all wool fabrics, and guaranteed to give satisfactory wear, or we will give you a new suit if it fails to wear.
