HAMMONTON, N. J., SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1916

No. 15

Miss F. R. Bennett is visiting in Baltimore.

D. M. Chapman has a fine new Overland car.

Prof. Holdridge is enjoying his new automobile.

Dr. Warren A. Wood is practicing at Johnstown, Pa.

Work is progressing on the big addition to Turner's garage.

Mrs. H. McD. Little is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. L. Potter, in Georgia.

The Royal Electric Company are wiring the entire Godfrey Block, for lights.

Mr. Edward A. Olsen, of Oakland, N. J., was in Hammonton over Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Browning, of Newark, is a guest of Hammonton friends, at her old home.

Joe Passalacqua has the first 1917 automobile, a Studebaker, bought of W. S. Turner.

State Commissioner Calvin N. Kendall visited the Hammonton schools yesterday.

Mrs. L. A. Lewis returned to Philadelphia on Thursday, after a three weeks visit here.

Mrs. J. H. Richards, of Bryn Mawr, was in town on Wednesday, looking after her property.

Mrs. Francis Dowlan and little daughter are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wood.

Born, in Millville, on Tuesday, March 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Elias Cossaboon (nee Grace Hopping), a son.

James Rubertone broke ground this week for a large garage, on the north corner of Bellevue and Third Street.

The engagement is announced of Miss Leslie Combes and Mr. E. A. Olsen, the wedding day being set for next month.

Prof. L. C. Armstrong has taken rooms at A. L. Jackson's, and it is rumored that he will be joined by his wife and mother.

Claude Brown, employed in the Krummel bakery, has been very ill with pneumonia. He has now passed the crisis, and is on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Farrar are on their way home from India, coming via China, Japan, Hawaii, to San Francisco, a two months journey.

Mrs. P. S. Tilton and her sister, Miss Anna DePuy, have removed all their household goods to East Orange, intending to make that place their home.

Mrs. W. R. Perry was summoned to Sharpstown, Salem County, on account of the sudden death of an only brother. Mr. Perry attended the funeral, yesterday.

A grass fire, just below the Raleigh, caused an alarm to be sent in last Saturday. There was nothing to do but allow it to continue its annual burn-off.

C. F. Osgood has purchased a new automobile—a Case—from Jas. W. Cottrell. It is a new make in this vicinity, but looks well and seems to work satisfactorily.

Henry M. Phillips was taken to the German Hospital late last week, and on Tuesday submitted to a surgical operation. The latest word is that he is doing well.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of our President, has sent a fine hand embroidered handkerchief to our local branch of the Navy League. It is on exhibition in Black's store window.

A soil-blasting demonstration is to be given at Hugo Kind's, on old land, within the next ten days,—date and particulars of which can be secured of Mr. Kind or Prof. Armstrong.

Miss Ida G. Hoyt and Mr. John Francis McCabe, both of West Philadelphia, were married on Tuesday, March 21st, 1916. Best wishes are tendered them, so say local relatives and friends.

Chas. T. Thurston & Son have sold their plumbing business, and will leave Hammonton, making the family home in Richmond, Va. Mr. Thurston has secured a position with the U. S. Steel Construction Company, and will be for a time in Texas.

John C. Anderson and family have returned from Atlantic City, for the Summer.

The next meeting of the Relief Work Committee of the Needlework Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Parkhurst, on Vine Street, Tuesday, April 11th, at two o'clock.

On Monday evening, 10th inst., the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold a reception in honor of the Pastor. All members of the Church and congregation are most cordially invited.

The Frank S. Swift farm and home, on Middle Road, with stock, implements, and household goods, are to be sold at auction this afternoon, two o'clock. There's a desirable opportunity for someone.

Miss Jessie Phillips, for some time cashier in Jackson & Son's market, has resigned, and joined her family, who recently moved from Sharpstown, Md., to Camden. Every patron of the market misses her.

Rev. J. C. Killian, a former pastor of the Baptist Church, met many old friends at their Wednesday and Thursday evening prayer meetings. On the latter evening he gave a very interesting description of his Chapel Car work in the far West.

John T. Kelley, for a number of years employed as prescription clerk in Red Cross Pharmacy, has resigned, and will sever his connection therewith. Early in May he will open a drug store in Baker Bros. building, at the corner of Bellevue and Central Avenues. John is universally popular, well versed in all branches of the business, and all wish him success.

Swat that mosquito that has been spending the winter in your cellar or house. Every one not killed now means thousands if she finds water for breeding.

Those boys who were arrested for throwing bad eggs from a car, at passers-by, on Central Avenue, accepted friendly advice and plead guilty on Saturday, before Justice Strouse. It cost them five dollars each, plus seventy-five cents costs.

It was expensive sport, and may cause the fellows to pause a bit for second thought before perpetrating a joke (?) that may prove offensive to the victim.

The "Congregational Supper" which the Ladies' Aid Soc'y served the members of the Presbyterian Church, Thursday evening, was a very happy affair. It was chicken supper, and the number served proved it the best attended congregational meeting yet held. The reports were most encouraging, that our membership showing this year to have been the best in number of additions of any within the last ten years.

The Hammonton Base Ball Club has been organized for the coming season, and have bright prospects for a fast team that will be a credit to the town. They have arranged to give a dance at Hotel Raleigh, on Monday evening, April 24th, the proceeds to go toward suits and equipment for the Club. Nothing will be left undone by the boys to make this a notable event, and they ask for the hearty co-operation of the public.

On Wednesday, three Philadelphia schoolboys started on a tramp to Atlantic City. Reaching Hammonton, they were very weary, and longed for home. About ten o'clock at night they saw Frank Mimone's horse and buggy hitched on Bellevue Avenue, and appropriated it, starting out Third Street with the horse on a gallop. The boys were soon discovered, and after a little delay a jitney was hired and the team overtaken near Waterford. The boys were brought back and lodged in the cooler until the next day, when the father and mother of one of the boys came down, and there was an affecting scene. After some consultation, the father paid all expenses, gave Mimone five dollars for damages, and was allowed to take the boys home.

"Me improving?" said the farmer; "I'm looking for naman for the dogs."

A certain editor recently received from a lady some verses, daintily tied up with pink ribbon, and entitled, "I wonder if He'll come."

After reading them, he returned the effort to the sender with the following note:

"Dear Madam: If he does he ought never to be troubled with 'necesse' again."

The wagon went to one of the stations of the Metropolitan railway one evening last week, and, finding the host mean all taken, opened the door of a carriage and said:

"Why, this train isn't going."

A general stampede ensued, and the wag took the coveted seat in the corner.

In the midst of the general muddle the wag was asked:

"Why did you say the train wasn't going?"

"Well, it wasn't then," replied the wag, "but it is now."

"How do you broken ribs feel to-day?"

The patient took a long pull at his pipe and replied, slowly:

"Pain, doctor, but I've had such a stitch in my side."

"Excellent!" That shows that the horses are knittin'."

First stranger: "Excuse me, sir, but you seem to be very fond of your train. That's a very right thing."

Second stranger (calmly): "I'm a railroad stranger (calmly)."

"When I need to get out of door, please."

"When I need to, you shall go," his mother, decidedly.

This settled the matter, and the mother went off to his home, and about half an hour he returned, said:

"Mamma, have you seen him?"

"Seen whom?" replied the lady, "terly in the dark as to his name."

"Why, seen PLE."

A commercial traveler had an audience with a witness in a case against him, his employees having been delinquent customers, and the law for the defense was Johnson & Co., Milwaukee.

"You travel for Johnson & Co., you?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, sir."

"How long have you been doing 'em?"

"About ten years."

"Doesn't traveling all that time, his making?"

"Well, no, sir," said the witness, making a hasty mental calculation, "not exactly traveling. I have put about a case of shanty goods at railway stations and junctions 'trains'."

None of the "things one we rather have left unsaid" are really applied by kindness of heart.

"I have a case of shanty goods gone into the witness box on behalf of the plaintiff, whose counsel is examining him."

"The witness," the lawyer has "pleased" repeat the shantiness of the goods made by the defendant on occasion that you have heard them say:

"Oh, they are unfit for any respectable person to buy," was the plaintiff's answer.

"The witness," the examiner, exultingly, "supposes you just wanted to go to the judge?"

SUTHERS AS MEDICINE

A drowsy state after meals should be welcome, for it is a favorable condition for good nutrition. Nutmeg may produce some of its effect in the slowing of gastric juice. The nutmeg is much used as an astringent remedy to weak persons who have a keen appetite but need nutmeg, for appetite is a powerful stimulant of the gastric juice. If the appetite and the digestion will be favored by the addition of a little nutmeg will be found of benefit.
